The feast of Christ the King is celebrated on the last Sunday of the liturgical year, which is the Sunday before Advent begins. This feast day was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925 to remind Christians that Christ is the ruler of the world and that they should submit to his authority. The title "King of the Universe" is a reminder that Jesus is the ultimate authority and that all people should submit to him. It is a call to Christians to live their lives in accordance with Christ's teachings and to work towards building a better world.
