The 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time In this Gospel (Mk 1:21-28), St. Mark stresses on Jesus' extraordinary authority which differentiates him from the scribes: an authority which left the crowds in the synagogue astonished and impressed upon hearing Him teach; an authority which he showed not only through words but also through deeds upon freeing a man from an unclean spirit, thereby, manifesting his divine supremacy against the evil forces which enslave men.

"Praying the rosary before we celebrate weekend Mass is a blessing to our parish and a very powerful devotion that prepares us all to reflect. We have had a couple rosary leaders ask to be taken off the rotating roster so we are in need of some replacements for both Saturday evening and Sunday morning mass. ANY parishioner, no matter the age – please consider this role as a personal gift to the church. We currently only have two rosary leaders for Saturdays and three for Sundays. An additional rosary leader for each mass will help ease the rotation for our current group. Please contact Fr. Shaun, Shari Cox, Linda Lauber or Steve Knecht if you would like to learn more or to become a new rosary leader. Thank you!"
