

The Pontifical
College of Saint Bede

Pontificio
Collegio Beda
Roma.

- A Seminary for the formation of Priests for Dioceses and Religious Congregations. We accept students over the age of 30 for a 4 year Formation Programme which includes, as its academic component, a Degree of Bachelor of Theology validated by Saint Mary's University, Twickenham, London and a Post-graduate Diploma in Theology. English is the language of Liturgy and Teaching in College.
- The College provides the benefits and richness of receiving training in Rome and the experience of a multi-cultural environment. The current student body represents 10 countries and we greatly value the perspectives and enrichment of different cultures and experiences.
- This is a Canonically approved 4 year formation Course, commended by The Congregation for Clergy in Rome as providing 'a unified and balanced programme of priestly formation'
- The College is under the guidance of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales and accepts Candidates from Dioceses and Religious Congregations worldwide.
