Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Turn to the LORD for mercy;
to our God, who is generous in forgiving.
— Isaiah 55:7b

Today's Readings

First Reading Turn to the LORD who is generous in forgiving (Isaiah 55:6-9).

Psalms The Lord is near to all who call upon him (Psalm 145).

Second Reading Live your lives in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ (Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a).

Gospel The last will be first, and the first will be last (Matt 20:1-16a).

The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass (c) 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

Isaiah tells us something that we already know, and yet seem to forget every now and then. He tells us, essentially, that God is God and we are not. When we're confused and troubled and can't figure everything out, it might be wise to recall Isaiah speaking on the Lord's behalf and explaining that God—who is on a much more, well, Godly wavelength than we are—moves in ways we can't even imagine.

Saint Paul, by comparison, has everything figured out. Kind of. At least he understands his calling in life—to magnify Christ in everything he does. That should give all of us the direction we need. Jesus gives us direction, too, explaining to us once again in the parable of the workers in the vineyard that the last will be first, and the first, last. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Welcome Back to another year of Religious Education!

Is your family registered? IF NOT, please register NOW!

Please read for information on this year's program options:

Dear Religious Education Families,

On behalf of Fr. Tom and our Religious Education staff, we send you our warmest greetings and hope that all is well with your family. Please know that we continue to pray for all of you as we move through this unusual time. We are reaching out to you with updated information regarding our school year religious education programs and additional faith resources for your family.

As always, the health and safety of our families is our highest priority. We have carefully considered the state and archdiocesan requirements, as well as the logistics of shared spaces within our church community. Given the current circumstances, and after much discussion and prayer, the decision has been made to shift religious education programs for this year to a home-based model. We believe that by doing so we will be able to safely and effectively continue our parish religious education programs. As conditions improve and requirements change, we will evaluate the possibility of supplementing our online religious education with small group in-person programming.

Until such time as that becomes possible, all families have two options to choose from for this year's at-home catechesis:

- Online Religious Education Option 1: This program will be Google-classroom-based and incorporate online video lessons, a monthly family activity, a short quiz to check for understanding, and Zoom meetings to be scheduled during the year.
- Textbook-based Religious Education Option 2: If videos are not the best option for your child, and you are comfortable assuming the role of catechist without the assistance of videos, you can choose to teach directly from the textbook and work with your child at your own pace. A monthly family activity, a brief quiz, and Zoom meetings to be scheduled during the year are also components of this program.

For Grades 1-6:

We will still use our Alive in Christ workbooks for both at-home options. There will be additional activities provided to reinforce the faith themes being learned. We hope to be able to check in with our students and families via Zoom to discuss various faith themes during the year.

For Grades 7-9:

School year plans are in progress, and we will be in touch with you again shortly once things have been finalized and approved. At this time, we can communicate the following information: 1) there will be no option for small group in-home classes, 2) religious education for grades 7-9 is currently scheduled to begin in November, and 3) we will still be using our grade level textbooks.

Visit <https://stcatharinechurch.org/registration-forms> to register online. We ask you to prayerfully consider the information we have provided. We encourage you to register for the program that you anticipate being the best fit for your family at this time.

Please know that we take our responsibility to our families very seriously, and we are hard at work on the development of these programs. We are in communication with the archdiocese and working closely with Fr. Tom to ensure that religious education is a positive experience for your child. We will continue to communicate any changes or developments as we progress through this year. Please do not hesitate to reach out to us at stcatharinerelegioused@gmail.com with any questions or concerns you may have. As we move closer toward the fall, we hope to meet via Zoom to update you and to be available to answer any questions you might have.

Finally, we want to thank you for your kindness and understanding during these unusual times. We respectfully ask for your continued patience and flexibility regarding religious education programs, plans, and scheduling. By working together, we hope to continue to effectively support your family's journey of faith.

Wishing your family good health and the peace of Christ,

Michelle & Maryann
Co-Directors of Religious Education

Sharing the Gift of Treasure Stewardship Corner

"So the last will be first and the first last". - Matthew 20:16

You've heard the saying "it's not where you start, but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.

Thank you for your continued generosity to St. Catharine's!
