Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St. Catharine, are dedicated to spreading the Good News by word and example.

Nourished by the Eucharist, we seek to advance God's Kingdom by enriching spiritual life, increasing parishioner involvement, deepening commitment to social justice, fostering communication, and building community.

Moving Forward

It was a difficult choice to shut down for three days but as the website and CONNECT said, it was done out of an abundance of caution. There were enough unknown factors that made the decision a no brainer. Unfortunately, during COVID 19 there are still other diseases like colds and the flu. Please rest assure that re-opening was only done after we had concrete medical results.

The other lesson is that our ability to communicate is dependent on technology. Our parish website, Facebook page and especially our CONNECT email system, are the only means we have whenever something occurs on non-weekend days. I would strongly encourage anyone not enrolled with CONNECT to register now on our website. If you do not have a computer, perhaps an adult child, friend or neighbor could sign up and keep you informed.

On another note, we are moving forward on a couple of necessary, important capital projects. The first is the one repair that has been hanging over our head for the longest time, the roof which covers both the school and the church. The bid for the job is approximately a quarter of a million dollars. We are getting a new roof for free.

Thanks to the Archdiocesan Property and Building Department, we are entering into a contract with a solar energy company who will provide the roof in exchange for the units of energy and government incentives. Meanwhile, we are getting a green energy solution, and a project we could only fund through a separate fund raising effort. Talk about a win/win solution, this is the very definition of it.

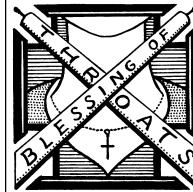

The other project will involve the installation of a new sound system for the church. This is being funded by monies from the Living Stones campaign, which was used primarily for our new front stairs. As people continued to pay off their pledges, the archdiocese, as promised, sent 50% back to the parish. So once again, this will be accomplished without depleting our funds as Living Stones was set-up strictly for capital improvements. We do not have start dates for either project, but I will keep you informed.

If I could, I would like close with a word of hope, as well as a word of caution. COVID numbers are still not to be taken lightly. On the other hand, more and more people are receiving the vaccine, and spring is only seven weeks away. So, the challenging times continue, but there is light ahead. Let's give each other the Lenten gift of acting responsibly with masks and social distancing, and hopefully soon, we will enter more normal times.

Join us for Masses during the week! Daily Mass Schedule for 2021

Feast Day of St. Blaise

(February 3rd)

We will be blessing throats at all Masses this weekend in celebration of the Feast Day of St. Blaise

On the feast day of St. Blaise it is customary to bless the throats of the faithful to preserve them from illnesses of the throat. Two candles are blessed, held slightly open, and pressed against the throat as the blessing is said.

Due to COVID restrictions, we are unable to offer individual blessings with candles. Instead, we will be offering a communal blessing to all in attendance.

Academy of Our Lady Our Home Away from Home

By Katy Clemente, 1st Grade Teacher

While I've never missed an opportunity to tout our school's attributes, this year, I was struggling to find a new way to frame it. So I did something that after I had done it, made me wonder why I hadn't done it before: I asked my first graders what they thought I should write about—what makes our school great? Their resounding answer: "It's the kids that really make it special, Ms. Clemente!" I couldn't agree more. Their second answer: "The teachers!" Teaching is great—there is no other job where you get that kind of validation. And besides, I quite agree. I work with the best. They also assured me that there is "lots of kindness" and said that we should "thank God for our school". And then, from the back of the room, a voice shouted, "It's like the Academy Song!" Well. Yup. That's the perfect source for inspiration. And it makes sense too, since my class hooked into that song this year with such enthusiasm and pride—our own little anthem.

We didn't have a school song when I was a student here. But then we also did not have Mr. Palmerini, and he's the one who wrote it, so some of this year's article in text and inspiration, must be attributed to him. The one line that always strikes me is the opening line, "Academy of Our Lady, our home away from home...". I find its meaning to be more profound this year because in what is closing in on a year of living through a global pandemic, "home" has even more so than usual, become synonymous with "safe". Stay home. Work from home. Learn from home. Shop from home. Worship from home. Home is our haven, and in these times of uncertainty, Academy is a haven too. It is where we come to learn and pray; where we come for some sense of normalcy and community; where we come for hope and compassion; where we come to feel God's grace. And like my first graders said, we thank God for the opportunities to learn together, to pray together, and to laugh together, in spite of all the challenges. And we thank God for those who continue to give grace. We are doing our best to ensure that our haven remains, like our song says, a "place where we belong", even in the toughest of times.

"Brothers and sisters:

I should like you to be free of anxieties."

- 1 Corinthians 7:32

How much anxiety do we bring upon ourselves by constantly worrying about not having enough or attaining more things? God won't necessarily give you everything you want, but He will provide everything you need. Try this – use the word "pray" instead of the word "worry" in the future. Then pray for things instead of worrying about them.

Thank you for your continued generosity to St. Catharine's!
