Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

*The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me
to bring glad tidings to the poor.*
— Luke 4:18a

Today's Readings

Reading I: Nehemiah 8: 2-4a, 5-6, 8-10 Ezra's reading of the law to the people comprises at least part of the Pentateuch. It is a stern proclamation, which in turn prompts the priests to cheer up the people and urging them to feast.

Reading II: I Corinthians 12: 12-30 Paul uses the analogy of our bodies to teach how the various bodily organs work together just as varied members of the Christian community unify to make it function as Christ would have it.

The Gospel: Luke 1: 1-4, 4: 14-21 Luke composes his "orderly account" of the event of Jesus, His life and ministry among us. Jesus as Teacher, a favorite role of His for Luke, speaks in the synagogue of His home town. There He makes a dramatic claim about Himself.

Readings for the Week

Monday: 2 Sm 5:1-7, 10; Ps 89:20, 21-22, 25-26; Mk 3:22-30

Tuesday: Acts 22:3-16 or 9:1-22; Ps 117:1bc, 2; Mk 16:15-18

Wednesday: 2 Tm 1:1-8 or 1:1-5; Ps 96:1-2a, 2b-3, 7-8a, 10;
Mk 4:1-20

Thursday: 2 Sm 7:18-19, 24-29; Ps 132:1-2, 3-5, 11, 12, 13-14;
Mk 4:21-25

Friday: 2 Sm 11:1-4a, 5-10a, 13-17; Ps 51:3-4, 5-6a, 6bcd-7, 10-11;
Mk 4:26-34

Saturday: 2 Sm 12:1-7a, 10-17; Ps 51:12-13, 14-15, 16-17;

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

I read a story about an elderly man who was admitted into a hospital for treatment. A nurse was asking him routine questions to complete the hospital forms. She asked him, "What is your religious preference?" The old man responded, "I'm awfully glad you asked that. I've always wanted to be a Catholic, but no one has ever asked me. You're the first one."

This story raises an important question. Why do so many of us hesitate to share our faith with other people? If we believe the Gospel is the good news, why don't we share it with others?

In today's gospel, Jesus is reading from the prophet Isaiah. The words of Isaiah are telling about Jesus' ministry; "proclaim liberty to captives, recovery of sight to the blind, let the oppressed go free." Isaiah is speaking about the love of Jesus.

As we listen to Jesus' words and follow his teaching of love, we pass on Christ's message. We do this by our example. By staying true to the teachings of Christ, we will share our faith with one another.

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Dominick

Academy of Our Lady

Dear Friends,

The annual celebration of Catholic Schools Week begins on January 30, 2022. Although the pandemic has compelled us to alter the way we celebrate, Academy of Our Lady School Community will not be deterred from observing this special week. The theme this year is: Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service. The theme focuses on the key components of Catholic education: to love God and neighbor, be good citizens to the world, and enrich society with proclaiming the Good News by word and example.

Each day our students are immersed in a faith-filled environment. Our students and staff share daily Morning Prayers and attend monthly Liturgies and Prayer Services, in-person and when necessary, virtually. Spiritual development is an integral part of daily student and staff life. Academic excellence is the hallmark of Catholic education, directed at the growth of the whole person, mind, body and spirit. We are proud of our academic accomplishments and student effort.

Our students are encouraged and invited to participate in service. Service is intended to help form students to not only be witnesses to Catholic social teaching, but to be active participants in helping the community. Our mission is to graduate students that are generous, responsible members of society.

As a school family, the Holy Spirit has guided us to rise above the difficulties of the pandemic. We are grateful to God for His many gifts. Our school is open full-time. Our incredible faculty and staff has made it possible to teach on-site, in a very safe environment.

On behalf of our faculty, staff, parents and students, I thank you for your prayers and support of Catholic education.

Sincerely,
Carol La Salle, Principal

"Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared..."
 - Nehemiah 8:10

Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us to be grateful for all that He has given us and to generously share our blessings with those who are in need. Now here's the hard part – to share all we have without expecting anything in return.

Thank you for your continued generosity to St. Catharine's!

Day of Prayer - This Tuesday, Jan. 25th 9am – 3pm “Prayer That Works”

This Day of Prayer is being offered on-site and virtually. Includes lunch, Reconciliation and Mass.

How can we pray more effectively? In what ways can we begin praying that will bring about real change in our spiritual as well as our relational and emotional lives? Are we more going through the motions in our praying rather than truly listening for the voice of God? Has our prayer become more of a routine that lacks real power rather than the engine of our salvation as Christ and the Apostles envisioned it?

Join us for a day of reflecting on these questions as we explore ways to quickly deepen and reinvigorate our prayer life that can lead to benefits of all kinds not just for us, but for all with whom we share our lives. Retreat Leader: Fr. Steve Pugliese, S.J.

Weekend Retreat – January 28–30

“The Spiritual Decision- The Beginning of True Discipleship”

This retreat is ON-SITE with no social distancing, but will also be taking place VIRTUALLY, if there is enough interest, so please indicate whether you will be attending in-person or virtually.

Every day we make innumerable decisions—when to get up, what to wear, what we read, where we will go, etc. Most of these we barely think about. However, there are other decisions that have life-long ramifications. These we often spend a great deal of time and thought and can include vocation decisions such as education, marriage, children, career. But even more important than those, are what we call our spiritual decisions. Spiritual decisions arise from questions such as: “Why am I alive?” “What is my destiny?” “What is most important in life?” “What is God asking of me?”

Join us as we discuss what spiritual decisions entail and what they are. Have I made a spiritual decision? What have I decided? How do I know if it comes from God? How do I engage my decision to changes my life? Retreat Director: Fr. Steve Pugliese, S.J.
