First Sunday of Lent

"The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve."

— Matthew 4:10

Today's Readings

Reading I: Genesis 2:7-9, 3:1-7 The first man is created "out of the clay of the ground." So our human story begins. Soon after, the woman (her origin not mentioned in this account) eats the forbidden fruit and gives some to her mate. "Their eyes were opened" and so the human struggle with slavery to sin begins as well.

Reading II: Romans 5:12-19, or 5:12, 17-19 St. Paul alludes to Genesis here, but he focuses on the theological truth that sin and death entered into the human story and brought on the terrible enslavement of sin.

The Gospel: Matthew 4:1-11 Jesus' desert experience closely parallels that of Israel, but where Israel fell into sin and alienation from Yahweh at times, the "New Moses," Jesus Our Lord, triumphs over Satan's temptations. In doing so, Jesus quotes from Deuteronomy and declares His own obedience to God's First Commandment.

Dear Parishioners,

The season of Lent has begun. We use this time to bring ourselves closer to God. During this season we work at turning away from sin and following God's Will. Then we can continue to live in this way after we celebrate Easter.

Temptation to sin is always going to be present. Part of following God's Will means resisting temptation. We know this is not always easy. This is where we learn about putting God first.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is fasting in the desert and is tempted three times by the devil. Jesus was tired and hungry but he never gave in. He resisted the devil. He put God first!

As we go through the season of Lent, let us put God first. When we think about where we battle with sin the most, let's not give into temptation but turn away from that sin. Then we can follow Jesus' example in the desert and not let anything get in the way of our relationship with God. We can prepare to celebrate Easter, where Jesus gained for us the gift of eternal life!

Sincerely in Christ, Father Dominick

Archdiocese of Newark 2023 Lenten Regulations

The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of Fast, only one(1) full meal is permitted, and two(2) smaller meals, which, if added together, would not exceed the main meal in quantity. Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast. On a day of Abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence.

The obligation to observe the laws of Fast and Abstinence "substantially", or as a whole, is a serious obligation.

The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance.

The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty*) extends from the First Sunday of Lent, February 26 to The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, June 4, 2023.

*Canon 920, §1. All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year.

Tickets are $100. 1st place winner receives 25% of the proceeds, up to $25,000, with 16 additional opportunities to win cash prizes. Your chance of winning is even better than buying a lottery ticket—we are only selling 1000 tickets! Drawing March 31st.

Silent Weekend Retreat for Women - March 3 - 5 It was the Women Who Stayed

We probably don't need to be reminded that we are living in a tumultuous period in history: an ambivalent economy, uncompromising politics, deadly violence. Where do we find the hope and peace that Jesus has promised us? What gifts do we as women have that contribute to this fulfillment of hope and peace? You are invited to a weekend of prayerful silence, listening and an optional sharing period to discern what gifts we have to offer to create an atmosphere of hope, peace. Retreat leader Judy Schiavo

Co-Ed Weekend Retreat (with New Format) - March 10 - 12 "Brother and Sister and Mother to Me....." (Matthew 12:50)

God's Holy Family is Wider Than We Know. A treasured insight in our Catholic tradition is the idea of family as the domestic Church—an honored place where, like the Holy Family, we first learn to love. But what if our family bears little resemblance to that sacred threesome? We can often feel on the fringe of Church and parish life. Whatever our family configuration, what would it mean to embrace the radical, wider vision of family that Jesus is inviting us to—with faith, not blood nor history, as our DNA?

In our retreat weekend together, using Scripture study, stories, and fresh thinking from Pope Francis and other writers, we will explore and celebrate the richness of all the ways God has called us to be family to one another. Conversation will be welcomed after each of our sessions, in the pathways and benches of our gardens, and at mealtimes. We will join in the celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, a healing Mass, and the Sunday Liturgy of the Eucharist as well. Retreat leaders Linda Baratte and Christine Eberle

"It is written: 'The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve.'"
- MATTHEW 4:10

Tempted between the riches and power of this world and service to God, Jesus chose service to His Father. If we wish to truly follow Jesus, we, too, must decide to turn away from worldly power and riches and put God at the center of our lives. Lent is our time to prune ourselves of earthly things, and develop and nurture heavenly things. Lent is time to repent and let go of the other "gods" we have put before God.
