Dear Parishioners,

Have you ever been hungry for something but you didn't know what? For example, did you ever go to the refrigerator, open the door, look at everything on the shelves, and say, "I'm hungry for something, but not for any of that?"

To put it another way, do you have everything in life that's important - a family, a job, and an income- but still feel something's missing?

If the answer to either of those questions is yes, then today's gospel reading could hold an important message for us. It could remind us of something we often forget.

There are two kinds of hunger in the world. First, there's a physical hunger, which only food can satisfy. Second, there's a spiritual hunger, which no food in the world can satisfy. In other words, we may believe we have everything we need, but still feel an incredible hunger inside us.

Our gospel reading today contains an important message for us. Jesus himself sums up that message in these words:

*"I am the living bread that came down from heaven.
Whoever eats this bread
will live forever."*

The message in today's gospel reading is this: There's a deep-down hunger in all of us that only Jesus can fill.

Sincerely in Christ, Father Dominick

Today's Readings

Reading I: Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a Moses reminds the people of their 40-year sojourn in the desert, where they were not only tested but also provided for via the manna. This they should never forget.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 10:16-17 By sharing the one cup and the one loaf, the diversity within the community blends into the unity brought about by being one body in Christ.

The Gospel: John 6:51-58 Jesus asserts Himself as the "living bread that came down from heaven." Infinitely superior to the Old Testament manna, this bread and wine become for them and us, His Body and Blood.

Stewardship Corner Time ~ Talent ~ Treasure

*"Because there is one bread, we, who are many,
are one body, for we all partake of the one bread."
1 CORINTHIANS 10:17*

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. We are called to be fed and to feed others. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other's relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our roadmap to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!
