Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St. Catharine, are dedicated to spreading the Good News by word and example. Nourished by the Eucharist, we seek to advance God's Kingdom by enriching spiritual life, increasing parishioner involvement, deepening commitment to social justice, fostering communication, and building community.

Dear Parishioners,

I'd like to begin by wishing Happy Father's Day to all fathers, grandfathers, godfathers and anyone who fulfills the role of father. It's wonderful to have a day where we can acknowledge our fathers and thank them for all they do for us.

This is a time we can show thanks to God. As we celebrate Father's Day, we can thank God for our fathers and for all they have done for us and our families. We can also ask God to continue to watch over our fathers and give them His Blessing.

Let's turn to God our Father and pray that we can all come together and live as brothers and sisters in Christ. In a special way, as we celebrate Father's Day, let's ask for God's Blessing on all of our fathers, grandfathers, godfathers and anyone who fulfills the role of father.

Sincerely in Christ,
Father Dominick

The Art of Doing Nothing

Minute Meditation by Franciscan Media

Some people take exception to my talk about the power of pause, living in the present moment, and the art of doing nothing. They don't like the idea of "wasting time." But there's a difference between wasting time and just being bored: Wasting time really is intentional. You are, literally, spending time. On clouds, or lilies, or naps, or silence, or prayer, or providing a generous spirit, or coffee with friends (even if on Zoom), or listening to someone's story, or caring for a flock of birds, or watching your cats fight it out for the best spot on the couch. Which means that you are not mortgaging your time or your life on any old distraction merely out of boredom. When you do pause and pay attention, there is an internal recalibration. While nothing is "added" to your life, there is a new awareness of the light that is within. Let's call it our new internal wealth account. As long as success is measured by keeping score, we lose track of most everything that makes us human and, therefore, glad to be alive.

—from the book by Terry Hershey

"As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.'"

- MATTHEW 10:7

Many of us take our lives for granted. We think we have plenty of time to "repent." Maybe we should live with a little more urgency in making things right with God. This is the difference in living our discipleship out of obligation versus out of love. Obligation implies we do the minimum required. Love implies we want a relationship. God wants us to be with Him in Heaven forever, but He also wants to be in relationship with us right now, while we are on earth. Start this second – invite the Lord into your heart.
