Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St. Catharine, are dedicated to spreading the Good News by word and example. Nourished by the Eucharist, we seek to advance God's Kingdom by enriching spiritual life, increasing parishioner involvement, deepening commitment to social justice, fostering communication, and building community.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

Weddings have always been a wonderful celebration. At the time of Jesus, they would celebrate for days. Weddings weren't at a specific place and time.

According to custom, the groom would go to the bride's house to negotiate with her father. Then the groom would bring the bride to his home and the celebrating would begin. On their way to the groom's home, the couple was met by ten virgins carrying lamps. The wise virgins were prepared for whatever might happen where the foolish ones used no foresight at all.

The gospel tells us about ten virgins awaiting the groom, five who were fully prepared and five who weren't. Jesus is teaching us to be prepared for when he comes a second time and we face our final judgement. We don't know when that day will be. Let's listen to the teachings of Christ and follow what he asks of us. So that whenever that day might be, we will be prepared for our final judgement and can receive the gift of eternal life.

Sincerely in Christ,
Father Dominick

Lectors Needed

The Lector Ministry is a wonderful opportunity to Proclaim the Word of God and to bring the living Word of God to the people. In and through them, God speaks to the gathered at mass.

A love of the Scriptures and good public speaking skills are highly desirable. Lectors are trained, provided with written guidelines, and given a book each year which allows her/him to fully prepare for their scheduled time(s) to read. Most lectors will read about once a month at a mass(es) and are expected to have availability to do so. For holy days, lectors sign up to read if they are available.

While we always welcome new lectors, the current need is for lectors who are available to read at the Saturday 5 PM or Sunday 8 AM masses. Are you ready to join this important ministry? Or maybe just want to learn more about becoming a lector? Please contact Pam Biggs at pam@pambiggs.com or at 201-819-4571.

Coffee & Community AND Blood Pressure Screenings

- Regularly the 1st Sunday of the Month - Upcoming Date: Dec. 3rd

November 12, 2023

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings

Reading I: Wisdom 6:12-16

The author acknowledges the "resplendent" attribute of wisdom as coming from God. To be close to God is to reign and be "free from care."

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, or 4:13-14

We await Jesus' return in glory, when the dead and those still alive will meet the Lord and always be with Him.

The Gospel: Matthew 25:1-13

The ultimate wisdom is that of being awake and ready for the Lord's call to the next life. The Responsorial Psalm puts it clearly: "My soul thirsts for You, O Lord, and "I will bless You while I live."

Mary La Croce, a parishioner of St. Catharine, has published a book of devotional poetry. The title of the book is Inscape.

The book is a collection of reflections and ponderings about the mystery of the sacred, and its immanence in our lives, and, indirectly, of some of the ways nature itself unfolds and announces this mystery. Each poem is superimposed on a photo.

Inscape is available on Amazon.com and BN.com.

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

- MATTHEW 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? Don't delay. None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

Thank you for your continued generosity to St. Catharine's!
We depend upon your generosity to continue our mission.
