Feast of the Epiphany

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem!
Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you.
 - Isaiah 60:1

Today's Readings

Reading I: Isaiah 60:1-6 The prophet announces that all parts of the world will come to Zion to rebuild Jerusalem. Then throughout land the glory of the Lord will shine forth.

Reading II: Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6 Paul's chief insight into the mystery of Christ is that Gentiles are to be recognized as full participants in the life of the Church.

The Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12 The special personages in this episode are the magi, or wise men, who come to visit Jesus. Over time, Christianity has made them into kings, numbering them as 3 because of the number of gifts they presented to the Child. Above all, they symbolize the Gentile world coming to the Jewish Christ.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

On December 25, we celebrated Christmas, the birth of our Savior. Since then, it has been the Christmas season in the church, continuing the celebration of Jesus' coming into the world.

Last Sunday, the first Sunday after Christmas was the Feast of the Holy Family. On that day, we celebrated the family that was formed on Christmas; Saint Joseph, the Blessed Virgin Mary and Jesus our Savior.

Today, the second Sunday of Christmas is the Epiphany. We celebrate the Three Wise Men who were led to the new born Jesus by following a star. When they arrived, the Wise Men presented Jesus with the gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Tomorrow the Christmas season ends with Jesus, now an adult, being baptized in the Jordan River by John the Baptist. Jesus would then begin his public ministry, teaching about the Kingdom of God.

The Christmas season is a beautiful time in the church, remembering Jesus' birth and the events that followed. Although the season has ended, Jesus is always present. Let's continue to make Jesus visible.

Christmas is a time when family and friends come together. We think especially about those who are less fortunate and we make a point of giving God time in our lives. If we continue to do this, we will make Jesus visible not only at Christmas, but every day.

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Dominick

The Work of Christmas

an Epiphany Prayer

When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and the princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flocks,
The work of Christmas begins:
To find the lost,
To heal the broken,
To feed the hungry,
To release the prisoner,
To rebuild the nations,
To bring peace among people,
To make music in the heart.

We Need New Stories: Forgiveness, Freedom, and Hope

What are the stories we tell ourselves? What are the stories we tell others about ourselves? Are these stories really who we are? Using stories, prayer, and poetry through the framework of the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises we will seek to open ourselves more deeply to God's healing grace and living lives of generous discipleship in our following of Jesus Christ. Led by Jim Croghan, S.J.

Co-Ed Weekend Retreat - February 2 - 4

On this retreat we will pray with stories of people—biblical and contemporary—who experienced healing in different ways, and explore our own healing encounters with Jesus. Led by Christine Eberle

*"They fell down and worshipped him.
Then they opened their treasures and offered him

- MATTHEW 2:11

Notice the order of events in the Magi's visit. First, they knelt before Jesus and prayed to Him. Then they presented Him with their gifts. We, too, must take time to pray before we present our gifts to the Lord. We never know what God may be asking us to share!
