Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings

Reading I: 1 Samuel 3: 3b-10, 19

The call of young Samuel is itself a classic description of how such a call can be misinterpreted at first. In this case, the future prophet is given a command to communicate a particular Word to the people.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 6: 13c-15a, 17-20

Saint Paul's powerful message is that our bodies are Temples of the indwelling Holy Spirit.

The Gospel: John 1: 35-42

The Baptist's preaching is fulfilled when two of his former disciples, namely Andrew and his brother Simon, decide to follow Jesus. The Lord, in turn, poses to them (and us) a life-altering question: "What are you looking for?"

"The time is always right to do what is right."

Martin Luther King, Jr.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

I read a story about an older man who was admitted to a hospital for treatment. A nurse was asking him routine questions to complete the hospital forms. She asked him, "What is your religious preference?" The old man responded, "I'm awfully glad you asked that. I've always wanted to be a Catholic, but no one has ever asked me. You're the first one."

This story raises an important question. Why do so many of us hesitate to share our faith with other people? If we believe the Gospel is the good news, why don't we share it with others?

In today's gospel, we hear how Andrew is willing to share his faith. Andrew brings his brother Peter to Jesus. Eventually Jesus will pick Peter to be the rock on which Jesus will build his church.

Let's pray the following prayer:

Lord, teach each one of us that here on earth

You have no hands but ours to reach out to the needy.

You have no heart but ours
to embrace the lonely.

You have no voice but ours to share the message of why you lived, suffered and died for us.

Lord, teach us here on earth
we are your hands,
we are your voice,
we are your heart.

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Dominick

Co-Ed Weekend Retreat - January 26 – 28 Exploring the many ways of Prayer

Are you in a rut with your prayer life? Perhaps you may even feel as if you have no prayer life at all or maybe your prayer life simply needs to be given a new shot of life and energy. Wherever you are in your prayer life and faith journey, this retreat is for you. Led by Fr. Joe Costantino, S.J.

Co-Ed Weekend Retreat - February 2 - 4 Healing Encounters February

We all stand in need of healing. As earthen vessels, our fragile bodies, minds, and spirits long for the soothing touch of our loving creator. But how do we press in? How do we open ourselves to the kind of encounter that enables genuine transformation? And what does healing look like? On this retreat we will pray with stories of people—biblical and contemporary—who experienced healing in different ways, and explore our own healing encounters with Jesus. Led by Christine Eberle

Day of Prayer - Thursday, Feb. 15th 9am – 3pm Blessed are We: Living the Beatitudes

This day of prayer invites us to reflect on what the Beatitudes say to us today, individually and collectively. What would it mean to our world to live more fully in the Beatitudes – both as preached by Christ, and as we might reframe them today. Led by Susan Stabile, spiritual director and retreat director trained in the Ignatian tradition.

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them,
'What are you looking for?'"

- John 1:38

When we recognize who we are, it's easier to find what we are looking for. Once we see ourselves, and others, as children of God, we spend less time looking for the material comforts of the world. Instead, our hearts long for something deeper that can only be filled by God. Ask God daily how He wants you to live the life He intended for you.
