First Sunday of Lent

Today's Readings

Reading I: Genesis 9:8-15 The story of the Great Flood and Noah's leadership is one in which the world is cleansed by water. There follows a covenant between God and the people symbolized by a rainbow which will mean the end of future rainstorms before they destroy the world.

Reading II: 1 Peter 3:18-22 The victory of Christ over sin is applied to Christians by baptism. This was prefigured by the cleansing waters of the Great Flood.

The Gospel: Mark 1:12-15 The brief and simple narrative of Mark contrasts with the more elaborate scriptural debate between the devil and Jesus, as portrayed in both Matthew and Luke, both of which followed Mark in time.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

The season of Lent has begun. We use this time to bring ourselves closer to God. During this season we work at turning away from sin and following God's Will. Then we can continue to live in this way after we celebrate Easter.

Temptation to sin is always going to be present. Part of following God's Will means resisting temptation. We know this isn't always easy. This is where we learn about putting God first.

In today's gospel, Jesus is fasting in the desert and is tempted three times by the devil. Jesus was tired and hungry but he never gave in. He resisted the devil. He put God first!

As we go through the season of Lent, let's put God first. When we think about where we battle with sin the most, let's not give into temptation but turn away from that sin. Then we can follow Jesus' example in the desert and not let anything get in the way of our relationship with God. We can prepare to celebrate Easter, where Jesus gained for us the gift of eternal life!

Sincerely in Christ, Father Dominick

Prayer for Our Troops O God of mercy, we ask You to protect in a special way those who are fighting for us and for the country we love. Bless them and take care of them. Give them strength. Give them comfort. Touch them with Your gentle hand and let them know that You are near them. Hasten the day, dear Lord, when we may all enjoy the blessings of peace. Amen.

Lenten Regulations - Archdiocese of Newark

The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of Fast, only one(1) full meal is permitted, and two(2) smaller meals, which, if added together, would not exceed the main meal in quantity. Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast.
 On a day of Abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence.

The obligation to observe the laws of Fast and Abstinence
 "substantially", or as a whole, is a serious obligation.

The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance.

The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty*) extends from the First Sunday of Lent, February 18 to The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, May 26, 2024.

**Canon 920, §1. All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year.*

Day of Prayer - This Tuesday, Feb. 20th 9AM – 3PM

Lightening Our Darkness

'Lent' comes from an Old English word meaning lengthening - the lengthening of days and daylight hours that comes in the season of spring. In our spiritual seasoning, it is a time to mark our movement from darkness of pride, fear & despair to the full light of humility, boldness, and hope. We will use the pilgrimage of Nicodemus as our guide in growing in Lenten discipleship. We will explore the three times he appears in the Gospel of John, probing his first encounter with Jesus at night - to his embracing Jesus's body at the cross in full light of day. We will claim as our own his courage to question, to confront, and to love. Led by Linda Baratte, Ph.D.

Men's Weekend Retreat - Feb 23 – 25

Where Is Our Hope? What is it to hope only in Christ? To hope only in God? Join us as we discuss that hope and its many manifestations on our weekend retreat. Led by Fr. Steve Pugliese, S.J.

Co-Ed Weekend Retreat – March 8 - 10

Growing in Wisdom Grace

As we move along on life's journey, we can get caught by focusing on its challenges (sickness, diminishment, etc). We can easily miss noticing the gifts (the graces) within those very same experiences. Come and spend a few hours of quiet and reflection, exploring the blessings of this time in your life. Led by: Margaret Ellen Burke, S.C.

Co-Ed Weekend – March 22-24

Many would agree that constant "doing and business" comes at a price. Most often our relationship with God suffers and we lose the awareness of God, others and even of ourselves. The practice of pause is simply creating small spaces of time to step away from "doing" and to simply "be" with your God during your day in a deep intimate way. Led by Anna Graziano

Ecclesiastes 3:1 "There is a time for everything..."

Stewardship Corner Time ~ Talent ~ Treasure

"After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God..." - MARK 1:14

Have you ever thought about how difficult it must have been for Jesus to go to Galilee, knowing that John had just been arrested for teaching the same message that He was proclaiming. It took great love and trust for Jesus to do what the Father had sent Him here on earth to do. In the same way, living a stewardship lifestyle takes great love and trust from us. We must be willing to surrender completely to God, trusting that He will always give us all that we need to fulfill His plan for us.

Thank you for your continued generosity to St. Catharine's!
We depend upon your generosity to continue our mission.
