Pastors Column: From a sermon of St. Bernard of Clairvaux

We know that the coming of the Lord is threefold: the third coming is between the other two and it is not visible in the way they are. At his first coming the Lord was seen on earth and lived among men, who saw him and hated him. At his last coming the Lord was seen on earth and lived among men, and they see him within themselves; and so their souls are condemned. Low gluten hosts will be available in the daily Mass chapel after each Mass of obligation and I ask that one Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion be available in the chapel after each Mass to see to this need. I am doing this because this period is the prime cold and flu season. In addition, the number of Extraordinary Ministers is decreasing and this will allow those serving to be scheduled less frequently during this period.

This weekend after each Mass Cookie Trays are available for pick up for those who preordered and we have extra trays for purchase. They are $15.00 per tray and are wrapped with and have a bow ready for gift giving. You can pick them up at the Parish Hall entrance up the left ramp.

For those who have ordered Ornaments and haven’t picked them up yet, they are available at the Parish Office. We have some left if anyone is interested in purchasing them.
