Pastors Column: On Monday, the Church celebrates the Feast of St. Mary Magdalen. The following is taken from the Sermons of Pope St. Gregory the Great (d. 604):

Mary Magdalen, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, through love of the truth, washed away in her tears the defilement of her sins, and the words of the Truth (Jesus) are fulfilled which He said to her: “Sorrows shall overtake her.” Mary still stood without at the sepulcher of Christ, weeping. She only one that saw Him. It is the truth that she sought Him Whom her soul loved, but she found Him not. She who had remained chilly in sin, became fiery through love.

Mary Magdalen, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, through love of the truth, washed away in her tears the defilement of her sins, and the words of the Truth (Jesus) are fulfilled which He said to her: “Sorrows shall overtake her.”
