Capital Campaign Re-Approved

In order to have the Capital Campaign donations free from diocesan assessment in the future, Fr. Schlaline had to formally ask Bishop Gainer’s permission. This week we received the good news that the Bishop has granted permission. So at this time, all donations to the Interiors Fund will not be assessed.

Church Interiors Update

This week, a structural engineering firm will be conducting a formal analysis on the cracks in the walls. They will be determining the extent of the problem of the cracks addressing issues like:

- Do the cracks that are visible in the interior indicate a structural problem? If so - to what extent is the problem and what needs to be done to remedy the problem?
- As we prepare for a total interior restoration of the church, what steps must we take to prevent the kind of cracking and decay we currently see on the walls?

All are welcome to a presentation and meeting this Wednesday April 6 after Stations of the Cross. The meeting will start around 7:30pm in the church.
