The Jesuits

The feast of Saint Ignatius of Loyola is July 31. In honor of this founder of the Society of Jesus (aka Jesuits), here is a reflection from John Timon Reilly of his experience of the Jesuits he knew:

"The Jesuits were great missionaries, teachers and statesmen, and worked for great ends. The Society of Jesus was founded as an army to battle against the enemies of religion; to fight the battles of the Church against infidelity, and to stand between the powers of the world, the flesh and the demon in their attacks upon God, His Church and His poor. The prayer of its saintly founder, St. Ignatius Loyola, was for continual persecution of its members, so that they might become grim warriors used to the struggles that light is bound to meet with darkness as long as time shall exist. Like the soldier, the Jesuits are trained to religious austerities from youth to the grave, and they are practiced in every mode of Christian warfare. They are as learned a body of men as the world will ever see. Their school of theology is the grandest in the history of the Church."

Lourdes and the Miraculous Cures

Sunday August 6, 7:00pm in the Parish Gym

☞ This multimedia presentation reviews the history of the Blessed Virgin Mary’s apparitions at Lourdes, France and highlights some of the miraculous cures attributed to Our Lady’s intercession. It will be given by Steve Hemler, President of the Catholic Apologetics Institute of North America (CAINA) and author of a trilogy of published apologetics books. Many of his ancestors attended Conewago Chapel and are buried here. This presentation briefly reviews the history of the extraordinary appearances of the Virgin Mary to 14-year-old Bernadette Soubirous at Lourdes in 1858. We also will explore several of the thousands of cures that have taken place in Lourdes, including recent ones that defy explanation by even the most skeptical medical personnel using the best modern technology.

The Book of the Gospels

The Second Vatican Council called for a greater reverence for Scripture by Catholics. To that end, ordination rites of a deacon and a bishop both prescribed that a special Book of the Gospels be used during the ordination rites, and the rubrics for a Solemn Mass prescribed that a deacon use a special Book of the Gospels for proclaiming the Gospel.

A Book of the Gospels carried in the entrance procession is mentioned in documents describing the seventh and eighth century Roman liturgies. The “Little Entrance” (a procession) with a Book of the Gospels is a dramatic moment in the first part of the Liturgy.

Christian liturgy has always focused on the person of Christ as the fulfillment of the prophecies of the Hebrew Scriptures. For this reason, liturgical traditions of East and West have given special reverence to the books containing the words of Christ over books containing other sacred scriptures. Carrying the Book of the Gospels during entrance processions is actually a return to a more ancient Christian liturgical practice to help us focus on the person of Christ, our Risen Savior.

We are resuming this practice in our parish Transfiguration. After the second reading, the lector should close the Lectionary and remove it from the pulpit. During the Alleluia, the deacon will then process from the altar to the pulpit and read from the Book of the Gospels.

MAY THE GOSPELS SHINE THE LIGHT OF FAITH IN OUR HEARTS AND MINDS.
