

CSA and Ministries It Supports

The CSA supports parishes and generates the funds our local Church needs to support the episcopal ministry of our archbishop and the ministries of his auxiliary bishops. No CSA dollars have ever been — or ever will be — used to settle claims of any nature against the Archdiocese or to support projects outside the Archdiocese of Detroit, other than specific national collections of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. The archdiocesan lay Finance Council oversees the distribution of CSA funds to ensure that all reach the ministries, programs, and services for which they are intended. Moreover, the Archdiocese's financial reports are audited annually by an independent auditing firm. For several years, the faithful of the Archdiocese have generously provided about $17 million annually in Catholic Services Appeal funds for use solely and exclusively to support more than 170 archdiocesan ministries, programs, and services — good works that benefit parishes and countless individuals in the Archdiocese and beyond:

Catholic Schools

The importance of forming minds and hearts in the love of Jesus is vital to the future of the Catholic church in both the Archdiocese and the world. We are blessed with over sixty Catholic schools serving children of all ages and backgrounds. Your generosity ensures that children will have the benefits of a faith-filled education through the services provided by the Catholic Schools office.

Clergy, Consecrated Life and Sacred Heart Major Seminary

In discerning God's call to the priesthood or permanent diaconate, men spend years of study and rigorous formation preparing for a life as a laborer for Christ. Your support of the Clergy and Consecrated Life office and Sacred Heart Major Seminary ensures that the Archdiocese has priests and other ministers to serve the Church faithfully for years to come.

Communications and Marketing

Communication is a valuable tool to reach all those engaged or seeking engagement with the Church. Your generosity supports the development of the many modern ways available to Unleash the Gospel through print and digital publications, podcasts, videos, social media, and communication assistance to parishes.

Development – Mission Advancement

The Development – Mission Advancement office encourages parishioners through their gifts of prayer, service, and generosity to support the important ministries of Christ's commission to Unleash the Gospel, including those supported by the Catholic Services Appeal. The office also coordinates administration of CSA-funded grants to parishes and schools made possible through your generosity.

Evangelization and Missionary Discipleship

Without your generous support of the Archdiocese's commitment to evangelization, thousands would go without the spiritual nourishment so vital to our souls. Through faith formation, worship, and Christian service programs for people of all ages, the Evangelization and Missionary Discipleship office provides boundless faith resources to Unleash the Gospel and strengthen the Church.

Parish Support

Our parishes are the heart of our Archdiocese, making up the beautiful and diverse community of the Catholic faithful in Southeast Michigan. Your support of the office of Parish Support Services ensures that the administrative needs of parishes are served.

Metropolitan Tribunal

The Catholic Church is committed to the teachings of Jesus Christ concerning marriage. The ministers who work in the marriage tribunal look upon their effort as a healing ministry, an expression of the Church's compassion and concern for those served by the Tribunal through your support of the CSA.

Mission Grants

The CSA provides funding that enables the Archdiocese to address as a community the countless physical and spiritual needs throughout Southeast Michigan. We come together to serve Jesus through the poor, forgotten, outcast, and hurting. Your support of this ministry of Christian service is the essence of being Christ's disciple.

JESUIT RETREAT HOUSE

Christian Meditation Retreat

A silent retreat for men & women

Friday, May 5, 7:30 PM to Sunday, May 7, 1:00 PM

The Christian Meditation Retreat offers the experience of meditation, the opportunity to better understand our growth in the Christ-life and instruction on how meditation helps us be transformed in Christ.

Talks will draw upon the Scriptures and the specific form of the mantra prayer taught by Fr. John Main, OSB, founder of the World Community of Christian Meditation, Fr. Lawrence Freeman, OSB and Fr. Anthony de Mello, SJ. The practice, rather than the teachings, will be emphasized.

Please wear loose clothing, bring a pillow if you plan to sit on the floor and a yoga mat if you plan to join one of the Christian yoga sessions. Be prepared to spend time privately — sitting or walking the grounds or praying at the Labyrinth or Stations of the Cross — and in group meditation.

Deposit of $50 due at registration. (Meals begin Saturday with breakfast.) Register at manresa-sj.org/050523-cm or phone 248.644.4933 Ext. 0.

Diaconate Vocation Awareness Information Night

The Permanent Diaconate Office of the Archdiocese of Detroit will be hosting an in-person Vocation Awareness Information Night at St. Therese of Lisieux Parish for all who are discerning a call to the Diaconate. The meeting will take place at St. Therese of Lisieux Parish at 48115 Schoenherr Rd. in Shelby Twp. on May 3rd from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Please pass along the following information if you know of any interested men or would like to encourage someone you know.

For more information and to RSVP for this event please visit the Archdiocese of Detroit website at AOD.org or on Facebook at facebook.com/ArchofDet

All Things Considered

The beginnings of an Annual (Arch)diocesan Campaign go back to 1920 when Bishop Michael Gallagher was building Sacred Heart Seminary.

Citing a “grave shortage of priests” in Michigan, Bishop Gallagher called on Catholics at that time to raise $4 million to build a new seminary. That’s about $60.3 million today. “New parishes cannot be established, new churches cannot be built, until the supply of priests is augmented,” noted a 1920 advertisement for the Sacred Heart Seminary Campaign.

On the outskirts of the city at that time, seventeen acres at the corner of Joy Road and Linwood Avenues were selected. Bishop Gallagher never dreamt small, so he engaged one of Detroit’s preeminent architectural firms of that time, Donaldson & Meier.

Work began in 1921. Then, in the presence of what The Detroit Free Press claimed was “an incredible 100,000 people,” the cornerstone-laying ceremony took place in 1923. The gigantic complex housing 400 seminarians would open in 1924. It remains in service now not only as a seminary, but also a graduate house of theology for a wide range of students.

This past Saturday, the Baccalaureate Mass followed by the Commencement Exercises was celebrated there. Three of the 105 receiving degrees this year will go on to ordination in service as priests in the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Without any surprise, the operation of Sacred Heart Major Seminary still commands a significant amount of the financial resources of local Catholics. While the students of the Sacred Heart are no longer on a single path to priesthood, the school serves as a source of higher theological training for parish ministers who fill jobs in the Catholic Church all over the country. Sacred Heart has survived at a time when many other seminaries have folded – including some prestigious European ones like Louvain.

Think about the sacrifices of generations of Detroit Catholics for our Seminary over past years, and add your sacrifice when it comes to this year’s Catholic Services Appeal.

Although Sacred Heart Seminary now houses all sorts of activities, I’d venture a guess that only a small percentage of Catholics living in Southeastern Michigan have ever been inside its doors. I’d like to add the Seminary onto one of our future Motor City Makeover Tours.

When that happens you will be taken by its impressive Neo-Gothic architecture and seemingly endless hallways of Pewabic tile connecting classrooms, student housing, faculty residences, gymnasium, an auditorium seating six hundred, two libraries, dining facilities, two small chapels and one grand chapel located in the center of the complex with German stained glass, a Casavant pipe organ and a hand-carved altar reredos from Oberammergau.

At its opening, Sacred Heart also housed a convent of sisters to staff an infirmary. It even had its own barber shop, music practice rooms, a radio studio, motion picture projection abilities, and its own power-generating plant. You can see its Gothic tower from downtown Detroit and vice-versa.

An interesting aside, is that while Sacred Heart Seminary was being built, our founding pastor – P.J. Cullinane – contracted Donaldson and Meier to build our parish church building. While that firm built hundreds of structures across the country, they only built two in the Tudor/Gothic Collegiate Style. Sacred Heart and St. Ambrose. Ours is a chip off the old block.

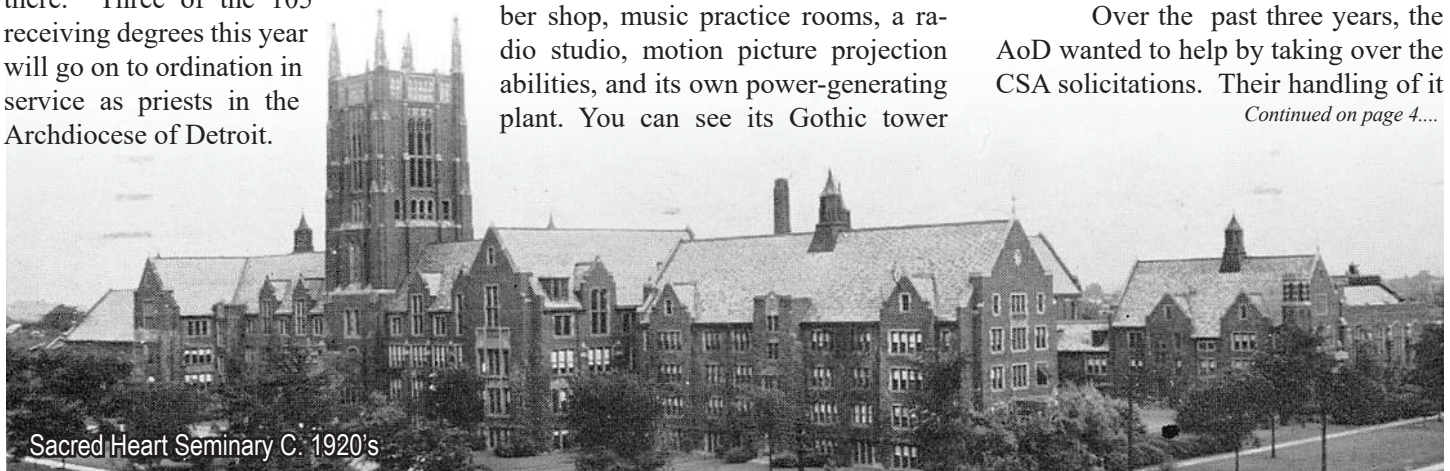

We’d like to get going on this year’s Catholic Services Appeal as soon as possible. Our share of the tab for 2023 is $97,755. Raising that kind of cash at a time when attendance is down and when we’re engaged in our own restoration of our Donaldson & Meier church building and Casavant pipe organ is a challenge.

But let’s be clear about a couple of things. Although I’ve focused on buildings in this column today when about the CSA, overwhelmingly, those funds are earmarked for people and outreach ministries. That breakdown you’ll find on the previous page. What you will never see are any CSA funds going towards the settlement of any lawsuits involving the AoD, its priests or employees.

We had hoped to already have a letter out to you asking for your support in the 2023 CSA. But some essential materials like the pledge cards were not yet printed by the Archdiocese. (Seems like they are surprised every year about the timing.) When we receive what we need, we’ll get it out to you quickly by direct and electronic mail. Your response can be by mail or electronically.

Over the past three years, the AoD wanted to help by taking over the CSA solicitations. Their handling of it

Our parish engaged in a Lenten Coin Folder project which will be applied toward the established of a new orphanage in Ogomi, Nigeria.

The energetic Fr. Anthony Kote-Witah is pretty much single-handedly dedicated his talents to accomplishing this goal of bringing an orphanage to his native land.

To this end, there will be a major fundraiser on May 10th at the Regency Manor in Southfield.

Seating for this event is limited, however, we have reserved a table specifically for St. Ambrose parishioners and will be available at $300 per seat to benefit Fr. Anthony's cause. Tickets for this event can be purchased through our front office or online by using the QR code below.

The Ken Saro-Wiwa Memorial Foundation is a non-profit charity organization established in the United States with a focus on orphans everywhere, especially in Ogoni and her enclaves that provides shelter, health care, and education to the disadvantaged and vulnerable children in our society.

left a lot to be desired. So, since the parish is going to be on the hook for the CSA quota no matter what kind of program the Archdiocese runs, a few pastors (priests in solidum) like me have opted to do the campaign in-house like we successfully have for decades.

I already know that there will be some overlap and confusion. There always has been with the CSA office. I can't guarantee that you won't also get a solicitation from the AoD in addition to one from the parish. The AoD and the parish will both print a QR Code for you to use. One will take you to their website, the other to ours.

We think that we can give you more personal attention if you channel your gifts to the CSA through St. Ambrose. You certainly can use the Archdiocesan mail and electronic addresses. Eventually everything, as long as it is clearly marked with "St. Ambrose," will end up in our tally. And since all contributions for the CSA are still sent out of state to post (for some strange reason) it often takes weeks for checks to get cashed and credited toward our goal. Please be patient.

In his letter from May 1920, asking for support for the first diocesan-wide appeal, Bishop Gallagher wrote:

"If God has been good to you, now is the time and occasion to do something handsome for Him. Today God asks you for His interest. What you may have accumulated of this world's goods in the past years is yours only in virtue of His Divine providence. In the same generous spirit, return to Him a proportionate share of those blessings. Make your contribution a spiritual investment that will pay you good dividends of an imperishable nature ..."

Our Casavant will find the right musician

The Casavant at St. Ambrose Church in Detroit/Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan has 36 ranks of pipes on three manuals and pedal, with two expressive divisions. Designed in the English style and Installed in the 1940s, its warm and colorful tone palette serves the needs of the Sacred Liturgy admirably. The Parish has embarked on an organ restoration program and is looking for a part-time Minister of Music to help guide that restoration and to assume the duties of three weekend masses, with cantors at each. Additionally, one choir rehearsal is expected when in season. Holydays are integral to the contract.

St. Ambrose has for decades maintained an eclectic programming style which assimilates many different musical styles. A music minister should be willing to work in tandem with the pastoral staff to create a pleasing, varied and engaging musical program. This position would work for a musician who has other employment during weekdays, since funerals and weddings are extraneous to this contract. We believe that the Casavant will find the right musician. Pay commensurate with experience. Start date is July 1, 2023 or earlier.

Faith Formation Station

May is a month dedicated to Mary in a special way. It is customary to honor Mary with special devotions during the course of this month. On Mother's Day, we celebrate not only our own mothers and the special women in our lives, we Catholics remember Mary, the Mother of all Humankind.

This year we will once again celebrate the end of our year in faith formation with a special family liturgy and May Crowning on May 7, 2023. During mass the students in the program will participate in the offertory procession by carrying a statue of Mary up to the altar and then offering her prayers and flowers. The crowning of Mary with beautiful blossoms represents Mary's beauty and virtue and reminds us to strive to imitate our Blessed Mother's virtue in our own lives. I can think of no better way to end our program than by gathering around the altar sharing in prayer and thanksgiving.

Take time as a family during the upcoming month of May to honor Mary. You might add the Hail Mary, the Rosary, and other prayers and novenas dedicated to Mary to your prayer practice for the month. Consider erecting a prayer table in your own home – making your home a place where your family can echo the customs and traditions of the Church. Place a statue, photo, or some other representation of Mary on your prayer table this month and spend time with God at your prayer table. Offer your own prayers and flowers to honor Mary. You just might find that your prayer table might bring you together in faith and become a new family tradition.

Next week is our last faith formation class of the school year. Throughout the summer, my bulletin articles will highlight the faith-sharing our students experienced all year. While we may not be in a formal classroom during the summer months ahead, every day brings us opportunities to learn and grow in our faith and to live the teachings of Jesus about love, compassion, forgiveness, generosity, and justice. I want to thank our students for showing up every week with open hearts and thank their parents for bringing the Domestic Church to life in their homes. I want to thank our dedicated catechists whose ministry is one of dedication, faithfulness, patience, kindness, and love. We are blessed by and grateful for the work our catechists: Ava Biter, Laura Bush-Terry, Daniel Clark, Sebastien Foka, Colleen Gatzke, Mary Grech, Nathan Grech, Rachel Hartung, Melissa Keagle, Jessica Kodanko, Rachel McKenzie, Mary Myers, Brendan O'Byrne, Liam O'Byrne, Elizabeth Puleo-Tague, Lauri Read, Vince Rouleau, Grant Ruttinger, Kiernan Tague, Matt Utley, Kurt Vatalaro, Jack Vethacke, Melissa Villarreal-Keast, Cassidy Woolums, and Tim Zilli.

May the seeds of the Gospel that have been planted in our hearts this year continue to grow. Our time together has been a gift of grace. We ask the Lord to bless each of us and pray that we remain healthy, happy and close to Him until we gather again as a program in the fall.

PROGRAM REMINDERS:

- Solemn Eucharist Practice - Friday, May 12th at 6:30 p.m. in Church. Parents and children are asked to attend this practice together. We will have a chance to rehearse the various details that belong to this celebration: the processional, offertory, seating, etc. Practice should last about an hour.
- Vacation Bible School: We are once again having Vacation Bible School with our Families of Parishes: St. Clare of Montefalco, St. Matthew, and St. Paul on the Lake. All St. Ambrose families and parishioners are invited and encouraged to attend, to help out, and to be a part of this special summer tradition. Religious Education families received a flyer in class and in their Friday Flocknotes. Additional flyers can be found at the church doors. If you are not a part of our program but are interested in participating or helping out, please email the Rel. Ed. Office at reled.stambrose@comcast.net.

Our Dead

Marie Therese Fox (nee Breen) was born in Detroit in 1937 to Daniel Breen and Mary Alma Breen (nee Donahue). She died on March 19, 2023 in her St. Clair Shores home, surrounded by her children, Patricia (David) Purchiaroni, James W. (Dee Churchill) Fox, Kathleen Fox, and Robert Fox. Her funeral Mass was offered here on April 28th, by Fr. Dan Fox, OFM Cap.

From a young age, she excelled in sports. As the youngest of 4 siblings, she was often encouraged to play competitively. She was a cheerleader at St. Ambrose and enjoyed tennis, golf, bowling, and baseball. “Mea” inherited an eccentric and playful sense of humor from her father. Her laugh was contagious.

Marie worked as a bookkeeper upon graduating from St. Ambrose High School. Eventually, she ended up in Human Resources for the IRS and retired in 2000. As she always said, her favorite job was being a mother.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband James A. Fox, her sister Patricia (Breen) Radke and her husband Louis Radke and brother Joseph Breen. Also, sisters-in-law Shanna Breen and Patricia Breen. Marie is survived by her children and her brother Robert Breen of Leesburg, FL and sister-in-law Ann Breen.
