CANONIZATION

Saint Pope Paul VI

"In America, you are not required to offer food to the hungry or shelter the homeless. There is no ordinance forcing you to visit the lonely, or comfort the infirmed. No where in the Constitution does it say you have to provide clothing to the poor. In fact, one of the nicest things about living here in America, is that you really don't have to do anything for anybody. But when you do, you give meaning and provide soul to the concept of community...and develop a sense of purpose to something greater than one's self...."

Paulus P.P. VI

Saint Oscar Romero

"Those who surrender to the service of the poor through love of Christ, will live like the grains of wheat that dies. It only apparently dies. If it were not to die, it would remain a solitary grain. The harvest comes because of the grain that dies. We know that every effort to improve society, above all when society is so full of injustice and sin, is an effort that God blesses; that God wants; that God demands of us."

Faith In Action

This week, a husband and wife came to our office, with their young daughter, asking for financial assistance. The husband had been out of work for 8 months, due to health issues, and they were in danger of having many utilities disconnected, and possibly losing their home. We assisted them with their electric bill and referred them to a program to assist them with financial planning to get them back on track. This type of assistance is only possible because of our generous parishioners and your support for Social Ministry!

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus offers a hard lesson regarding wealth and possessions in today's Gospel. The rich man whom he encountered could not part with his possessions as a condition to becoming a disciple of Jesus. Would our response be the same as the rich man? Do we place our trust in our money and possessions instead of trusting in God's generosity? Do we seek security in our possessions? Good stewards realize that their possessions must not possess them, lest those possessions block their relationship with the Lord.

28° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Jesús ofrece una enérgica lección acerca de la riqueza y posesiones en el Evangelio de hoy. El hombre rico a quien Él encontró, no pudo desprenderse de sus posesiones como una condición para ser discípulo de Jesús. ¿Sería nuestra respuesta a Jesús la misma que la de aquel hombre rico? ¿Ponemos nuestra confianza en nuestro dinero y posesiones en lugar de confiar en la generosidad de Dios? ¿Buscamos nosotros la seguridad en nuestras posesiones? Los buenos corresponsables son conscientes de que sus posesiones no deben poseerles para que no obstruyan su relación con el Señor.
