TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ♦ AUGUST 29, 2021

From Fr. Peter McGeory

Saint Joseph's Church Website: www.saintjosephsbronxville.org

“Don’t forget the statutes of God and where you came from”

Moses reminded Israel of their great opportunity for wisdom, which only exists when they keep the Lord’s statutes while they live in the Promised Land. Not only was this something great for Israel to appreciate, but this is also something for Christians to appreciate as well. The Lord’s treatment of Israel is mirrored in our relationship with Christ. We are also a chosen and holy nation (cf. Eph. 1:4; 1 Pet. 2:9). The Lord has continued his theme of closeness to his people by sending his Son who gave his life for us and listens when we pray.

If it was important for the children of Israel not to forget the statutes of God whence the Lord had brought them, how much more is it very important for us today? And yet, some people tend to forget where they have come from very quickly. We get our eyes off the statutes of the Lord focusing on our circumstances. This is not only when we are in peril, but also when we are blessed. If we want to maintain the blessings of God in our life, we would be wise to always remember to thank the Lord for all that we have and thank Him and trust His statutes also for all we need – now and in the future.

What a magnificent Lord we have who desires to be so close to us and give us life! His rules and statutes are not cumbersome – life is found in them. Jesus’ words serve as an appropriate conclusion in John 14:15, “If you love me, you will keep my commandments.” So, take time today to reflect on where you’ve come from and give the Lord all the glory.

God Bless

Fr. Seth

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

HIS WORD TODAY: A Fresh Perspective On The Sunday Readings - By Rev. William J. Reilly

“Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls. Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep yourself unstained by the world.”

The letter of St. James offers us clear, practical examples for Christian living for today. He could have invented the current expression, ‘Walk the walk, don’t just talk the talk.’ How clearly, I can recall the summer school of Catholic action at Fordham in New York calling young people to apostolic action. The foundation of it all was found in the Word of God, which we read daily, listen to weekly, and discover ways to live it. Welcome that word.

The Word of God from the beginning addressed the needs of the most vulnerable. They were represented by orphans and widows, but today we might add single mothers, ex-offenders, immigrants and those marginalized in our society. If we feel uncomfortable with current examples, good. As we respond to them, we are keeping ourselves unstained by the world.
