Saint Bede the Venerable

Born in Northumbria, in northern England, Bede was schooled at the Benedictine monasteries of Wearmouth and Jarrow, where he spent the rest of his life as a monk and priest. "Study, teaching and writing have always been my delight," he wrote. He penned extensive biblical and theological writings, but his fame came as a historian. His most valuable work was "Ecclesiastical History of the English People." In 836, a church council at Aachen, Germany, called him the Venerable Bede and Pope Leo XIII declared him a doctor of the church in 1899.

The first Church council, the Council of Jerusalem we hear about in today's First Reading, decided the shape of the Church as we know it.

Some Jewish Christians had wanted Gentile converts to be circumcised and obey all the complex ritual and purity laws of the Jews. The council called this a heresy, again showing us that the Church in the divine plan is meant to be a worldwide family of God, no longer a covenant with just one nation.

Today's Liturgy gives us a profound meditation on the nature and meaning of the Church.

The Church is One, as we see in the First Reading: "the Apostles [bishops] and presbyters [priests], in agreement with the whole Church [laity]."

The Church is Holy, taught and guided by the Spirit that Jesus promises the Apostles in the Gospel.

The Church is Catholic, or universal, making known God's ways of salvation to all peoples, ruling all in equity, as we sing in today's Psalm.

And the Church, as John sees in the Second Reading, is Apostolic - founded on the twelve Apostles of the Lamb.

All these marks of the Church are underscored in the story of the council. Notice that everybody, including Paul, looks to "Jerusalem [and] ...the Apostles" to decide the Church's true teaching. The Apostles, too, presume that Christian teachers need a "mandate from us."

And we see the Spirit guiding the Apostles in all truth. Notice how they describe their ruling: "It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us."

The Liturgy's message today is that the Church is the Lord's, watched over and guarded by the Advocate, the Holy Spirit sent by the Father in the name of the Son. This should fill us with confidence, free us to worship with exultation, inspire us to rededicate our lives to His Name - to love Jesus in our keeping of His Word, to rejoice that He and the Father in the Spirit have made their dwelling with us.

REGINA CAELI
QUEEN OF HEAVEN

Queen of heaven, rejoice, alleluia.

The Son whom you merited to bear, alleluia,

has risen as he said, alleluia.

Pray for us to God, alleluia.

Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin

Mary, alleluia!

For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray:

O God, who through the resurrection of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, did vouchsafe to give joy to the world; grant, we beseech you, that through his Mother, the Virgin Mary, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life.

Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mass times for travelers.

There is a free ministry for traveling or vacationing Catholic families.

For nationwide Mass times and locations visit website at www.masstimes.org.

Home away from home. Welcome to our visitors and vacationers who come to Saint Michael's for daily or Sunday Mass while touring New York City. It is good to see so many new faces knowing that Catholics all over the United States and the world are conscious of their obligation to attend and participate in Sunday liturgy. May God grant you a safe and Happy Vacation!

Next weekend is Memorial Day weekend.

There will be only one Mass celebrated on Monday, May 30th Memorial Day at 7:25 AM. The Church will close after the Mass. The Parish Office will be closed Monday, May 30th.

Ascension Thursday, May 26th.

The Ascension of the Lord is traditionally celebrated on the 40th day after Easter, which commemorates Jesus Christ's ascension into heaven according to Christian belief. Forty days after the resurrection, Jesus and his disciples went to Mount Olivet (Mount of Olives), near Jerusalem. Scripture reminds us that Jesus promised the disciples that they would soon receive the Holy Spirit and asked them to remain in Jerusalem until the Spirit had come. As he blessed them, he began to ascend into heaven to take his seat at the right hand of God. The Ascension is meaningful to Christians as it signifies the end of his work on earth and allowed Him to prepare a place for followers in heaven. Ascension Thursday is a Holy Day of Obligation. Mass on Ascension Thursday will be celebrated at 7:30 AM and 12:10 PM.
