SUMMER CHRISTIAN FUN FOR EVERYONE: The last couple of weeks, our parish held its annual vacation bible camp. It was full of wonderful activities that helped our children to learn more about the bible as it relates to our Catholic faith. Approximately 30 children attended each week, and were led to hear the Scriptures, sing about them, make beautiful crafts related to them, and played games every morning. Their activity leaders, both teens and adults, as well as their teen and adult chaperones, ensured that everyone had a safe, holy and happy time. I would like to thank all those involved in the coordination and realization of the camp, as well as the families who had faith that we would offer some worthwhile activities to help them grow in their love of God. We pray that our program may continue to grow and inspire. God bless.

-Fr. Emiel

Just to Smile

There was a man who had worked all his life and had saved all of his money. He loved money more than just about anything.

And just before he died, he said to his wife, "Now listen, when I die, I want you to take all my money and place it in the casket with me. I want to take my money to the afterlife."

So, he got his wife to promise him with all her heart that when he died, she would put all the money in the casket with him.

Well, one day he died. He was laid out in the casket, and the wife was sitting there in black next to her closest friend. When they finished the ceremony, just before the undertakers got ready to close the casket, the wife said, "Wait just a minute!"

She had a shoe box with her. She came over with the box and placed it in the casket. Then the undertakers locked the casket down and rolled it away.

Her friend said, "I hope you weren't crazy enough to put all that money in the casket."

She said, "Yes, I promised. I am a good person. I can't lie. I promised him that I was going to put the money in the casket with him."

"You mean to tell me you put every cent of his money in the casket with him?"

"I sure did." said the wife. "I got it all together, put it into my account and I wrote him check."

ANOINTING OF THE SICK: One of the most undervalued sacraments is that of anointing of the sick. This sacrament has its origins in the letter of James, wherein the apostle advises the sick to see the priest. We offer this sacrament for all those who will undergo serious health tests, or become seriously ill, or have a serious change in their health status. Please see the priests at any time after Mass or during office hours in order to receive this sacrament.

For our parishioners suffering from depression and those who are dealing with addictions

Jeanne Barwicki, Frank Demers

If you would like to include others in this prayer list, please contact the priory office. Names will remain on the list for two weeks, or according to need.

REST IN THE LORD

For several weeks we have listened to readings that have recounted just how arduous the work of prophets and disciples can be. In today's Gospel, the Lord Jesus listens to the reports of those he had sent out "two by two" to minister to the people. After the apostles reported what they had done, Jesus, recognizing their fatigue, says, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile" (Mark 6:31). Perhaps this is what the Lord is telling his disciples in the year 2018 as well. We need to pause on our journey of discipleship and simply rest in the Lord. Sunday Mass provides many opportunities for quiet times, particularly during the periods of silence following the readings. Why not take the time today to allow the saving word of the Lord to penetrate your heart during those silent times? Ask the Lord to renew you in body, mind, and spirit for the arduous work of discipleship.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The American Revolution cleared the way for freedom of religion in the former colonies, since the colonies had always been a more religiously tolerant place than the old country. Even so, colonial laws restricted the practice of the Catholic faith, and just as in England, Americans who desired to be priests or nuns had to go to the Netherlands or France. As political storm clouds gathered in France, an American woman, Mother Bernardina Matthews, the prioress of the Hoogstraeten Carmel in Holland, made a brave move. With two other American nuns, her nieces, and a Dutch sister, she came to Port Tobacco, Maryland, in 1790. Within twenty years the community had grown to twenty, although by 1823 their farm failed and they had to move to Baltimore and open a school. The Carmelite order requires contemplation and cloister, so in time the school was closed. The Port Tobacco land had long since been sold, but in 1976 a community of nuns was able to return thanks to loyal neighbors who had worked for forty years for their restoration. Today, our original American convent is fully alive in prayer, hard work, and strong community.
