Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St George, celebrate the welcoming presence of Christ in our lives. Together with the universal Church, we are nourished and sustained through the Mystery of the Holy Eucharist, and we are inspired by the proclamation of the Word, guided by the Holy Spirit.

We continually seek to grow in a deeper understanding of our faith, to respect the sanctity of human life, and respond to what Jesus asks of us in our time by sharing our gifts and participating in parish activities and outreach to others.

A Community of Ministries, October 30, 2022

Saint George Church - Worcester & Holden

October 30, 2022 - 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Your Pastor

Tuesday, November 1st, is the Solemnity of All Saints and holyday of obligation. Masses for the holyday are at 8:00 A.M., 12:10 P.M. and 6:30 P.M. I remind you of the invitation to our annual Mass of Remembrance on Saturday, November 5th, at 9:30 A.M. The invitation to this Mass is open to everyone, and it is my hope that many of you will be able to attend. If you wish to view this Mass live-streamed, this will also be available.

The Church's Worldwide Synod – 2

In continuing my remarks about the progress of the synodal process in the Church, it is important to remember that parish and diocesan pastoral councils are important organs of synodality that the Church encourages in considering the call of the Gospel in light of the "signs of the times" in the local setting. These councils can continue the inclusive, empathetic listening sessions as a concrete way to practice and teach communal discernment. Through such discernment listening skill and theological reflection can be deepened. As Robert Choiniere, a professor of theology at Fordham University expressed it, the "muscles of synodality" can be trained. Here in our parish our Spiritual Growth Committee which undertook the original listening sessions for the synodal process will continue with such discussions that were incorporated into the report that our parish submitted to the Diocese of Worcester. Professor Choiniere also states that forms of spiritual encounter such as retreat ministry, pastoral conversations and mutual dialogue demonstrate the potential of a synodal church that recognizes the Holy Spirit as a creative, engaged and dynamic presence in our midst calling us into the fullness of life and trustful surrender to the will of God. These are ways that we Catholics can work out our spiritual muscles and continue our shared journey of discovery and renewal. Over these next two years we continue to become a synodal church if we choose to practice and build upon the grace that has already been poured out on us.

In November we will be observing the month of All Souls when we remember our beloved dead. As in past years our parish will be extending an invitation to the families of those parishioners who had died during the past year to gather for a special Mass of remembrance on Saturday, November 5th, at 9:30 A.M. Letters of invitation have been mailed out to those families. The Mass is open for parishioners to attend as well. The Mass will also be live-streamed that Saturday morning. We invite you to either attend this Mass or to view it live-streamed at this date and time to remember these deceased parishioners and all of our beloved dead.

In the Church, there is a gathering of people who pray for all families.

The Divine Mercy Chaplet and the Rosary are prayed during this time. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn to pray the Rosary. Eucharistic Adoration is also a part of this wonderful time of prayer on the Thursday before the first Friday of each month.

Deacon Paul Audette

James Martin Speaks to us through his
"Essential Writings"

The theme of humor in the spiritual/religious life has been a frequent topic of Martin's lectures and media appearances. In these excerpts from an April 2, 2007 America Magazine essay (Part I), he treats both the long history of laughter's role in religious practice as well as the reasons why it can be such a healthy element of the spiritual life: "Joy has a distinguished heritage in the Christian spiritual tradition...Yet lightheartedness is still an unwelcome guest in some church circles...While the Gospels show Jesus as clever, especially in the telling of the parables, few places in the New Testament present him as humorous...Yet if the Evangelists were intent on painting an appealing portrait of Jesus, why omit his sense of humor...Amy-Jill Levine, a New Testament scholar at Vanderbilt University...notes that one difficulty with the topic is that what was considered humorous by people in first-century Palestine might not strike us as funny. For them, the setup was funnier... She says: 'The idea that a mustard seed would have sprouted into a big bush that birds would build their nests in would be humorous.' There is no way of knowing how much of Jesus' humor was expunged from or left out of the Gospels. But Professor Levine noted that Jesus laughs frequently in some noncanonical Gospels. The church fathers, moreover, intent on combating heresy, would likely not have seen the genre of humor as appropriate."

Spiritual Growth Ministry Corner

Ministry Leader: Bonnie Moran

Thank you again to the parishioners who assisted us in gathering information for the 2023 Synod Report from St. George Church. It was evident from the responses given, that these people care deeply about the Catholic faith and our parish church. In the weeks ahead, we will share some of these findings with all of you. Work has already begun to implement suggestions sparked from these Synod meetings. The following is from the second category of the Report on Eucharistic Revival.

What does the Eucharist mean to you?

- Unity. Unifying and healing. Part of the community, healing. It's a linking with Jesus and the community. Carry it with you. Basis of our actions through the week, carrying Jesus into the World.

The next question – How can people come to a deeper understanding of the Eucharist? provides thoughtful suggestions. Due to space constraints, this question and the responses will be published in a future column. Stay tuned and have a great week!
