Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St George, celebrate the welcoming presence of Christ in our lives. Together with the universal Church, we are nourished and sustained through the Mystery of the Holy Eucharist, and we are inspired by the proclamation of the Word, guided by the Holy Spirit.

We continually seek to grow in a deeper understanding of our faith, to respect the sanctity of human life, and respond to what Jesus asks of us in our time by sharing our gifts and participating in parish activities and outreach to others.

A Community of Ministries, September 11, 2022

Saint George Church - Worcester & Holden
September 11, 2022 - 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Your Pastor

This weekend we are celebrating Welcome Weekend in our parish.

However, we are also observing the anniversary of the senseless acts of terrorism that occurred here in our nation in the World Trade Center, in the Pentagon, and in the fields of Pennsylvania on September 11, 2001. Not only were the victims of this tragedy Americans, but also people from other countries throughout the world. We gather and pray as a nation, a civic community and a faith community, still remembering and mourning so great a loss of life. We gather as a nation "under God," and full of trust in the one whose compassion and justice is beyond our understanding. As we keep the memory of those who have died, may our faith in the resurrection of Jesus strengthen us. May it renew the spirits of all who grieve and may our hope give us the courage to persevere. Let the following prayer keep us strong in our resolve to be a people of faith and hope who long for God's peace:

God of perfect peace,
Violence and cruelty can have no part with you,
For you destroy war and put down earthly pride.
You are our strength in adversity,
Our hope in times of trouble,
our comfort in sorrow.
Banish violence from our midst
And wipe away our tears
That we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ,
The Prince of Peace,
Who lives and reigns forever and ever.
Amen.

In the spirit of celebrating and welcoming, I want to mention that this weekend I will be here for the Welcome Weekend festivities for the 4:00 P.M. and 8:00 A.M. Masses. Later on Sunday morning, I will be joining in the liturgy and festivities that celebrate the 100th anniversary of my home parish, St. Mary's in Shrewsbury. This, too, will be a happy occasion as St. Mary's welcomes many who have been part of their parish's life to join in celebrating this historic moment.

10:00 AM For the Community of Saint George

While spring-cleaning my parents' basement, I came across my old Boy Scout Handbook. It had sat in a box for years. Time and moisture had taken its toll on the book, so it was not in the best of condition. But it was filled with memories of learning, fun and adventure and I could not part with it. Tattered and curled, it has a special place in my bookcase and has given me hours of pleasure as I remember my time in the Scouts.

Sin and guilt takes its toll on us. We feel rejected, unlovable, and like a failure. All our good intentions seem to be lost and we may even give up on ourselves. Like the Prodigal Son we feel unworthy of God's love or forgiveness. But God never gives up on us. He wants us as His own and never fails to love us and restore us to grace. Our value to Him is infinite, paid for by the passion and resurrection of Jesus. God delights in His people and rejoices when we turn to Him. He knows us better than we know ourselves. He reads us like an old familiar book, aware of our strengths and our weaknesses, our virtues and vices, and loves us just the same. God holds us in the palm of His hand. He cannot forget us, deny us or not love us. Trust that He holds us right where He wants us to always be. James Gaffney, © Pilot Bulletins

Welcome Weekend at St. George

We invite everyone to join us for our annual parish Welcome Weekend on September 10th /11th at all Masses. This is a special time in our parish as we welcome back families who have traveled during the summer. This is also an invitation to those of you who have been away longer than just the summer to rekindle your friendship with God and St. George friends. There will be a special blessing at Mass and free treats after the Masses – the Ice Cream truck on Saturday, doughnuts and coffee, etc. on Sunday. In the spirit of Eucharistic Renewal that is being celebrated this year and that is Jesus himself who invites and welcomes us, we will also provide an opportunity for Eucharistic adoration on Saturday evening after Mass until 6:00 P.M. and on Sunday morning after Mass until 12:00 Noon. You may take advantage of having ice cream on Saturday or doughnuts and coffee on Sunday either before or after adoration if you wish. Please join us in prayer and worship as we gather together.

Deacon Paul Audette

James Martin Speaks to us through his "Essential Writings"

Many Catholics were shocked to discover in 2007 that St. Teresa of Calcutta had spent much of her life experiencing a profound alienation from God. In These excerpts (Part VII and Conclusion) from a James Martin essay that appeared in the March 17, 2008 issue of America magazine, he talks about the "seven D's" – darkness, dryness, desolation, doubt, disbelief, depression and despair: "What are these states? How do they affect our relationship with God?... One need not be a scholar of Christian spirituality, a spiritual director or a person under spiritual direction to see that disentangling these spiritual strands can be encouraging, clarifying, consoling and freeing. Understanding that most of these experiences are common can encourage us by reducing anxiety... Being able to bring such experiences to prayer can be consoling, since it can deepen our relationship with God, in the same way that speaking about a thorny problem with a friend can strengthen a friendship and lead to greater intimacy... Knowing that these experiences can lead us to God can free us from fear, which can cripple our spiritual lives. For the God by whom Jesus felt abandoned on the cross is the same God who delivered Jesus from death, giving him new life."

PIETA

Thank You for the School & Art Supplies !

Dear Parishioners and friends,

I am amazed and inspired by your kindness and generosity! Our parish community filled 21 backpacks with pens, pencils crayons, paper, scissors, notebooks & more! Donations to Parish Outreach also helped to purchase special items that were requested by the classroom teachers of the children in our Afghan families. A generous parishioner even donated a water bottle for each child! The 8 children went off to school fully prepared and came home very excited.

The parents in our Afghan Refugee families are also very busy lately. The dads are filling out applications for budgeting oil and electric costs this winter. One of the moms is home with two children under the age of 2 years and a 3 year old. The second mom also has two little ones at home and is now working on cross stitch and sewing projects to try to earn a little pocket money. Please continue to keep all of them in your prayers. Thank you so much for all that you do for so many folks in need!

Peace and Joy, Annie Doyle

Mustard Seed Meals:

Our next meal for 120 folks in need of a meal at the Mustard Seed is Friday September 16, 2022.

Donations of $5 per meal are needed.

The last two meals we experienced a shortfall in donations to pay for the full cost of the meal. We hope that by asking for donations a bit early we will be able to pay for all the meals.

A Block Party and a Summit on Hunger in Worcester were held this summer. The Mustard Seed will celebrate it's 50th Anniversary this year.

Thank you!

Multiple delivers of fresh vegetables from the gardens of 3 parishioners helped to feed folks at the Mustard Seed Feed Pantry, as well as the 17 members of our Afghan Refugee families! The radishes, tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, zucchini, and MANY cucumbers were all gratefully received.

Spiritual Growth Ministry Corner

Ministry Leader: Bonnie Moran

saintgeorgespiritualgrowth@gmail.com

Among the saints honored during the month of September (on September 23) is St. Pius of Pietrelcina, popularly known as Padre Pio. Padre Pio is a modern saint. He died on September 23, 1968 at the age of 81. He developed a well-earned reputation for his exceptional manner in the confessional. And he is modern enough that some of our own contemporaries had the privilege of going to confession to Padre Pio while vacationing in Italy. Born Francesco Forgione to a poor Italian family, Padre Pio described himself as "a poor brother who prays." In 1948, Padre Pio heard the confession of Karol Wojtyla, the future Pope (and Saint) John Paul II. On June 16, 2002, Pope John Paul II canonized Padre Pio, noting, among other things, that "his body, marked by the 'stigmata,' showed the intimate connection between death and resurrection." May our devotion to St. Padre Pio increase our dedication to the Sacrament of Penance and increase our faith in the resurrection.
