As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St George, celebrate the welcoming presence of Christ in our lives. Together with the universal Church, we are nourished and sustained through the Mystery of the Holy Eucharist, and we are inspired by the proclamation of the Word, guided by the Holy Spirit.

We continually seek to grow in a deeper understanding of our faith, to respect the sanctity of human life, and respond to what Jesus asks of us in our time by sharing our gifts and participating in parish activities and outreach to others.

A Community of Ministries, January 23, 2022

Saint George Church - Worcester & Holden
January 23, 2022 - Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Your Pastor

As Christians we share in Jesus' ministry so beautifully summarized in the words of the Prophet Isaiah found in today's Gospel. Jesus knew himself to be the one anointed by God to bring glad tidings to the poor and recovery of sight to the blind, to proclaim liberty to captives, to let the oppressed go free and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. We, as God's anointed, are now being called upon to do what Jesus did. In a very special way we are being called upon by Christ's vicar here on earth, Pope Francis, to enter into a spirit of synodality. Pope Francis sees synodality as defining the form, style and structure of the Church but not implying a dynamic of democracy within the Church. Synods may be at the heart of a hierarchically structured community but are consultative assemblies in which the whole community, in the free and rich diversity of its members, is called together to pray, listen, analyze, dialog, discern and offer advice on taking pastoral decisions as closely as possible to God's will. Synodality provides essential input to those to whom the governance of the various levels of the Church from the Vatican to your local parish is entrusted.

Fr. Nicolls

Stewardship Thought for the Week

The U.S. Bishops' Pastoral on stewardship reinforces today's reading from 1 Corinthians: "Because its individual members do collectively make up the Body of Christ, that body's health and well being are the responsibility of the members—the personal responsibility of each one of us. We all are stewards of the Church".

Year End Donation Information:

End of year statements will be mailed from the envelope company by January 31, 2022. All gifts received after January 1, 2022 will be credited to calendar year 2022.

For online givers, the recent upgrade in the software has caused a delay in populating your record with weekly or monthly donation history. The data transfer will be complete in January and we will notify you when that has taken place. For any questions, contact mkhessel@aol.com.

ON LINE GIVING:

There have been some changes to the Online Giving Software. When you log on through the link on our parish website, you will see a new screen that requests your email rather than a USERID. Use your email address that is on record with the parish and the password you have used most recently for Online Giving (which you used with your former USERID), and you should now be able to access screens for giving and for your recent giving history. The changes by the vendor are continuing. We will keep you updated. Due to the vendor's software changes still underway, you may now see your deductions being made to RCB (Roman Catholic Bishop) of Worcester rather than St. George Parish. It's still being directed to your account at St. George.

We want to be with you in prayer and support. We can perhaps arrange a visit and possibly bring Eucharist. Remember that due to HIPAA regulations, unless you allow the hospital or health care institution to release information and list St. George's as your religious affiliation, we are not that you are a patient. Family Prayer Night at St. George Church
Every Thursday at 6:00 PM
In the Upper Church

There is a gathering of people who pray for all families.

Everyone is invited to join us!

The Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet is prayed during this time. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn to pray the Rosary. Eucharistic Adoration is also a part of this wonderful time of prayer on the Thursday before the first Friday of each month.

From Deacon Paul Audette

Henri writes on the meaning of the Eucharist to the parents of children preparing for their First Communion. (taken from "Love, Henri: Letters on the Spiritual Life"):

Dear Kathy, Joe and Mary, Joan and Robin,
...the Eucharist is the central Sacrament of the Church. It is the place through which God really enters our lives. That is why you can look at the other six Sacraments as standing in a circle around the Eucharist. Baptism introduces us to the Eucharist; the Sacrament of Reconciliation restores us to the double fellowship of the Eucharist; ordination to the Priesthood is to set some people aside to preside over the Eucharist in the name of Jesus; Marriage is to bind husband and wife to each other in the same Faithfulness with which Jesus has bound himself to the Church; and Sacrament of the Sick is a Sacrament to heal people for an ongoing Eucharistic life and/or to prepare them to enter into the final, full communion with Jesus. Thus the Eucharist is really the center of our spiritual life, and, if we live it that way, gradually all of our life can become Eucharistic, i.e., lived in deep communion with Jesus..."

Much love,
Henry

As Fr. Nicolls shares with us in his weekly letters on page 2 of this bulletin, Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: "It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium." This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church's "renewal" proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has been made, the Church will be able to learn through Her experience which processes can help Her to live communion, to achieve participation, and to open Herself to mission.

The Pope asks us to consider where the Spirit is leading the Church on our "common road" (A translation of synodality).

Can you imagine? A listening Church? A servant Church? A prayerful Church? A humble Church?

"The most basic and powerful way to connect to another person is to listen. Just listen. Perhaps the most important thing we ever give each other is our attention.... A loving silence often has far more power to heal and to connect than the most well-intentioned words."

We again refer to James Martin S.J.'s book, 'Learning to Pray'. He writes of William J. Barry S.J. who in his book, 'God and You' suggests that the way we think about human friendship can help us deepen our relationship with God. We take a look here at six aspects of friendship.

Time To develop and maintain friends in life we need to spend time with them. So too, we need to set aside time to consciously be with God in prayer and conversation.

Learning We are eager to find out about the lives of our friends. This is also true of ourselves and God. We find out about God when we learn of the experiences of others as they live and pray. We may read Scripture which tells us of God's relationship with humanity through the ages. We get to know Jesus in the Gospels and writings of the New Testament. We may look at the lives of holy men and women inspired to bring God to the world.

Honesty Not being honest with a friend risks the loss of that friendship. Saying what we really want to say to God in prayer instead of what we think we should say fosters the relationship between God and the person praying. Father Barry makes the point that anger, sadness, depression, suffering and disappointment have a long history in prayer.

Listening When with a friend, talking is important. So too, is listening. As we pray we may feel that we are not getting a response. It may be reassuring to know that very rarely does a person hear God's voice. Father Martin tells us God most often speaks to us through emotions, insights, memories, desires, words, feelings and mystical experiences.

Change As we go through life with friends aspects of our relationship may undergo some changes. These adjustments may come from a change of location or other circumstances of life. Perhaps we think our relationship with God should remain as it was when we were growing up. Many of us recall the emphasis placed on rules and regulations and the consequences of breaking those rules. Today, we hear of God's mercy and love. Is it time to ask ourselves, "Who is God for me now?"

Silence We have friends we may not hear from for a long time but we know they are still friends. Whether or not we feel God's presence in the silence of prayer He is there. We may find resting in silence in the presence of God very welcome in a world that does not place a high value on silence.
