Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St George, celebrate the welcoming presence of Christ in our lives. Together with the universal Church, we are nourished and sustained through the Mystery of the Holy Eucharist, and we are inspired by the proclamation of the Word, guided by the Holy Spirit.

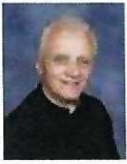

We continually seek to grow in a deeper understanding of our faith, to respect the sanctity of human life, and respond to what Jesus asks of us in our time by sharing our gifts and participating in parish activities and outreach to others.

From Your Pastor

This coming Thursday, November 25th, we will be celebrating our American feast of Thanksgiving, a fall holiday which is a festive celebration and a time to recall our responsibilities as Christian stewards as well. Although it is a national holiday, this feast echoes the basic orientation of our Christian faith. It is naturally expressed in our central ritual of worship, the Eucharist, which comes from the Greek word for Thanksgiving. Every time that we celebrate the Eucharist we should remind ourselves that everything we have and all we are comes from God. As we celebrate this festive holiday, we will offer one Mass for Thanksgiving on Thursday, November 25th, at 8:00 A.M. We will also have the special blessing of food during this liturgy. Please bring something to church that you are going to serve at your Thanksgiving meal for this blessing.

Coming Home to Church 3

At the conclusion of last week's article about the worldwide synod and the need for us to be a Eucharistic people, it was mentioned that at Mass, we lay our joys and our brokenness on the altar together with those of our brothers and sisters. In return, we get the support of the community, we are nourished with the Body and Blood of Christ to help us on our journey, and we are given a renewed sense of purpose and hope. Again, I refer to the late Fr. Henri Nouwen who said that the Eucharist, along with Baptism, are the spiritual pillars of the Church. The Church is the body of Christ fashioned by baptism and the Eucharist. When people are baptized and gather around the table of Christ and receive his Body and Blood, they become the people of God, called the Church. This Church, Fr. Nouwen said, is holy and sinful, spotless and tainted. The Church is the bride of Christ, holy and faultless but it is also a group of sinful, confused, anguished people constantly tempted by the powers of lust and greed and always entangled in rivalry and competition. So when we say that the Church is a body, we refer to it not only as a holy and faultless body made Christ-like through Baptism and Eucharist but we also refer to it as the broken bodies of all the people who are its members. When we can keep both of these ways of referring to the Church together in our thinking and in our speaking, can we live in the Church as true followers of Jesus.

Next Sunday we will celebrate the beginning of the Season of Advent which is also the beginning of our Church's liturgical year. This year we will be in the C cycle of the liturgical year when we will hear the Gospel of Luke proclaimed through most of the year.

From Deacon Paul Audette

Henri Nouwen Speaks to us through his Letters

Henri responds to a reader who has questions about the value of the Church to those who are "spiritual" but not "religious." (taken from "Love, Henri: Letters on the Spiritual Life"):

Dear Seth,

...The Church, as you say so clearly, can be in the way of God, but it will never cease to be also the way to God. This is the hard paradox of the religious life. When we give up the Church completely, we will end up by losing God. In many ways, we are in the same situation Jesus was in during his life. He strongly criticized the religious leaders of his time, but continued to say that people should listen to their words without following their example. While Jesus was very critical of the religious institutions of his time, he never suggested that people could do without them. And this is even true today...It has always struck me that the great Saints such as St. Francis and St. Mother Teresa say that we have to remain faithful to the Church even in the midst of all conflicts. Without sound doctrine about who God is as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, without some external structure, it will be impossible to live a faithful spiritual life. Doctrine and structures are basically nothing but fences around the garden where we can meet God. They are to keep us connected with the truth so that we can enter freely in communion with the One who wants to share His love with us..."

Sincerely yours,
Henri Nouwen

Stewardship Thought for the Week

Today's second reading reminds us that the sacrifice of Christ frees us from sin and makes us a royal nation of priests in the service of God. How am I using my gifts to serve God and others?

Holiday Outreach

Thank you for your Thanksgiving Outreach to folks in need! Through your generosity we were able to donate 40 turkeys and a car full of groceries to Our Lady Of Providence Parish Food Pantry.

November 13 until December 4 - The Giving Tree Tags are available on the "Giving Tree" our church.

November 19 - The Mustard Seed Meal for 100 guests was greatly appreciated! Thank you to the volunteers who prepared and served this delicious meal.

November 27 & 28 - Christmas Food Drive
All non-perishable food items are wholeheartedly welcome. Tucking a small Christmas treat in the bag is always appreciated.

December 4 & 5 - Giving Tree Gift Returns due before the 10:00AM Mass.

If you are interested in helping with gift deliveries please contact: Andy Labreque at 508-873-2728

The Giving Tree is set up at the side of the Sanctuary decorated with tags that are labeled with the Christmas hopes of a needy person or family. There are many specific and special requests. It is especially important that you fill this need so that the wish is granted and the person or child in need is not left without a gift on Christmas morning.

This year the Giving Tree gifts will be donated to Winter Hill Rest Home, Blaire House, St. Mary's Health Care, St Francis Nursing Home, Diocesan Seminarians, the children at Our Lady of Providence Parish and the Mustard Seed Catholic Worker. The elderly in nursing homes are truly the forgotten folks in our community. Your gifts help to make their Christmas joyful.

Please - As we celebrate the birth of the Prince of Peace - No toy guns or violent toys. Also, no battery operated items - these are too expensive for the poor to replace.

Please, no cash and no food.

Please wrap your Giving Tree Gift loosely in a GIFT BAG or RECYCLABLE BAG and reattach the tag.

Kindly return it to the church no later than December 5th at the 10:00 AM Mass.

THE FAMILY CONNECTION

Thanksgiving will soon be here. Why not make some homemade Thanksgiving cards for family, friends and people who are homebound or living in nursing homes. How about a card for the neighbors too! Shop for a nice basket to start preparing a Blessing Basket for your Thanksgiving table. At the conclusion of your Thanksgiving dinner, set this basket in the middle of the table. From then until Christmas, each day add to the basket supplies needed by local community service agencies. It might include warm socks for children, bars of soap for the homeless shelters. Call the agencies in your community to plan how to fill your family's Blessing Basket.

GRANDPARENTS:

All interested grandparents are asked to pray for the safety and well-being of their grandchildren. Prayers are available by sending a long self addressed stamped envelope to Ruth Viens, 20 Mary Scano Drive, Apt. 223, Worcester MA 01605. As meetings resume in the parish it is hoped that the eight year monthly Grandparent Group will again be available.

Thanks to the generous donations of our parishioners to St. George Parish Outreach we were able to supply these simple but essential needs.
