Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St George, celebrate the welcoming presence of Christ in our lives. Together with the universal Church, we are nourished and sustained through the Mystery of the Holy Eucharist, and we are inspired by the proclamation of the Word, guided by the Holy Spirit.

We continually seek to grow in a deeper understanding of our faith, to respect the sanctity of human life, and respond to what Jesus asks of us in our time by sharing our gifts and participating in parish activities and outreach to others.

From Your Pastor

Wednesday, December 8th, is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception and a Holyday of Obligation. Masses will be on Tuesday, December 7th, at 6:30 P.M. and Wednesday at 8:00 A.M. & 12:10 P.M.

Advent: Preparing for the Lord's Coming 1

We often refer to the Advent and Christmas seasons as times of wonder and contemplation. Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, tells us that caring for and cultivating creation is an instruction given by God not only at the beginning of creation and history but one that is given to each one of us. So the wonder of God's creation is something that we should see every day. Advent gives us the opportunity to renew ourselves in this God-given instruction. Yet we are easily guided with selfish pride whenever we want to dominate, exploit, manipulate and possess what God has given to us in creation. To truly appreciate creation as a gift from God we must preserve it. This is not only respecting creation but the God who has provided it for us. When we contemplate the wonder of God's creation, whether it be to watch a sunrise or to taste the sweetness of the fruits of the earth, we do what the last Jesuit scholar Fr. Walter Burghardt called a "long, loving look at the real," when referring to what contemplation truly means. Living and enjoying this kind of wonder and contemplation can help us to better appreciate these seasons.

This year in order to avoid excessive overcrowding in the church building as well as to avoid a serious parking problem in the church parking lot and the surrounding streets (especially Rochelle Street) on December 24th in the afternoon, we are offering a second Mass that afternoon at 5:30 P.M. here in church. Please take advantage of this second Mass on December 24th in order to avoid overcrowding the church especially since we must still follow the Covid-19 mask mandate issued by the City of Worcester and the Diocese of Worcester for all parishes in the city.

Therefore, in anticipation of Christmas, the Mass schedule for this holyday is as follows:

Friday, December 24th:	Saturday, December 25th:
4:00 P.M. – Church	8:00 A.M. – Church
5:30 P.M. – Church	10:00 A.M. – Church

Please note: There will be No confessions nor 4:00 Mass on Saturday, December 25th.

Fr. Nicolls column continued:

Advent Evening of Prayer & Reflection: Once again, we will have our Advent Evening of Prayer & Reflection with the opportunity to go to confession on Monday, December 20th, from 6:30 - 8:00 P.M. here in church.

From Deacon Paul Audette

Henri Nouwen Speaks to us through his Letters

Henri writes to Dan Wakefield, an American novelist, journalist and screenwriter, who had written to Henri about his spiritual struggles following the collapse of a brief marriage. This is Part I of Henri's response. (taken from "Love, Henri: Letters on the Spiritual Life"):

Dear Dan,

...I am very aware that the failure of your marriage can easily tempt you to become very bitter and even make you reject Jesus as useless or at least irrelevant for your day-to-day life. But this is truly a temptation because Jesus wants to lead you to the place where he himself becomes the only safe way to God. I have this vision of him taking away many of the support systems that you could rely on until now. It almost seems to me that he is saying to you, 'Am I not enough for you?' People will criticize you; people will question your conversion; people will use your failure in your marriage as an argument against your faith, and in many ways you will be very alone. But, after your conversion, the aloneness can be seen as a second loneliness. It is not the loneliness of a person who needs emotional support, but it is the loneliness of the person who, after having discovered God as the only source of true life, is now asked to let go of everything but Him..."

Much love,
Henri

This year more than 500 Giving Tree gifts are being donated to Winter Hill Rest Home, Blaire House, St.
Mary's Health Care, St Francis Nursing Home, Diocesan
Seminarians, the children at Our Lady of Providence
Parish and the Mustard Seed Catholic Worker.
The elderly in nursing homes are truly the forgotten folks in our community. Your gifts help to make their Christmas joyful.

Dear Parishioners,
For more than 20 years I have been utterly amazed at the generosity of so many of you! You continue to reach out to our hungry, cold, lonely, worried and sick neighbors in need. This past month you have sent food, clothing, gifts and monetary donations to families, the elderly, children, parents who struggle, refugees and homeless folks. No one that I know of has gone without essential necessities. There has always been someone in our community who continues to ask, "What can I do?" or "Let me know what is needed." The Spring flowers were planted, summer plants watered, and Fall leaves raked, and Christmas gifts delivered with the help of so many of you. The coffee is made, "Hope for Housing" cards are sold, the donuts are picked up, Religious Ed classes continue, the Mass is recorded, the Word of God is proclaimed, guests are greeted and Holy Communion is shared. May each of you know the good you have done was greatly appreciated. Peace and Joy to you All,

Annie Doyle

Lord, we are grateful for the gifts of our lives, for the family and friends you have given us. We remember and give thanks for all of them today. We thank you for showing us how to return thanks by lives of service, by acts of hospitality, by kindness to others, and by concern for each other. We are most grateful for the way you, our loving God have become visible to us - in one another, in our families, in our friends and in the marvels of creation itself. Come Lord of Gifts. Bless our table and all the food of this feast. Let us thank the Lord today and all days. Amen.

Spiritual Growth Ministry Corner

Ministry Leader: Bonnie Moran
Saintgeorgespiritgrowth

Thank you to our Spiritual Growth Ministry for this wonderful reflection:

From Deacon Paul Audette:

Welcome to the liturgically rich month of December. Take time to ponder the season of Advent's penitential tone, symbolized by violet vestments. Also ponder the Christian hope we hold in our hearts (poignantly symbolized by the rose vestments of Gaudete Sunday) as we await our celebration of the Incarnation. Take advantage of the opportunity to go to confession by attending our Advent Evening of Recollection on Mon., Dec. 20 at 6:30 pm. The importance of Our Blessed Mother in the Incarnation story is highlighted on Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, a holy day of obligation this year on Wed., Dec. 8 at 8 am or 12:10 pm. And, of course, revel in the transition to the Christmas Season which begins on the evening of December 24 and continues until the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord on January 9. December is an otherwise busy – if not frantic – month. Let us not allow that busyness to prevent us from prayerfully pondering this liturgically and spiritually season.

Spiritual Growth Committee members are: Bonnie Moran – Chair; Andrea Svagdys-Gumbrell; Joan Talbot; Patty Walsh; Kyle Lewandowski and Helen Hurley. Fr. Niccolls and Deacon Paul serve as ex officio members.
