Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St George, celebrate the welcoming presence of Christ in our lives. Together with the universal Church, we are nourished and sustained through the Mystery of the Holy Eucharist, and we are inspired by the proclamation of the Word, guided by the Holy Spirit. We continually seek to grow in a deeper understanding of our faith, to respect the sanctity of human life, and respond to what Jesus asks of us in our time by sharing our gifts and participating in parish activities and outreach to others.

A Community of Ministries, July 30, 2023

From Your Pastor

This weekend is the last weekend that our seminar-ian for this summer, Daniel Morrissey, will be with us. He will be taking a vacation before returning to St. John's Seminary in Brighton to begin his second year of pretheological studies for the priesthood. We wish Daniel well as he begins this new school year and pray that it will be an enriching one for him spiritually as well as academically.

The parables that Jesus shares in this week's Gospel emphasize the process of search and discovery. God's direct rule over all things might be the ultimate reality, but it is a subtle process. Recognizing it requires discernment and the ability to identify God's presence and action. Those exercising discernment in today's Gospel had already trained themselves to find what they sought. The fortune hunter knew how to discover a great treasure; the pearl merchant recognized the valuable pearl; the fishermen knew what to keep and what to discard. Similarly, those seeking God's kingdom must first train themselves to recognize it. Prayer, works of mercy and studying God's word are the training that opens one's heart to recognize God's continuous presence and action.

Here are some questions to reflect upon with this Gospel:

1. What role does hope play for each of the people in the parable as they seek treasure, the valuable pearl or a catch of fish?
2. Has the living the Gospel opened your mind to a hidden treasure?

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION: For the month of August, Eucharistic Exposition & Adoration will take place on Thursday, August 10th, from 6:00 P.M.-7:00 P.M. and on Friday, August 11th, from the conclusion of the 8:00 A.M. Mass until 10:00 A.M.

Stewardship Thought of the Week

"The law of Your mouth is to me more precious than thousands of gold and silver pieces," says the psalmist today. Does the amount of my offering suggest that I could honestly say the same?

Antiques Road Show is a popular program on PBS. People bring all kinds of things to experts to learn about them and to have them appraised. Some items are surprisingly valuable, especially small, rare items. They always seem to generate the most interest and surprise. And everyone hopes that they'll find a fortune in some old stuff around the house.

There are many images that Jesus uses to describe the reign of God: a buried treasure, a merchant's search, or sorting out the good from the useless. In each case, someone is searching for something of value or quality. The object of the search is not readily apparent, but once it is found, everything else pales in comparison. One valuable item is worth more than everything else and no sacrifice is too great to make.

So how does one begin to appraise faith? Or how much is love worth? What is the price of hope? Their value is measured by our willingness to change, our desire to grow and determination to follow the Lord. When we give of ourselves, the Lord fills us with the spiritual gifts that enrich us and make us whole. These gifts are priceless and eternal.

Prayer Before or After Mass

O God, protector of those who hope in you, without whom nothing has firm foundation, nothing is holy, bestow in abundance your mercy upon us and grant that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may use the good things that pass in such a way as to hold fast even now to those that ever endure. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Deacon Paul Audette

James Martin

In this excerpt from an essay published in the April 18, 2016 issue of America magazine, James Martin SJ treats some of the negatives of our day-to-day experience of Catholicism: not only our own griefs and gripes but the misperceptions and bigotries of many non-Catholics and the American media. (Part I): "I once heard some great advice for getting along in Jesuit community: 1. You're not God. 2. This isn't heaven. 3. Don't be a jerk... The first two are essential for life in general. 'You're not God' has multiple implications. First, you can't change most things, so stop trying. Second, you're not in charge, so stop acting as if you were. And third, you don't know everything, so stop acting as if you do. It brings calm, perspective and humility... The second dictum, 'This isn't heaven' can help to reduce the complaining you do... But it's that last apothegm that I wish more people remembered when they enter into public discussions: 'Don't be a jerk.' Now, I'm the first to admit that I break that rule from time to time... But today a surprising number of people think nothing of attacking people anonymously on Twitter, calling fellow politicians terrible names and maligning their integrity during debates, posting mean comments on Facebook and shouting over one another on talk shows – basically, being a jerk. And jerkiness is contagious, I think. Seeing public figures shouting on television probably encourages people to do it their private lives. At the very least, it does not encourage charitable behavior."

The last weeks of each month are especially difficult to our 3 food pantries. Government assistance has been decreased and inflation is stretching family food budgets.

Eucharist and Prayers for the Sick

Especially during these difficult times, please call to let us know if a family member or neighbor is hospitalized, homebound or ill. Call Ann Doyle at 508-450-4134. We want to be with you in prayer and support. We can perhaps arrange a visit and possibly bring Eucharist. Remember that due to HIPAA regulations, unless you allow the hospital or health care institution to release information and list St. George's as your religious affiliation, we are not informed that you are a patient. Thank you for your understanding.

Hope For Housing Cards Help Prevent Family Homelessness

Hope for Housing is a non-profit program developed by our parishioner Matt Ryan. Matt has left us with this legacy which utilizes the collective buying power of 30 congregations to raise money for the prevention of family homelessness. These Gift Cards for local retailers, including Big Y, CVS, Dunkin' Donuts, Hannaford, Panera, Shaws, Stop & Shop, Target, Starbucks, and TJ Max are purchased in bulk, which in turn are sold to members of participating congregations who receive the full value of the card. The retailers donate 2-10% of all sales to the Hope for Housing program. By purchasing gift cards for your use at local retailers, you can help to stabilize families by providing counseling and support.

Please buy "Hope for Housing Cards" available after all Masses. See Dave and Sue Genereux in the Church Hall after Mass. Any questions call them at: 978-833-0306

Our Parish Vision: To welcome all, build connections to Christ and one another, and live our faith as true disciples of Jesus.

Spiritual Growth Ministry Corner

Ministry Leader: Bonnie Moran

Saintgeorgespiritualgrowth@gmail.com

As members of the Catholic Church, we believe that, during Mass, the bread and wine used at Communion, truly become the body and blood of Jesus Christ. What is not often realized or as widely shared, is that, when we receive the host and precious blood, they take 10-15 minutes to be diluted and fully assimilated in the stomach. During these minutes, the body and blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ resides within us.

Here is a story from the life of St. Philip Neri on the subject:

"One day while he was celebrating Mass, a man received Holy Communion and left the church early. The man appeared to have no regard for the Presence within him and so Philip Neri decided to use this opportunity as a teaching moment. He sent two altar boys with lighted candles to follow the man outside of the church. After a while, walking through the streets of Rome, the man turned around to see the altar boys still following him. Confused, the man returned to the church and asked Philip Neri why he sent the altar boys. Saint Philip Neri responded saying, "We have to pay proper respect to Our Lord, Whom you are carrying away with you. Since you neglect to adore Him, I sent two acolytes to take your place." The man was stunned by the response and resolved to be more aware of God's presence in the future."

Especially during this time of Eucharistic Renewal, may we celebrate and appreciate the awesome opportunity we have in receiving the body and blood of our Lord, Jesus Christ!

Have a wonderful week!

Saint John Vianney

1786 - 1859

FEAST DAY: AUGUST 4

Born near Lyon, France, this farmer's son studied for the priesthood for many years, and eventually was ordained more for his devoutness and good will than for other qualities. But he became a model parish priest in Arsen-Dombes, where he served for 40 years. He was devoted to his parishioners, and became famous for rigorous preaching and insights in the confessional. The Cure of Ars, as he was known, spent up to 18 hours a day hearing the confessions of pilgrims who sought him out. He is the patron of parish priests.
