Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St George, celebrate the welcoming presence of Christ in our lives. Together with the universal Church, we are nourished and sustained through the Mystery of the Holy Eucharist, and we are inspired by the proclamation of the Word, guided by the Holy Spirit. We continually seek to grow in a deeper understanding of our faith, to respect the sanctity of human life, and respond to what Jesus asks of us in our time by sharing our gifts and participating in parish activities and outreach to others.

A Community of Ministries, December 24, 2023

From Your Pastor

We extend to you & your loved ones our prayerful best wishes for a Blessed & Merry Christmas!

Tomorrow we will celebrate the awesome mystery of Christmas. Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, reminds us that "Christmas is an event which is renewed in every family, parish and community which receives the love of God made incarnate in Jesus Christ. Like Mary, the Church shows everyone the 'sign of God: the child whom she bore in her womb and to whom she gave birth, yet who is the son of the Most High, since he 'is of the Holy Spirit' (Mt. 1:20). He is truly the Savior, for he is the Lamb of God who takes upon himself the sin of the world (cf. Jn. 1:29). With the shepherds, let us bow down before the Lamb, let us worship God's goodness made flesh, and let us allow tears of repentance to fill our eyes and cleanse our hearts...He alone can save us. Where God is born, hope is born. He brings hope. Where God is born, peace is born. And where peace is born, there is no longer room for hatred and for war."

This year our holiday open house at the rectory will take place after the 8:00 & 10:00 A.M. Masses on Sunday, December 31st. You are most welcome to come.

Fr. Niccolls

Stewardship Thought of the Week

In the first reading, God promises King David that his house and his kingdom will endure forever. It is through Mary's "Yes" - "I am the handmaid of the Lord. Let it be done to me as you say." - that the promise finds fulfillment.

James Martin

(Perhaps the favorite topic of Fr. Martin's writings is the personal quest for holiness in life and the communion of saints who are ever present to help us in that quest, whether through intercession or example.)

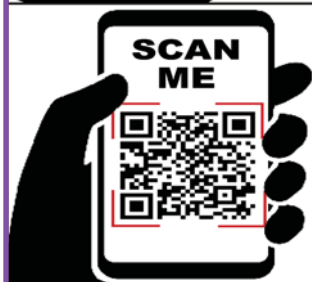

"St. Aloysius Gonzaga...is someone else who is usually depicted as a sort of delicate flower, but who, in reality, was pretty tough. Coming from a noble family in Renaissance Italy, he told his father that he would be turning down his inheritance, renouncing his title and entering the Jesuits. This prompted his father, the Duke of Mantua, to fly into a rage and threaten to have Aloysius whipped. When that didn't work he sent Aloysius on a trip to meet the crowned heads of Europe, to show Aloysius what he would be giving up. Finally, worn out after an 18-month battle of wills, his father gave up, and sent the Jesuit superior general a letter saying, 'I merely say that I am giving you the most precious thing that I possess.' After a few years as a Jesuit, Aloysius died, at age 21 after caring for plague victims in Rome. Today he is often invoked not just as the patron of youth but as the patron of people with AIDS."

Christmas, 2023

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope." (Romans 15:13)

The Gospel accounts of Jesus' birth involve a disparate group of people---the sinless virgin, the upright Joseph, an indifferent innkeeper, Jewish shepherds, pagan magi, the ruthless Herod, incurious scribes, and murderous soldiers. Among this radically varied group, there was one thing in common. They were all---each one of them---loved by God. They were each the reason Christ was born. To each He would call. For each He died.

What was true that long ago night in Bethlehem remains true this day in our world. God loves each one of us. He loves those in the pews each week, twice a year or not at all. He loves those who have just come from the confessional and those who have not yet made it there. He loves those who acknowledge and worship Him and those who do not recognize Him and are far off.

Jesus Christ is the one savior of the world. He loves us all and He calls us all. As people whose freedom God respects, our response is critical. It determines if we find peace in this life and in the next. His peace is a gift. We do not earn it. We can only accept it. We accept it by believing in Him and what He has revealed, by striving to follow Him with our lives, and, by our repentance, accepting His freely offered, limitless mercy for our failures.

I pray that, whatever our situation and circumstance this Christmas, we may all be deeply moved by the wondrous love of God who so loved the world that He sent His Son as our Savior. May we turn anew to Jesus Christ, find a welcome place in His Church, and with it the joy, peace and hope God intends for us all.

With every prayerful best wish, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Robert J. McManus

Word of Life: Intercessions for Life

Inspired by the example of the Blessed Mother, may we, like Mary, gave the courage to say "yes" to God's gift of human life;

We pray to the Lord:

"O Blessed Mother, at the angel's word you went in haste to the aid of your cousin Elizabeth. Although pregnant yourself, you placed her needs before your own. By your example of radical solidarity, teach us to reverence and protect those in need, without conditions or expectations...obtain for us the grace to bring Christ to any expectant mother who is alone and afraid."

Folks at our three Food Pantries Still Need Help

Special Needs for December are:

Jelly, Cereal and Healthy Snacks

Some of these are items that are not available at the Worcester County Food Bank. Due to currently desperate food needs we now make weekly trips to WCFB to increase the food which we are able to share with families in need. Thank you.

Current Parish Outreach Needs

Mustard Seed Catholic Worker continues to need towels, socks, gloves, hats, blankets and warm coats for men.

Reusable grocery bags for the Food Pantries are always needed.

Toilet Paper is needed for our Afghanistan Families and IHN.

All items can be left in the Outreach Collection Area at side entrance of the Church beside the Church hall door.

Hope For Housing Cards Help Prevent Family Homelessness

Hope for Housing is a non-profit program developed by our parishioner Matt Ryan. Matt has left us with this legacy which utilizes the collective buying power of 30 congregations to raise money for the prevention of family homelessness.

These Gift Cards for local retailers, including Big Y, CVS, Dunkin' Donuts, Hannaford, Panera, Shaws, Stop & Shop Target, Starbucks, and TJ Max are purchased in bulk, which in turn are sold to members of participating congregations who receive the full value of the card. The retailers donate 2-10% of all sales to the Hope for Housing program. By purchasing gift cards for your use at local retailers, you can help to stabilize families by providing counseling and support.

Gift Cards Make Great Christmas Gifts! Helping Prevent Homelessness & Giving to Others!

Please buy "Hope for Housing Cards" available after all Masses. See Dave and Sue Genereux in the Church Hall after Mass. Any questions call them at: 978-833-0306

December 2023

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Pope Francis recently said, "What the poor need is our hearts open to love...we are called to find Christ in them."

It has been my experience that your hearts are amazingly open to love of the poor! You certainly help me to see Christ in them: Christ the homeless child born in Bethlehem, Christ the refugee in flight to Egypt, Christ who fed the hungry, Christ the teacher and friend.

You make Christ the Homeless Child visible:

- This past year, your donations helped to give 13 families a place to live and learn at our IHN Shelter. The 23 of them were children who enjoyed summer camp and a music program, learned how to ride and repair a bike, and could rest comfortably and securely within their own family.

You show us the face of Christ the Refugee:

- It never totally occurred to me that Christ and his young parents were once refugees. Your donations to Parish Outreach has put me in contact with the lives of our now three refugee families from Afghanistan. Just recently a young mom experienced the sad loss of her own mom still living far away in Afghanistan. While there is great joy for them now living here in America, there is also sadness.

We see Christ who fed the hungry through you:

- This year we served 900 meals at the Mustard Seed and you shared food with hundreds of others who came in need to our three food pantries. The struggles of so many folks are lessened because you shop, carry, cook, prepare and share.

Thanks to you, Christ the teacher and friend is present among us:

- So many of you volunteer at our Religious Education Classes, and join our voices together to lead us in praise and worship. You lovingly reach out to family, friends and neighbors in need. You pray for and comfort the sick as well as those who grieve. You listen and share your faith quietly and gently. And so much more! Your kindness and love is Christ present among us.

Gratefully Yours, Annie Doyle

Eucharist and Prayers for the Sick

Especially during these difficult times, please call to let us know if a family member or neighbor is hospitalized, homebound or ill. Call Ann Doyle at 508-450-4134.

We want to be with you in prayer and support. We can perhaps arrange a visit and possibly bring Eucharist. Remember that due to HIPAA regulations, unless you allow the hospital or health care institution to release information and list St. George's as your religious affiliation, we are not informed that you are a patient. Thank you.

Our Parish Vision: To welcome all, build connections to Christ and one another, and live our faith as true disciples of Jesus.

Spiritual Growth Ministry Corner

Ministry Leader: Bonnie Moran

Saintgeorgespiritualgrowth@gmail.com

The time of "waiting" is coming to a close. We are on the brink of Christmas. During Advent we have been encouraged to be alert, to sharpen our awareness of the God who is to come-to welcome Him into our lives, our hearts and our relationships.

Joyce Rupp in her book 'Fresh Bread' writes about preparing a dwelling place for Christ in our lives. She invites us to become more aware of how He dwells among us as we live our lives. Joyce suggests that each morning we pray a simple prayer of "Come Lord Jesus, dwell with me this day". In the evening she encourages reflection of how God has been in our life that day. This a practice which can easily become an ongoing habit.

God dwells in our midst through the people around us. As we prepare for holiday celebrations we ask ourselves, "Lord when did I bake cookies for you? When did I get a Christmas tree for you? When did I shop for you? When did I reach out to those in need?" If we have been open to God we may hear, "Whenever you welcomed these, you welcomed me."

The openness we have nurtured with our morning and evening prayer leads us to appreciate a portion of Joyce Rupp's prayer at the conclusion of Advent.

And Lord, when it is time to say:

this is Christmas day,

I pray that you will be warmly be welcome in the Bethlehem of my heart.

Opening our heart to the arrival of Him with us has been the work of Advent. Can we continue to keep our deepened awareness as the new year unfolds?

EMMAUS MINISTRY Thank You

*To our Priests and Fellow Parishioners
During this Holy Season of Christmas, we pray in thanksgiving for each of you who have so generously given of your time, talent and treasure for the Emmaus Ministry.*

We have been greatly blessed in the programs offered. Because of your support and participation, many new programs have been presented, such as "Soup and Stations", a Mardi Gras celebration, a delicious Italian dinner (catered by Dino's Restaurant) and Karaoke, "Caroling, Cookies and Cocoa", Be Our Guest/Bring a Guest to Sunday Mass and An Evening of Reflection on the Emmaus Gospel (Luke 24:13-35). These are just some of the many programs initiated to socially and spiritually enrich our Parish Community here at St. George!

The Emmaus Ministry is thriving because of your support and the hard work of our parishioners and by the Emmaus Committee (Patti Walsh, Wendy Babola, Vivianne Ouellette, Janice Toole, Sue Pacek, Maria Parker and Mike Savino) and CoChairs: Andrea Svagdys-Gumbrell and JoAnn Nally.

Thank you and may you and your family experience the peace, love and joy of Emmanuel, God With Us.
