Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish community of St George, celebrate the welcoming presence of Christ in our lives. Together with the universal Church, we are nourished and sustained through the Mystery of the Holy Eucharist, and we are inspired by the proclamation of the Word, guided by the Holy Spirit. We continually seek to grow in a deeper understanding of our faith, to respect the sanctity of human life, and respond to what Jesus asks of us in our time by sharing our gifts and participating in parish activities and outreach to others.

A Community of Ministries, September 24, 2023

From Your Pastor

Next weekend we will celebrate Welcome Weekend. Whether it is the occasion of welcoming new parishioners or welcoming back those who have been away, we will gather as a parish community of faith who come together around the table of the Lord. Our faith tells us that we gather with Jesus among us in his life-giving presence as we listen to God's word in Scripture and receive him in his body and blood in the Holy Eucharist. When we do this, we become, as Fr. Henri Nouwen says, the living Christ and are enabled to discover our own chosenness and blessedness and acknowledge our brokenness and that in everything we do as a faith-filled people, we do in our living for others. We become transformed not only individually but as a community. We may be of different ages and races with different backgrounds and histories but we become the living Christ who is taken, blessed, broken and shared. We become one body and are living witnesses of God's immense desire to bring all of us together as his one family.

New Altar Server Appeal & Training: We are looking for new altar servers especially among our younger families who have children in Grade 3 or older. We would like to have at least two servers scheduled for each Mass, particularly at the 4:00 P.M. Mass on Saturdays, so as to have sufficient coverage when a server may not be able to serve due to some unforeseen circumstance. We are looking for any boy or girl who is in the 3rd Grade or older to consider becoming an altar server. Training sessions will be held beginning on Sunday, October 1st, at 11:00 A.M. in the church.

Expanded Daily Mass Schedule: Beginning Thursday, October 5th, a Mass will once again be offered at 5:30 P.M. This Mass will become part of our daily Mass schedule on Thursdays thereafter. The daily Masses on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays will remain the same.

The celebration of the nativity of our Lord is just about three months away, but there is something of which I want to make you aware now. Our outdoor nativity set is showing signs of aging and deterioration and needs to be replaced. Three weeks ago I went shopping at Boucher's religious store and was shown a set that is unbreakable (our present set is not and two pieces are broken) and should last for many generations of parishioners to come. This is one reason why I think that this would be an appropriate time to replace our nativity set. A picture of the set and the prices of the new figures are included in this week's bulletin. Donations for this new set can be made through buying individual pieces. In providing donations in this way, many of us can make a contribution toward this holiday setting that commemorates the birth of Jesus. In order to have a 3 piece set of Jesus, Mary and Joseph for Christmas, all contributions toward it must be received by October 31, 2023. The remaining pieces of the nativity set will be available from the supplier after Christmas.

James Martin

(excerpts from his book Seven Last Words)

"How does Jesus's suffering change us? Help us?...First, it helps us to feel less alone...Second, knowing that Jesus understands you may help you feel not only less alone but more able to speak to Jesus more openly in prayer. Perhaps you've had this experience: you are facing a difficult problem and struggle to talk about it. It's hard to find the words; you're not certain that people will understand; and you're worried that people might think that you're just complaining. Suddenly you meet someone who is going through the same thing. Perhaps you've met someone who lost a parent, just as you have. Perhaps you've met a person who is looking for work, as you are. Perhaps you've even found a support group of people living with the same illness that you have. Suddenly you feel more at ease, and can open up. It's a relief to be able to let down your guard and speak candidly with that person or that group...You can do the same with Jesus. Let your guard down. Open up. Be honest with him in prayer. It's a relief to be honest after feeling that you won't be understood, that you can't complain, you can't ask for help, that you can't even mention your struggles. No, Jesus wants to hear your struggles and he understands them."

Stewardship Thought of the Week

In today's Gospel, the vineyard owner says, "I am free to do as I please with my money, am I not?" We are likewise free. Is a generous return to the Lord in thanksgiving for His many blessings among the choices we have made?

Caring for Neighbors in Need

Heartfelt thanks to all of our parishioners who donated, prepared and served the September Mustard Seed Meal for 150 guests.

Please remember Robert "Bobby" Guthro in your prayers. Bobby passed away after a brief illness. He was a daily volunteer at the Mustard Seed for over 40 years.

Current Needs at the Mustard Seed are for:

- Men's and women's outdoor Fall clothing such as jackets, sweatshirts, jeans, sweatpants and long sleeve shirts
- New socks and underwear for men and women - all types and sizes are welcome especially men's large and extra large boxers
- Sleeping bags, blankets, and backpacks

All item can be left in the outreach collection area. Thank you!

Hope For Housing Cards Help Prevent Family Homelessness

Hope for Housing is a non-profit program developed by our parishioner Matt Ryan.

Matt has left us with this legacy which utilizes the collective buying power of 30 congregations to raise money for the prevention of family homelessness.

These Gift Cards for local retailers, including Big Y, CVS, Dunkin' Donuts, Hannaford, Panera, Shaws, Stop & Shop Target, Starbucks, and TJ Max are purchased in bulk, which in turn are sold to members of participating congregations who receive the full value of the card. The retailers donate 2-10% of all sales to the Hope for Housing program. By purchasing gift cards for your use at local retailers, you can help to stabilize families by providing counseling and support.

Please buy "Hope for Housing Cards" available after all Masses. See Dave and Sue Genereux in the Church Hall after Mass. Any questions call them at: 978-833-0306

Eucharist and Prayers for the Sick

Especially during these difficult times, please call to let us know if a family member or neighbor is hospitalized, homebound or ill. Call Ann Doyle at 508-450-4134. We want to be with you in prayer and support. We can perhaps arrange a visit and possibly bring Eucharist. Remember that due to HIPAA regulations, unless you allow the hospital or health care institution to release information and list St. George's as your religious affiliation, we are not informed that you are a patient.

Thank you for your understanding.

Update on Our Families from Afghanistan

Nine of the children are now happily enjoying school. Seven of them are on soccer teams this year. They play with great enthusiasm and skill! Parents and younger family members attend the games to cheer everyone on.

Current Needs Include:

- Toilet paper
- Paper towels
- Grocery gift cards to Big Y (see Sue/Dave after Mass to buy Hope For Housing Cards in the Church Hall).

Thanks so much!

Your Help is Needed to Feed the Hungry

Special Needs for September are:

Jelly and Healthy Snacks

Such as granola bars, individual package of nuts, Fruit cups and applesauce

The last weeks of each month are so difficult for folks coming to our 3 food pantries. Homelessness and poverty are on the increase. Food items can be left in the "Outreach Collection Area" just outside the entrance to the Church Hall on the basement level.

Thank you!

Spiritual Growth Ministry Corner
Ministry Leader: Bonnie Moran
Saintgeorgespiritualgrowth@gmail.com

A few years ago the husband of a friend of mine returned a book to me entitled 'All Will Be Well'. It was a gift I had given to my friend as she was courageously battling multiple myeloma. The book was based on the spirituality of Julian of Norwich. My friend ultimately lost her struggle, but the frequent underlining gave evidence that many of the thoughts within deepened her spirituality and hopefully mine as I re-read the meditations and prayers through the eyes of my friend.

Julian of Norwich was a medieval mystic about whom we know little. We do not even know if her name of origin was Julian or whether she was named for the church (St. Julian of Norwich) to which her house was attached. She is the first woman writer in English whose work survives. She has left the world one work, 'Showings' which has two versions. This writing describes 16 visions she received from God during a near-death illness. The second version explores the meaning of these visions. Julian's experience of God brought her love and joy, instead of seeing the world of God in terms of sin and judgment. She tells of God's courtesy, an important trait in her day. God's courtesy makes God respectful of us and patient with our failings.

Julian recognizes a feminine aspect in the Divine- a nurturing force, immanent in nature, which draws souls close to it and provides comfort. Her idea of the divine all-encompassing love resonates above differences in doctrine and dogma. She expresses a vision of God in which everyone is welcome.

The book 'All Will Be Well' gives the reader 30 days of morning reflections, mantras to turn to during the day. At the end of the day encouragement to meditate on a few questions are followed by a night prayer. These are taken from the first and second versions of 'Showings'. One of the night prayers especially speaks to us today from Julian's medieval world.

Dear Lord,

Give me the strength to meet the events of my life believing in you that all will be revealed and everything made well.
Help me to surrender my anxiety
so that my spirit may have ease and be at peace in love.

When faced with a particular challenge, difficulty or decision we may wonder, "Will all be well?" Listen to the voice of Julian of Norwich speaking through her written words of wisdom. "All will be well, and every manner of thing will be well".

Spiritual Growth Committee members: Bonnie Moran – Chair; Deacon Paul Audette, Joan Talbot; Patti Walsh; Helen Hurley, and Kyle Lewandowski. Fr. Niccolls as ex officio member.

Wednesday, October 18th from 2:00 PM - 3:15 PM

Room 108 in the Parish Center is Handicapped Accessible.

The seniors at the Catholic high school were required to do a certain number of community service hours. One project the fall sports teams had to do was to staff the soup kitchen on New Year's Day. Amid many objections about the early hour after being up so late and that it was still a school holiday, students still showed up and worked hard to prepare a cooked meal for several hundred people.

Waiting nervously, the students expected the stereotypical homeless man to show up. The seniors were shocked and even moved to tears when young families, well dressed senior citizens and even kids their own age showed up for dinner. They soon realized that poverty and hunger affect many people. Even more surprising was the politeness and gratitude expressed by everyone who came. Students were clearly moved by the experience.

Later, as students shared their thoughts, one common theme emerged. As much as they may have given, the students thought they received more than they gave. They had a new sense of gratitude and appreciation for what they had and a determination to make a difference for those less fortunate. That's a New Year's resolution worth keeping any time of year.
