

ST. BENEDICT PARISH

ST. MARY'S • ST. BRIDGET'S

Striving to know, love, and serve God in all others.

The words and ideas expressed in our Gospel reading today would not have been considered in a crude or grotesque way. Rather it would have been understood that union with God in deep intimacy was its aim. The law of communion runs through nature as every living thing communes with another in order to sustain its life. Why then is it strange for Christ to say "unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood you have no life in you."? Wouldn't the plants say the same to us if they could speak?

The nourishment that we receive in Holy Communion is one that feeds the divine potential within us. Without it, we cannot enter into the fullness of our nature – we are all tadpoles refusing to become frogs – fighting our nature. This is no way to live a rich and full existence. Fullness is what we were made for and it is fullness that we receive in Jesus Christ – perfection is achieved by Communion just as health and nourishment are achieved in our earthly communion with the plants and animals we consume.

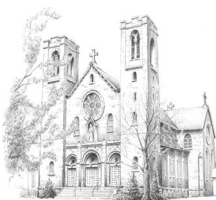

May we be strong in the life that we share in Jesus Christ. May the food we consume fill us up. May Divine Life become for us a living reality of daily life... May Christ dwell in us richly. May divine blood pump in our veins. May the knowledge and love of God make us daily more aware of the blessedness that is Christian life. There are no problems or complaints or difficulties for us if this is the case. We will only love and become increasingly more beautiful by God's gift of himself and one another. Communion is the greatest thing that there is for us – to be one in the love of God with one another who gives us everything in giving us himself.

Pastor note:

The rendering for the restoration of the interior of St. Mary's Church should be available to us for viewing very soon. It will be posted in a prominent place or places. Please continue your prayers for this wonderful endeavor! Troy Simmons is working very hard with us and the diocese to get it perfect!

Many thanks for your support and for your response to my asking for volunteers! You are wonderful. You cannot know how much your generosity makes me a better servant of you! I live a tremendously blessed life here with gratitude beyond measure. Thanks again!

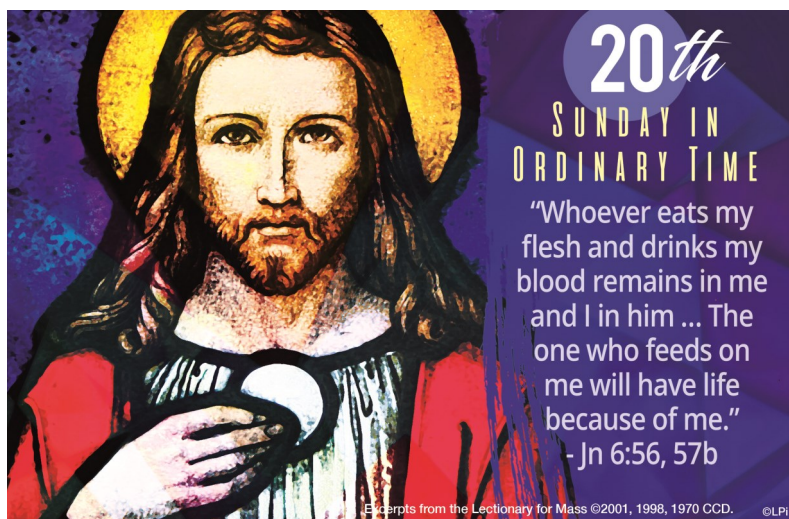

Your servant in Our Blessed Lord,
Fr. Michael

St. Benedict's Ladder of Humility— Week 5 of 12

Step 5: REPENTANCE

"Never hide any of the evil thoughts which arise in your heart or the evils you commit in secret. Instead, reveal them to someone you trust. For Scripture says, 'Commit your way to the Lord; trust in him.'" (Psalm 37:5)

Repentance explained—Repentance is voluntary sorrow because it offends God, for having done something wrong, together with the resolve to amend one's conduct by taking the necessary means to avoid the occasions of sin. To repent is to be sorry for sin with self-condemnation.

Baptism was given to take away original sin. For sins committed after baptism, a different sacrament is needed. It has been called penance, confession, and reconciliation, each word emphasizing one of its aspects. During his life, Christ forgave sins, as in the case of the woman caught in adultery (John 8:1–11) and the woman who anointed his feet (Luke 7:48). He exercised this power in his human capacity as the Messiah or Son of man, telling us, "the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins" (Matt. 9:6), which is why the Gospel writer himself explains that God "had given such authority to men" (Matt. 9:8).

Since he would not always be with the Church visibly, Christ gave this power to other men so the Church, which is the continuation of his presence throughout time (Matt. 28:20), would be able to offer forgiveness to future generations. He gave his power to the apostles, and it was a power that could be passed on to their successors and agents, since the apostles wouldn't always be on earth either, but people would still be sinning.

Sharing the Gospel

During Mass the priest changes the bread and wine into the body and blood of Jesus Christ. He uses the same words that Jesus did at the Last Supper. "This is my body. This is my blood." When you receive the holy Eucharist, Jesus lives inside you. You live in Jesus. His being with you will help you say, "No," to evil and "Yes," to good.

Prayer

Lord, bless all that I eat and drink so that I may follow you forever.

Something to Draw

Draw yourself and your family at a table bowing your heads for the blessing.

Mission for the Week

Ask your parents if you can have a snack of grape juice and bread today. Talk about how the Israelites came to get manna every morning. How can you as a family make Jesus a part of your day, every day?

Cakes Needed for the Festival Cake Booth

If you are interested in donating a cake for the cake booth, please call the Parish office. We are also looking for parishioners who are willing to donate 1–2 hours of their time in the comfort of their own homes to make phone calls for additional cakes. No heavy lifting and no need to be outdoors in the heat and you'll still be helping the parish! If interested in helping make phone calls, please contact Mark Pietropaolo at (585) 278-6502 or Susan Pietropaolo at (585) 747-2597. Thank you!

CCIA Food Pantry Wish List for the Weeks of...

Aug 18 & 19 - canned fruit, canned vegetables, pork & beans
 Aug 25 & 26 - tuna, canned meat, soup, spaghetti sauce
 Donations of toilet paper, deodorant, shampoo, and razors are also needed.

Like Being Outside? Don't Mind a Little Dirt?

Did you know... the grounds-maintenance staff is unable to keep up with the gardens that you see on both campuses: St. Mary's and St. Bridget's? This includes the churches, rectories, outbuildings, etc. We, the people, are stewards of our parish, financially and physically. Through our donations and recycling, we are already doing that. But if you would like to help spruce up the properties, we could use as little or as much of your time as you would like to share. The commitment, right now, will only be until autumn. Rethink, reassess your commitment annually. Whatever little, or large, piece of property you want to 'take care of' would be just the right size!! Contact Maureen Gallagher, (585) 412-9121 or mjfpg@rochester.rr.com to know more. We can even meet briefly and take a joint walk around either campus to clarify. Some parishioners already have 'their' piece that they groom... It is greatly appreciated, although they do it quietly, not looking for our gratitude. Remember: 'do all things in love' and that includes maintaining Our Lord's Home here in Canandaigua-Bloomfield.

Visiting Deacons and Second Collection at Next Weekend's Masses

St. Benedict Parish will joyfully welcome two visiting Deacons next weekend: Deacon Marcelo De Risio and Deacon George Dardess. At each of our Masses, the Deacons will speak about our diocese's Catholic Migrant Ministry, which serves the large Catholic migrant population within our twelve-country area, a population that increases greatly during the current season in order to harvest our region's abundant vegetables and fruits. There will be a second collection next weekend for these efforts. Your contribution will help provide sacramental services and pastoral care to this diverse group of hard-working people.

Next weekend, members of St. Benedict Parish's Social Ministry and Migrant Ministry groups will also be present at each of the church entrances distributing a flyer which outlines the ways our Parish invites everyone to become involved in our migrant outreach.

A little about the visiting Deacons...

Deacon Marcelo De Risio, originally from Argentina, is currently serving at the Church of the Assumption and Church of the Resurrection in Fairport, and regularly teaches at St. Bernard's School of Theology and Ministry religious courses to the Hispanic community.

Deacon George Dardess is retired, but still remains active in support of our migrant and interfaith ministries.

Family Promise Training and Update

From October 7-October 14, St. Benedict's Parish will be opening its doors as part of our mission to help homeless children and their families. Uniting hearts and hands, we will provide families with meals, hospitality and a place to lay their heads as they work to gain their own independence. All volunteers must complete a one-time training session. Our training is scheduled for Monday, September 17 at St. Bridget's Hall from 6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. Please share with friends and family who might be interested. You do not need to be a member of St. Benedict Parish in order to volunteer. Please RSVP to guastaferrero@rochester.rr.com or (585) 953-7715 with your attendance confirmation.

More exciting news: Grand Opening Ceremony! The Family Promise of Ontario County Day Center will officially open for families on September 23. Please join us on Thursday, September 20 for our Grand Opening Ceremony. More details will follow.

Even though we are told that if we seek the Lord, we shall not want, in the second reading St. Paul reminds us that thus blessed by the Lord, the good steward should "give thanks to God the Father always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ." (see Ephesians 5:20)
