

ST. BENEDICT PARISH

ST. MARY'S • ST. BRIDGET'S

Striving to know, love, and serve God in all others.

32nd Sunday

IN ORDINARY TIME

"They can no longer die, for they are like angels;
and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise." - Lk 20:36

In our tradition, we have inherited from our worship and from scripture a keen and insightful piece of wisdom – that God is love. As Jesus lived in his life so warmly and radically this gift he offers us, we in turn show who our true Master is by the love we pour out. It is very difficult, exhausting, daunting, and truly impossible without the aid of his grace.

Therefore, it is inhuman to hate, let alone terribly un-Christian. To withhold from someone who is in need or deserves what you may offer them is a sign of a conceited and jealous mind. The Sadducees and Pharisees, as they enter into these clever contests with Christ, do so wasting their time and revealing their true nature. The question is: When our true nature is laid open to see, is it generous, compassionate, kind, loving, and constantly willing to forgive and reconcile? Are we his on the inside and the outside? Thoroughly his?

It is important to remember that our lives are to be lost for the Life he offers – His Life. "He is not God of the dead, but the Living." Those who have true life have his life. No one who goes to him, therefore, can die if only he knows us as his adopted brothers and sisters. That is what the Church is; it is a way to become related to God. If only we love well.

The error of the Pharisees (and here in our reading today of the Sadducees) is to become enamored with our own selves and choose, therefore, only an earthly life. It is sad to think of it like this, but may we ever long in all that we do to know him in truth more each day. That is the true victory that we ought to seek.

Pastor's Note

CMA: We are at nearly 10% of our goal! I am amazed at your generosity. We even delayed a bit in getting started, but you have been so supportive.

I appeal to your strong sense of leadership and initiative to take a leadership role in the diocese that will show how a parish ought to respond in times of adversity. BY THRIVING! Nothing is easy these days, but it is all a blessing when you look at it in the light of what we have received together. Every day is a joy with you. Thank you for giving all that you give, and I thank you for your consideration of the CMA. Anything helps!

Your servant in Our Blessed Lord,
Fr. Michael

Martha's Servers

Martha's Servers are so called because Martha, sister of Mary and Lazarus, served Jesus and was a beloved friend to Him. St. Martha is the Patron Saint of servers, cooks, and housewives, and her Feast Day is July 29. At St. Benedict Parish, we strive to provide hospitality to the families in our midst, like Martha did with Jesus. To do so, we hope to build upon our existing teams of volunteers at both of our churches to serve during some of the most difficult and vulnerable times in the lives of our fellow parishioners—following the death of a loved one. Martha's Servers work in teams and are called on an as-needed basis to help with funeral receptions. We are looking for additional volunteers for both locations to donate baked goods or other food items (salads, meats, cheese, pasta, breads, etc.) or to help set up before, serve during, and/or clean up after the receptions.

Parishioners who would like to get involved in Martha's Servers or other Parish Life activities, or who wish bring new ideas to foster parish fellowship are encouraged to contact Amy Corron, Parish Life Coordinator, at (585) 394-1220, ext. 25 or Amy.Corron@dor.org.

Women's Prayer Ministry

Women of the parish are welcome to join the Women's Prayer Ministry. Our next meeting will be held on November 11 at St. Mary's. Please join us at 2:30pm in Dougherty Hall or at 6:30pm in St. Mary's Rectory living room (or both, if you'd like!). ALL are welcome: 20's, 30's...80's, 90's, married, single, with children or without. We can grow together through prayer, Scripture, and reflection. For more information, contact Maureen Gallagher at (585) 797-8935, mjfpg@rochester.rr.com OR Cynthia Miller at (716) 445-3387, cynthiaonthecanal@yahoo.com.

Know & Grow

Informative pieces intended to help you know more about our faith and to promote both individual and community growth

KNOW & GROW TOPIC OF THE WEEK: WHAT'S THAT THING CALLED? - "CHURCHY" WORDS, PART 2

The following are some "churchy" terms for items and spaces typically used in setting up for and gathering for Mass.

PASCHAL CANDLE: (also known as Easter Candle or Christ Candle or Jesus Candle) the large candle first lit at the Easter Vigil and used at Baptisms and funerals to remind us of our link to Christ who is the "light of the world". The candle displays ornamentation which includes five grains of incense arranged in the shape of a cross representing the wounds of Jesus, the Greek letters Alpha and Omega, meaning Christ is the beginning and end of all things

PATEN: a plate that holds the gift of bread that becomes the body of Christ

PURIFICATOR: a linen napkin used to wipe the cup that holds the blood of Christ

PYX: a small vessel to hold the holy bread of the Eucharist when a Eucharistic Minister carries it out of church to people who are sick

pyxes

ROMAN MISSAL/SACRAMENTARY: the official book of the prayers spoken by the presider at Mass — this is the book you will often see the altar servers hold for the priest at the beginning and end of Mass. The Roman Missal is printed in red ink (for the rubrics [rules, instructions]) and black ink (for the actual prayers spoken). Scripture readings are not included in the Roman Missal.

SACRARIUM: a sink in the sacristy with a drain that leads directly to the earth. The sacrarium is used to dispose of materials used for sacred purposes, for example, blessed water or blessed ashes. The sacrarium does not enter into the public sewer system; it empties into a special well dug so the sacred does not mix with disposed waste.

SACRISTY: the room in which all the vessels and vestments used in the liturgy are stored and cared for

SANCTUARY: the space around the altar and ambo. The word comes from a Latin word and means "sacred, holy place"

SANCTUARY LAMP: the special candle kept lit near the tabernacle to indicate the Lord's presence in the form of the Eucharistic bread; this reminds us that Jesus is with us during day and night

TABERNACLE: a safe-like, secure place for the exclusive reservation and worship of the Blessed Sacrament, the consecrated hosts to be used as Communion for those who are homebound, sick and dying, and sometimes for those at Mass. Note: To show reverence, we bow to the tabernacle before and after Mass. We bow to the altar during Mass.

THURIBLE (ALSO KNOWN AS CENSER): a metal container, in the form of a cup or bowl, with a perforated cover, suspended on a chain. It is used for incensing persons or objects. Incense burned on lighted charcoal inside the censer provides the fragrant smoke that billows out as the censer is swung back and forth. A small, elongated dish, often called an incense boat because of its elongated shape, holds extra incense and a small spoon. The person carrying the thurible (or censer) is called a thurifer.

Coffee Hour This Weekend

All are welcome to join us in St. Bridget's Church Hall for Coffee Hour following 9:30am Mass on Sunday, November 10.

Lifetouch

WE ARE PREPARING TO PUBLISH A NEW PARISH DIRECTORY—DON'T BE LEFT OUT!

It has been seven years since our last parish-wide photo directory, so it's time to create a new book! This is a great tool to help us connect names and faces. Each family photographed will receive a free copy of the directory and a complimentary 8x10 of their directory portrait. Photography will be taken right in Dougherty Hall on several dates in December and January. To make sure you get the appointment you want, please be sure to sign up right away. Our directory won't be complete without you.

Sign ups will be available after all Masses this weekend, or if you prefer, they can be done online by visiting our parish website: stbenedictonline.org (please note that the online signups will be inactive during Mass times this weekend to avoid double-booking sessions).

Please note: While we love animals, we also love our new carpet in the church and our recently cleaned carpet in Dougherty Hall. Please respect our wishes to not have animals join you for the photo sessions this year. Thank you for understanding.

Mittens, Hats, and Scarves Needed!

We are in need of mittens, hats, and scarves for infants and children for this year's Christmas Food Basket program. If you would like to make a donation of mittens, etc., please bring them to PAC or call Marcia Webster at (585) 394-6836 to arrange for a pick up.

If you are in need of yarn, Marcia has some available. Please call her to arrange to pick some up or she will bring some to you.

We will need the mittens and all knitted items no later than Wednesday, December 4th.

The knitted items will be distributed with the Christmas baskets to many families in the Canandaigua and Farmington area. Last year, we gave mittens to over 200 children. Thank you for your ongoing support of this very important community program.

Shifting into Christmas Mode

Just think: next week, tags for Christmas giving will be available in both churches. In both parishes this year, we will be asking that presents be returned wrapped with the tag ID affixed on the outside of the present by December 8.

We are still collecting non-perishable foods for Christmas baskets up through Thanksgiving Day. Empty shopping bags with handles are available at church entrances. Filled baskets should be returned to the Dougherty Hall entrance at St. Mary's Church or the back of church at St. Bridget's.

Sign-ups for mitten sorting on Sunday, December 8 and gift sorting on Thursday, December 12 will be on the bulletin board at the Dougherty Hall entrance of St. Mary's.

PARISHIONERS: For several weeks now, we have asked your assistance in updating the names on the bulletin prayer list. So many of you have helped answer our questions about "the people in blue." We will continue to update for the few next weeks. On the First Sunday of Advent, December 1, we will begin printing only the "people in black." If you have any other updates you can help us with, please contact our receptionist, Maureen Horrocks, or Deacon Claude.
