IN ORDINARY TIME

"But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight." - Lk 10:33

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

The Good Samaritan is a beautiful parable. That it is well-known is an understatement. However, if you look at it closely, do you recognize that it might be offensive?

First of all, it looks like a standard joke setup... However, the hero that he sets up and the villains that he sets up are reversed in a way that would have caused great trouble for the listeners. In that sense, it is a shocking story. But what is at its heart?

Well, Jesus is asked – "But who is my neighbor?" Then he tells this story. The story tells us what truly makes us related to one another. Do you love others in this world the way in which you love the love of your life? Do we pour ourselves out for the other? Can we claim any participation in Divine Love if we do not ask God for the Grace to love as he loves? Do you love those whom you oppose, you hate, or those to whom you are indifferent?

God shatters our apathy and our hatred. This is Divine Love: to Love God so richly that we see his light in even our enemies. How beyond us this is! Our hearts are so sold and convinced on our own earthly concerns. We love in only this clan-like way; we see only the similar as worthy of love. Let God give you the Grace to smash this to pieces within you. That you may see even those for whom you have no concern as created beautiful by the same who made us all. Can we aspire to that love? This is the love that transforms. This is the love we are called to. May we ask for his assistance in realizing it. ~ MC

NOW, MORE THAN EVER, we ought to understand the mission of Catholic education and Catholic educators. We need to acknowledge the truly divine call of our teachers and staff, most especially here at St. Mary's School. The call of dedication and true commitment to each and every student who walks through the doors. The call of selfless service.

RCIA
A Journey In Faith

RCIA: A Journey in Faith

RCIA is a process for those who are interested in becoming Catholic; those who have been baptized Catholic but have not yet been Confirmed or may not have received Eucharist; those who have been away from the church for awhile and are interested in renewing their faith, understanding, and attaining a sense of community; and even for those "cradle Catholics" that just want to learn more about their faith.

Wherever you are on your faith journey, we welcome you and your questions. For more information or to join the group, please contact Teresa at Teresa.Dunn@dor.org.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Where is Eucharist mentioned in the Bible?

The Lord Jesus, on the night before he suffered on the cross, shared one last meal with his disciples. During this meal our Savior instituted the sacrament of his Body and Blood. He did this in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the Cross throughout the ages and to entrust to the Church a memorial of his death and resurrection. The Institution of the Eucharist is written down in the four Gospels below:

Matthew 26:26-30

Mark 14:22-26

Luke 22:14-20

John 6:22-59 (The Bread of Life Discourse)

Why does Jesus give himself to us as food and drink?

Jesus gives himself to us in Eucharist as spiritual nourishment because he loves us. By eating the Body and drinking the Blood of Christ in Eucharist, we become united to the person of Christ through his humanity. "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him" (Jn 6:56). In being united to the humanity of Christ, we are at the same time united to his divinity. Our mortal and corruptible natures are transformed by being joined to the source of life.

"Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink... Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me" (Jn 6:53-57).

BACK TO SCHOOL

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

Wanted: Donations of School Supplies

Graduations: joyously over
 Summer celebrations: joyously happening
 Next order of business: back to school
 This weekend, July 9 & 10, we will begin collecting school supplies (from pens and pencils, to note book paper to notebooks, to scissors and tape and Kleenex). Collection bins are at the Dougherty Hall entrance of St. Mary's Church and at the table at the rear of St. Bridget's Church. The inventory we collect will be shared with needy children in Bloomfield, Canandaigua, and the migrant community. Make good use of all those sales not only for your own children and grandchildren, but also for others who do not have the resources to gather all the supplies needed for the coming school year.

*Need support?These ministries may be able to help.Stephen Ministry

Testimonial from a Care Receiver: I was going through a very difficult time in my life when I felt disconnected from my church community. I lost my second husband in 2015 and had some major health concerns in 2019. My daughter and I had a very strained relationship that escalated around this time. This, in addition to my hospitalization and near death experience, led me to accept the help of a Stephen Minister.

The special feeling I got from my Stephen Minister care giver was that she was sent by God. She was a person who actively showed the love of Jesus. Visiting me regularly, she helped me realize how to endure and move forward. I blamed myself for many things. Talking with my Stephen Minister, I realized I needed to forgive myself. After my care giver moved out of state, I was assigned another Stephen Minister. I always felt I could trust both ladies to keep the things I shared with them confidential. More than any other time in my life, the weekly visits from my Stephen Ministers increased my spiritual relationship with God.

To find out more about Stephen Ministry or to receive a Stephen Minister's care, call (607) 398-0382. Leave a message and a Stephen Minister will get back to you.

A trained companion is available to guide you on a confidential, nonjudgmental healing process of forgiveness and peace. It doesn't matter what faith tradition you are from or if you don't adhere to any faith. Everyone is treated with respect and consideration. All services are offered at no cost. If you or someone you know needs hope after abortion, confidential, nonjudgmental help is available through our dedicated helpline: 888-9RACHEL (888-972-2435). Shawls Available to Those in Need

St. Benedict's Prayer Shawl Ministry has created prayer shawls, which are available at the PAC and at St. Bridget's Church Hall for anyone who feels a need in these difficult times. They are a great comfort to those suffering illnesses, grieving lost loved ones, or experiencing stress and anxiety. They are blessed and have a tag expressing their purpose. They have been created with knitting needles, crochet hooks, donated yarn, and much love and prayers. If you would like, please call the PAC at 394-1220 or visit St. Bridget's Parish Hall after Mass or during the hours that the Blessing Room is open. If you have any questions, please contact Bev at 657-7042 or Rose Anne at 657-6537.

The Prayer Shawl Ministry always welcomes new members. The ministry typically meets on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month from 2pm-4pm in Dougherty Hall, but in July and August we will be meeting earlier and off-site. Please call Bev or Rose Anne for details. If you are unable to join us during our meeting times, you can work at home. We can supply yarn and tools if needed. We also gladly accept any yarn that anyone can donate.
