News from the Parish Staff

New From the Office of Faith Formation . . .

"Man cannot live without love. He remains a being that is incomprehensible for himself...if love is not revealed to him, if he does not encounter love, if he does not experience it and make it his own, if he does not participate intimately in it. This is why Christ the Redeemer 'fully reveals man to himself.'"

~ Saint John Paul II (Redemptor Hominis)

+ This week, our Holy Father, Pope Francis, announced the theme for the 2018 Synod of Bishops will be "Young People, the Faith & Vocational Discernment". Watch this space for more information about the Synod. Please pray that all young people will hear and answer God's unique call to their lives, especially those who feel called to ordained and consecrated life.

+ Drop-off and pick-up instructions for the 8th Grade Confirmation Evening with Chris Stefanick are available on the Parish website. The event is Tuesday, January 31st at Nativity Parish. Doors open at 5:45 PM.

+ Confirmation Candidates must order their gown immediately and provide their height in inches. Please go to the Parish website, <https://stleothegreat.com/confirmation-prep> to complete the required information.

+ Please pray for all our children and RCIA candidates preparing to celebrate Sacraments of Initiation in 2017.

HIS WORD TODAY

"I beg you brothers in the name of Lord Jesus Christ, to agree on what you say. Let there be no factions; rather be united in mind and judgment... Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel – not with wordy 'wisdom' however, lest the cross of Christ be rendered void of its meaning.

The people in darkness have seen a great light

From the early days of the church questions and disputes arose, as the communities were formed and began to grow. Two thousand years later, people continue to line up, choose a banner or are pasted with a label. The words of St. Paul should cause us to pause and think.

I hear many sermons, read many tracts, watch a variety of religious programs. All seem to have different perspectives. If they are credible, they should lead us to the cross of Jesus Christ. If they fail to do this, they are of little worth.

Did we not hear the scripture words "there is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God who is Father?" May we learn to listen with a special ear, discern with a keen eye and discover the wisdom of Jesus Christ and the cross. Next time, don't listen for just what you want to hear, but what you need to hear.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
January 29, 2017

First Reading: Zephaniah 2:3, 3:12-13

Zephaniah prophesies that the Lord will punish wicked nations along with Jerusalem, but he will shelter from his anger those who practice justice and humility and do no wrong.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:26-31

Paul tells the Corinthians that God prefers the humble, the weak, the lowly of station — people like themselves. In Christ Jesus they will find wisdom, honor and justice.

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12a

Jesus teaches the Beatitudes in his Sermon on the Mount. He extols those who are merciful, peaceful, lowly, poor in spirit and promises them that "the reign of God is theirs."

Gospel Today

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time | Matthew 4:12-23

Jesus began His ministry by the sea. There He called His first disciples, brothers Simon (Peter) and Andrew as they were casting their nets. Brothers James and John were fishing when Jesus called them next, saying, "Come after Me and I will make you fishers of men".

Cycle A
