SIRACH 3:18

I'm Nobody! Who Are You?

This is the title of one of Emily Dickinson's most beloved poems. Did she really think she was nobody? Probably not. But neither was she eager to get bogged down by the approval of others. She seems to have been satisfied with who she was and how she lived her life.

Unlike Dickinson, many of us live for the approval of others. In fact, we almost glorify celebrities—and not simply for their accomplishments. Their taste becomes our choice in buying clothes; their opinions shape our thinking; their social life becomes our entertainment. This is a strange turnaround, for the only reason they are famous is that we have given them our approval. We made them celebrities.

We all know people who, in the eyes of the broader society, might be considered “nobodies” but who really are the “somebodies.” They are like Dickinson. They know who they are and do not pretend to be someone or something else. They do not put on airs; they do not expect to be treated better than others. They simply are who they are. These are the people described in today's readings. They have lived as Sirach counsels: “Humble yourself” (Sirach 3:18). This does not mean humiliate yourself or put yourself down. It means be who you are, the you that God made. Don't try to be someone else. The Gospel story shows what might happen if you think you are more than you really are. The proud man was literally put in his place.

So, who are you?

Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection

- ★ *What do you do to gain other's approval?
Does that change who you are?*
- ★ How often do you describe yourself as better than others? Is it true?

Family Corner

About the Gospel

Having pride in your family or accomplishments is a good thing, but we know that pride can also become sinful if we think we are better than others. The opposite virtue of pride is humility. Jesus focuses on humility in Sunday's Gospel. We should try to build others up instead of focusing on our own importance.

Visit www.usccb.org/bible/readings to read this Sunday's Scripture.

In Church

When we strike our chest three times and say, "through my most grievous fault," remember that grievous means "causing great sorrow."

Question of the Week

When do you find yourself falling into a sin of pride?
How can you become more aware of it?

Family Prayer

Lord, grant us the grace to desire that others may be recognized and appreciated, even if we go unnoticed. Amen.

Rincón de la Familia

Acerca del Evangelio

Es bueno sentirte orgulloso de tu familia o de tus logros, pero sabemos que el orgullo puede ser malo si pensamos que somos mejores que otras personas. La virtud opuesta es la humildad. Jesús nos habla sobre ella en el Evangelio de este domingo. Debemos tratar de ayudar a los demás a ser mejores y no concentrarnos en nuestra propia importancia.

Visita www.usccb.org/bible/lecturas para leer las lecturas de este domingo.

En la Iglesia

Cuando nos demos tres golpes en el pecho y decimos "por mi gran culpa", recuerda que nuestros pecados causan mucho sufrimiento.

Pregunta de la semana

¿Cómo puedes identificar mejor las situaciones que te hacen sentir el pecado del orgullo?

Oración en familia

Señor, danos la gracia de desear que otros sean reconocidos y valorados, aún si nadie nota nuestros esfuerzos (paráfrasis de la Letanía de la Humildad). Amén.

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES: celebrating the sacraments with meaningful worship

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you.” Luke 14:13-14

One of the main principles of living a stewardship lifestyle is to give without expecting anything in return. This is difficult for some to comprehend in our “consumerist” culture that we live in. This is even difficult for many parish communities that have become heavily dependent on parish fundraising events to support the mission and ministry of their local parish. Generally speaking, at a parish fundraiser, you pay money and receive something in return, it’s just a financial transaction. This is opposed to our parish offertory at Holy Mass, where you unite your sacrifice with Jesus’, renewing our covenant relationship with Him.

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES: celebrating the sacraments with meaningful worship

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." - Luke 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

BECOME A MEMBER

A Catholic parish is the single most important part of our Catholic Church. A parish is where parishioners - the people - continue the mission of Jesus Christ. Our parish family exists to nurture an intentional faith-filled Catholic Community that inspires and empowers all people to follow Jesus Christ. We would love to have you as a parish family member if you are new to the area. If you have remained under your parent's membership, but now you are an adult, we encourage you to register independently. You may come to the parish office during office hours and register in person or register online, so we have a way to welcome you.

BAPTISM

Parents are encouraged to begin preparing for their child's baptism before the birth of their child. The program used in preparing for this sacrament is called Belonging: Baptism in the Family of God. Two preparation sessions for parents and godparents are required, at least two months before the sacrament is celebrated. Visit the parish office during office hours and register in person or register online before the initial meeting.

MARRIAGE

Registered parishioners desiring to celebrate the Sacrament of Marriage must contact the parish office a minimum of six months before the proposed wedding date to reserve the church and other parish spaces. Visit the parish office during office hours or inquire online to begin the marriage inquiry process and to request an initial appointment to start preparing to receive this sacrament.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Registered parishioners desiring to receive a blessing for significant marriage anniversaries at Mass contact the parish office a minimum of three months in advance. Visit the parish office during office hours or inquire online.

REPORT MAINTENANCE CONCERN

If you find a location or facility that needs attention, repair, have a safety concern, or items restocked, please notify a facilities & grounds coordinator by completing an online form.

PADRE'S POST

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today we celebrate the Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time in the Gospel of Luke, Chapter 14. Jesus teaches through another parable. He noticed among the guests he had invited that they were choosing places of honor at the table. Jesus teaches that the Kingdom of God will be extended to all people. Jesus warns his guests to wait before taking their places at the table lest they be asked to move if someone more important arrives. This lesson is more than a lesson in common courtesy. It helps each of us know how to find our true place in the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus challenges individuals not to invite people who would be expected to repay them, in this instance to repay them to dinner, but to invite those who could not repay, the poor, the crippled, the lame and the blind.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches: Envy represents a form of sadness and therefore a refusal of charity; the baptized person should struggle against it by exercising good will. Envy often comes from pride; the baptized person should train himself to live in humility:

Would you like to see God glorified by you? Then rejoice in your brother's progress and you will immediately give glory to God. Because his servant could conquer envy by rejoicing in the merits of others, God will be praised. (CCC 2540)

This teaching gives us some insight into Jesus' vision of society. An image of society that comes to light through the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy. When we know our limitations, we live within our capabilities. In today's first reading of Sirach, Chapter 3, the author of Sirach sketches out the invitation to conduct ourselves with humility and in doing so, we will be loved more than a giver of gifts.

Last weekend I preached on the text from the second reading, the Book of Hebrews, reminding us that to be a disciple, one must possess spiritual discipline. We are to look beyond our trials and tribulations, remaining steadfast in faith while relying on the goodness and love of God. In today's second reading, Hebrews, Chapter 12, we are reminded that we are drawn to the mystery of God because of his love and gift of faith. We are not drawn to him out of fear.

A reminder to all F3 (family faith formation) parents/caregivers please enroll your child and verify key contact information at

Franciscan Missions

Annual Mission Sunday Appeal set for September 4

By our baptism, we are all called to be disciples and evangelists. Each year at this time, a mission priest reminds us that, through our prayerful support and financial resources, we can ensure the message of Jesus Christ is carried to nations filled with conflict. As present-day followers of St. Francis of Assisi, the Franciscans continue an 800-year-old mission tradition open to the needs of the time. Today, you can find them in more than 100 countries, responding to the spiritual and material needs of people entrusted to churches care.

Our parish family welcomes Father Joy K. Devassy, OFM (Franciscan Missions), for our annual Mission Sunday Appeal. Father Joy will celebrate and preach all weekend Masses on September 3 and 4, making the yearly archdiocesan missionary appeal to support the work of the Franciscan Missions.

Through your help, the peace of Christ and the mystery of faith the Church professes can be transmitted beyond St. Boniface Parish and St. Meinrad Parish in Spencer County, Indiana, USA. Place your financial gifts to support the mission and ministry of the Franciscan Missionaries in the weekly stewardship collection through the end of September.

Please pray and help support the Franciscan Missions who bring the Gospel message of Jesus who serve the poor and needy in a mission land. Please pray for this Missionary Group's work and provide as you can.

An envelope for the Mission Priest is included in the monthly envelope packet. Please make sure your check is made payable to the parish church, clearly marking in the memo Mission Priest (4032.400). If you use online giving, you can make one-time or recurring gifts using debit cards, credit cards, or eChecks (ACH) using Quick Links.

Youth Group for grades 9-12 begins August 21

High school youth from St. Boniface Parish, St. Meinrad Parish and St. Francis of Assisi Parish are invited to kick off a new year of Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) activities on Sunday, August 21, 2022, at 5:30 p.m., at St. Francis of Assisi Parish, Mary Help of Christians campus in Mariah Hill.

Youth group activities for the kickoff session include an introduction to the YDisciple Program. For the first time, parish youth in grades 9-12 from the three Spencer County parishes will gather as one youth group.

YDisciple sessions will meet on Sundays from 5:30 to 7 p.m., as listed on the F3 schedule available after August 18 at www.sbcatholic.church/f3 or www.smccatholic.church/f3. CYO registration for social, educational and recreational activities is also available after August 18. Please note that the schedule is subject to change due to the availability of location and volunteers, holy day and holiday schedules, and inclement weather.

Session locations will rotate monthly between St. Francis of Assisi Parish's Mary Help of Christians Campus and St. Boniface Parish.

- St. Francis of Assisi Parish: August, October, December, February* (*St. Francis of Assisi Parish's St. Nicholas Campus in Santa Claus)

- St. Boniface Parish: September, November, January, March, April* (*CYO recreational activities)

Plans for this new youth ministry model came from the results of the Connected in the Spirit (CIS) process that started in 2016. CIS helped parishes discern where God is leading the Church in central and southern Indiana and discuss how the Archdiocese of Indianapolis must be open to newfound structures to carry out its mission.

After evaluating the parish-based surveys submitted to the Archdiocesan Planning Committee, as part of the comprehensive report prepared by the parish-based CIS Core Team, plans began to nurture a youth ministry program in collaboration with St. Francis of Assisi Parish.

Dear Padre,

Isn't natural family planning (NFP) a form of birth control? The couple still controls the potential of human life that God may have wanted to create at a particular moment.

Couples who use NFP aren't practicing contraception. By giving themselves completely to one another in body and soul, they're preserving the integrity of the marriage sacrament. In God's design, women are naturally infertile for many days of the menstrual cycle. The marital act during these times promotes bonding and yet is open to new life. There is no sin in abstaining from the marital act. When a husband and wife use NFP appropriately, they share responsibility for living with their combined fertility. Neither spouse takes the other for granted. NFP is a healthy and holistic way to plan for children.

Many couples find that living an NFP lifestyle gives them a better understanding of their fertility, frees them from fear of medical side effects, increases their communication, encourages a greater sense of sharing and a generosity toward life, fosters sexual self-control, and gives them the peace of following their spiritual, religious, cultural, or ethical beliefs. Periodic abstinence encourages couples to focus on aspects of their relationship beyond the physical, resulting in a "honeymoon effect."

NFP's most important benefit is that it enables spouses to live the mutual gift of self that is an essential element of marriage. The Church values marital sexual love. NFP helps couples to be authentic in the expression of that love.

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

Jesus teaches this: "The one who humbles himself will be exalted" (Luke 14:11). God does not exalt us because of our gifts, because of our wealth, or because of our skills, but because of humility. God loves humility. God lifts up those who humble themselves; he lifts up those who serve.
