Coming of Age, Coming of Faith

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

It is said we never become a believer before age thirty-five. I don't think there is anything magical about that age. Some in their seventies still have not yet come to be people of faith, and there are those who, at a very young age, seem to have entrusted their lives to God. What the age of thirty-five does say, however, is that most people need to have lived a while and experienced a few ups and downs to recognize there is a power in their lives greater than themselves.

This week's Gospel story of the man born blind encapsulates a lifelong journey of coming to see who Jesus is, compressed into a few days. When asked who cured him of blindness, the man first says the man Jesus did it. Brought to testify before the Pharisees, he says that Jesus must be a prophet. Confronted by the Pharisees a second time, he testifies that Jesus must be of God. Finally, when he sees Jesus again, he calls him Lord, a name for God. The story is a parable of sorts about how we come to have faith, to see with new and different eyes.

Faith involves trusting, sometimes trusting an unseen Power who feels absent at times; about surrendering control over our lives to God, as we come to see in an entirely new way. It can take a lifetime to begin seeing in such a way. ●

Reflect

Where am I on the journey of faith?
How open are my eyes?

[The man who had been blind] replied, "...One thing I do know is that I was blind and now I see."

PADRE'S POST

Fourth Sunday of Lent

Laetare "Rejoice" Sunday

John 9:1-41

Who or what are you looking for?

Today we celebrate Laetare Sunday, the Fourth Sunday of Lent. As we read from the Gospel of John, Chapter 9, we hear that Jesus cures a man who was born blind. As a result of Jesus' kindness, the man's parents, friends and neighbors reject him, and he is expelled from the synagogue for his insistence that Jesus healed him. In last Sunday's Gospel, Matthew, Chapter 4, we heard Jesus speak with the woman at the well, and as he searched her soul, the woman saw him as a prophet. In today's gospel, this miracle of light happens on the Sabbath.

In this passage, Jesus is identified as the light. As we learn about Jesus, we grow in faith and in our belief that Jesus truly is the Son of God. Jesus invites us to trust in him as he did with the man born blind. It was clear to others that the man born blind was different from other people. Jesus, through his compassion, saw beyond his blindness and brought to light his faith. Questions of why this man was born blind meant nothing to Jesus. Jesus' instruction to go to the pool of Silom – which means sent – was received in faith, and after washing, the man's eyes were opened.

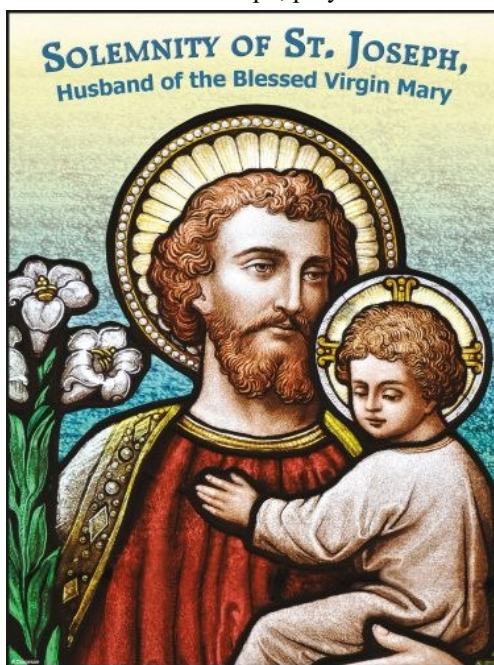

When the man was asked how he gained his sight, the truth fell on deaf ears. To some, it could not have been anything Jesus of Nazareth did. To others, it could not have been the work of God because it occurred on the Sabbath. Our belief in Christ and the Church is found in the Creed. As we grow in our understanding of Scripture and Tradition, our belief in the teachings of the Bible and the Church becomes more and more tangible. As we gather on Sundays and Holy Days for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we pray the Creed stating with one voice what we believe about God.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us, "Believing is possible only by grace and the interior help of the Holy Spirit" (CCC, 154). Our belief in God is strengthened by what we see and experience through our other four senses. For the man born blind, Jesus brought the gift of light to him, illuminating a world yet unseen for him—a world where others had only defined his path. Indeed the man had a reason to rejoice, and when he tried to share this good news, it was rejected. "Jesus makes use of signs to heal...In the Sacraments, Christ continues to touch us in order to heal us" (CCC 1504). Through Baptism and the gift of the Eucharist, we are all called to walk in the light—the light of Christ. St.

Paul writes to the Ephesians in Chapter 5, "Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness, righteousness and truth." I pray that as you continue to deepen your faith during these Lenten days that each person of the Holy Trinity—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—brings life and light to your prayer and work.

Through the intercession of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Virgin Mary, may you and your loved ones know his intercession and protection. The Bible says that Joseph was a righteous man (Matthew, Chapter 1) open to all God wanted to do for and through him. St. Joseph is the Patron of Workers. May the work of our hands be blessed day after day as we offer our prayer and ourselves through our vocations. St. Joseph, pray for us.

(Normally, the Solemnity of St. Joseph is celebrated on March 19. This observance is moved to March 20 in 2023 because of the Fourth Sunday of Lent.)

Remember to look at page 6 of the weekly bulletin for weekly discussion. The questions continue with what you learned about your faith with your catechist and classmates. Also, the "Family Corner" briefly describes the gospel and helps us understand how Scripture and Tradition define us as a Church. Pray the family prayer together and take the weekly challenge inspired by the question of the week.

If you were blind and could suddenly see, who or what would you be most excited to see?

PAX - Father Anthony, OP.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT (LAETARE "REJOICE" SUNDAY)

"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart." - 1 Samuel 16:7

How often do we invest our time, talent and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car and other marks of distinction. But none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into our hearts to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talent and treasure here on earth.

THE MISSION OF OUR PARISH FAMILY

St. Boniface Parish and St. Meinrad Parish exist to nurture an intentional faith-filled Catholic Community which inspires and empowers all people to follow Jesus Christ. We will continue to "Keep our eyes fixed on Jesus" (Hebrews 12:2) by living the Word of God, celebrating the sacraments with meaningful worship, and calling one another to prayer, Christian Service, and fellowship rooted in the living tradition of a rich German-Catholic heritage.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

“Jesus said to her, ‘Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?’” - John 11:40

Many of us say that we believe in God. We attend Sunday Mass and participate in parish events. But when life gets hard and the pressure is on, when things aren't going our way, do we really believe? Do we really put our trust in the Lord? When we live a life of gratitude, recognizing all that we have been given, we really do see that God is providing for our needs. Living a grateful and generous life allows us to see God's active presence in our daily lives and we become "partakers of the divine nature."

THE MISSION OF OUR PARISH FAMILY

St. Boniface Parish and St. Meinrad Parish exist to nurture an intentional faith-filled Catholic Community which inspires and empowers all people to follow Jesus Christ. About the Gospel

Jesus smears mud on a blind man's eyes. When the man washes off the mud, his sight is healed. Some people rejoice that the blind man can see, and others are upset because Jesus broke the Sabbath to heal him.

Visit www.usccb.org/bible/readings to read this Sunday's Scripture.

In Church

Instruct the members of your family to close their eyes for part of the Mass. Encourage them to pay attention to things they can smell, taste, hear, and feel. After Mass, discuss what you observed when you couldn't see.

Family Prayer

God, open our eyes so that we will see you in all of Creation. Amen.

Question of the Week

If you were blind and could suddenly see, who or what would you be most excited to see?

Rincón de la Familia

Acerca del Evangelio

Jesús coloca barro en los ojos de un ciego. ¡Cuando el hombre se lava el barro, puede ver! Algunas personas se alegran de que el ciego pueda ver. Otros están molestos porque, para sanar al hombre, Jesús violó la ley de no trabajar en el día de reposo.

Visita www.usccb.org/bible/lecturas para leer las lecturas de este domingo.

En la iglesia

Pida a los miembros de su familia que cierren los ojos durante parte de la Misa. Anímelos a prestar atención a las cosas que pueden oler, saborear, oír y sentir. Después de la Misa, discutan lo que percibieron cuando no podían ver.

Oración en familia

Dios, abre nuestros ojos para que te veamos en toda la creación. Amén.

Pregunta de la semana

Si estuvieras ciego y pudieras ver de repente, ¿a quién o qué te emocionaría más ver?

A message from Dolores Scherzer

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for all your thoughts and prayers these past few months since undergoing emergency surgery on Christmas Eve at Norton Leatherman Spine Center. Also, thank you for the many cards and meals. Your kindness meant a lot to my family and me. A special note of thanks to all of you who cared for me at area hospitals and in my ongoing care at therapy.

A message from Mike Edwards and Jenny Kunkler

Thank you to our parish family for the expressions of sympathy at the deaths of my brother, Richard William Edwards, Sr. and my father, Jerome Peter "Pete" Kunkler. Your kindness was most appreciated if you sent a card, shared a memory, made a visit or prayed for us. In gratitude – Mike Edwards and Jenny Kunkler

Catholic Relief Services Annual Appeal set for March 19

Join our brothers and sisters throughout the Archdiocese of Indianapolis on Sunday, March 19, 2023, by supporting the Catholic Relief Services Annual Appeal. Please offer your prayerful, vocal and financial support.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on International Justice and Peace (IJP) works with U.S. policy makers, the international Church, and government officials to raise awareness of and enact solutions to conflicts and human rights abuses around the world.

In light of the committee's commitment to religious freedom and conflict resolution, chairman Bishop David Malloy met with Church leaders from the Democratic Republic of Congo who visited with U.S. State Department officials about upcoming provincial and national elections in May 2022 and December 2023, respectively. IJP staff also met with officials from the Church in Nigeria to support their efforts to work with electoral monitoring and education programs.

IJP also served as a convening partner for the second annual International Religious Freedom Summit in Washington, D.C., in late June 2022. More than a thousand attendees from human rights organizations across the United States gathered to build coalitions and hear testimony from survivors of and witnesses to religious persecution, as well as speeches from religious leaders, government officials from both the United States and foreign countries, and activists who work to support the right to religious freedom. IJP's valuable work of building solidarity and advancing human rights is made possible by support from The Catholic Relief Services Collection.

Catholic Relief Services needs your help. Funds from this collection support the work of Catholic organizations that aid victims of war and natural disaster, provide pastoral care to migrant workers, and help welcome refugees fleeing violence and persecution.

By participating in this year's collection, you help the Church reveal Christ's love to people in need around the world and across the country. Thank you for your continued support of this collection. More information about the 2023 Catholic Relief Services can be found at www.usccb.org/national-collection/catholic-relief-services-collection.

An envelope for the Catholic Relief Services is included in the monthly envelope packet. Please make sure your check is made payable to the parish church, clearly marking in the memo line CRS (4023.400). If you use online giving, scan the QR code for the Quick Links to make a one-time or recurring gifts using debit cards, credit cards, or eChecks (ACH).

Increase the impact of your gift through December 31

St. Boniface Parish and St. Meinrad Parish in Spencer County have been selected for the Catholic Community Foundation Inc. Matching Gift Program. Gifts to the parishes' specified endowments (see below) will be matched at 50 cents per dollar raised, up to $20,000. If the $20,000 goal is met, an additional $10,000 will be received from CCF.

St. Boniface Parish – Endowment for Pastoral Ministries
St. Meinrad Parish – Endowment for Facilities and Grounds

Parishes were selected that actively demonstrate strategic and intentional investing for the promotion and growth of existing endowments. The following parishes also qualified for the CCF Matching Gift Program, and are all located below Highway 50: Bloomington, New Albany, Seymour and Tell City Deaneries including St. Vincent de Paul, Bedford; Our Lady of Perpetual Help, New Albany; St. Michael's, Charlestown; and St. Francis Xavier, Henryville.

Gifts received through December 31, 2023, are eligible for the matching gift program and can made in cash or through a will, trust or estate.

As you make plans to purchase a gift for a loved one this Christmas, remember to add your parish to the list. Check with your financial advisor or instruct your IRA custodian to make a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) from an IRA directly to your parish.

A QCD remains a great way to make a tax-free gift directly to your parish or other qualified 501(c)(3) organization, including established local funds (managed by the Catholic Community Foundation Inc. [CCF] and the Community Foundation Alliance of Perry and Spencer Counties). IRA owners must be 70½ years old. In recent years, some parishioners have adopted this practice to meet their annual stewardship obligations – a yearly tax-free gift to support parish ministries, programs and activities. Some, too, have taken their QCD designated as a perpetual gift to one or more parish endowments.

Please make your check made payable to the parish church, clearly marking the Endowment name on the memo line.

Communal Celebration of the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick scheduled for March 15, 2023

Communal Anointing of the Sick will be on Wednesday, March 15, 2023, during the 4:15 p.m. Mass at St. Meinrad Parish. After a brief homily, individuals wishing to receive this sacrament are asked to move to the end of the pew along the center aisle. The infirm and individuals needing assistance seated in the first pew on either side will receive this sacrament first. For more information about receiving this sacrament, visit <https://smcatholic.church/anointing-of-the-sick>.

Anointing of the Sick is a sacrament of healing. The idea behind this sacrament is that we are all members of the body of Christ. When one of us suffers, all of us suffer, and all of God's creation suffers with us.

A parishioner or caregiver is strongly encouraged to contact the parish office and speak with a staff member to request a priest visit their home to receive this sacrament if their particular situation does not allow for the communal celebration of this sacrament. Please also notify the parish office if you are ill, shut-in, entering the hospital or a have recently moved to a long-term care center.

The sacrament of anointing may be repeated:

- When the sick person recovers after being anointed and becomes sick again at a later time.
- When, during the same illness, the condition of the sick person becomes more serious.
- In the case of a person who is chronically ill or elderly and in a weakened condition, the sacrament of anointing may be repeated when in the pastoral judgment of the priest the condition of the sick person warrants the repetition of the sacrament. (Pastoral Care of the Sick, No. 102)

If you require a priest due to severe illness or death at anytime, call the archabbey switchboard at: (812) 357-6611.

Be prepared to leave a message with the attendant, including your name, location and contact information. Father Anthony or the priest on call will respond as soon as possible. Please do not call or text Father Anthony's mobile phone.

Dear Padre,

Why should I bother to be more religious? I'm a good person. Isn't that enough to get me into heaven?

When asked for advice about how people should decide on a vocation, St. Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits, said they should do an imagination exercise. "Imagine that you are on your deathbed," he said. "From that point of view what would you wish you had done in your life?" That is still good advice.

Here's another exercise: Imagine you have a grandmother who is completely generous and caring toward you. Throughout your childhood, she was always there for you. But as a teen you belittled her and, in effect, told her that all she had offered is worthless to you. In a saner moment, won't you feel terrible about how you treated her?

Our life with God is much the same. God has given us absolutely everything, from our existence to every breath we take. God has also given us a way to know him through his Son, Jesus (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 73). And one way we know Jesus is through the Church and the celebration of the sacraments (CCC 1085). To refuse these gifts, to say, "I am already a good person. I don't need these gifts from God" is a bit presumptuous, don't you think?

To be "religious" is not just an outward show of piety. It's the way we have been given to learn God's language: the language of forgiveness, of faith, hope, and love. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

We complain about things that are wrong in society, in the Church, in the world, without first questioning ourselves....Every fruitful, positive change must begin from ourselves. If we are blind, we cannot claim to be guides and teachers for others: indeed, a blind person cannot lead another blind person....
