When Will We Be Satisfied?

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

In 1992, Forbes magazine published an issue titled “Why Do We Feel So Bad When We Have It So Good?” It featured articles by such luminaries as newsman Dan Rather, President George H. W. Bush, and author John Updike. Many of the writers reflected upon our passion for more and our hunger to live in affluence and how that fails to satisfy. In so many ways, we as a nation find ourselves seeking distractions from living with ourselves lest we be confronted by our ultimate loneliness. As a nation we are addicted to entertainment and smartphones, to drugs and pornography, to finding something new. We are confronted by rising suicide rates and a pervasive, deep-seated anger. Why are we not satisfied?

John the Baptist called the people of his day to repent, which is another way of asking them—and us—to look at life differently. Advent is really about getting in touch with our deep longing for more, a part of our human condition that ultimately is only satisfied by God. We have been created to long for more, a longing that feels like loneliness, a longing that seeks to be satisfied. In the end, we can only find a sense of peace in the midst of such longing by accepting that it can never be fully satisfied in this life. Like the spirituality of Alcoholics Anonymous, accepting rather than fleeing from our human reality becomes a path to new life. ●

Reflect

How do you deal with loneliness and a longing for more out of life?

John [the] Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

A Catholic parish is the single most important part of our Catholic Church. A parish is where parishioners - the people - continue the mission of Jesus Christ. Our parish family exists to nurture an intentional faith-filled Catholic Community that inspires and empowers all people to follow Jesus Christ. We would love to have you as a parish family member if you are new to the area. If you have remained under your parent's membership, but now you are an adult, we encourage you to register independently. You may come to the parish office during office hours and register in person or contact us using the QR code, so we have a way to welcome you.

Padre's Post

A precursor's invitation: Preparing the way in Advent

Mark 1:1-8

Second Sunday of Advent (5)

F3 Question of the Week

F3 Families and Caregivers, please read The Gospel for All Ages on page 6 of the bulletin to learn more about today's Gospel.

This page features questions from this week's student session, where your student learned more about their Catholic faith.

I encourage each of you to continue to learn about your faith as a family and together pray the Family Prayer and take the weekly challenge.

How does your family prepare for Christmas?

Today we meet John the Baptist as an adult, and he is announcing the coming of Jesus. His twofold message is clear: that we must repent, and that when Jesus comes, He will baptize – not with water, but with the Holy Spirit. During these days of Advent, we are called to pray that we uncover the wisdom of this season.

In last week's gospel, we heard that we must be vigilant and alert. We are being called to return to the basics of our faith, the Church's gifts, as we prepare to welcome Jesus.

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church: "St. John the Baptist is the Lord's immediate precursor or forerunner, sent to prepare his way. 'Prophet of the Most High,' John surpasses all the prophets, of whom he is the last. He inaugurates the Gospel, already from his mother's womb welcomes the coming of Christ, and rejoices in being 'the friend of the bridegroom,' whom he points out as 'the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.' Going before Jesus 'in the spirit and power of Elijah,' John bears witness to Christ in his preaching, by his Baptism of conversion, and through his martyrdom." (CCC 523)

"John is 'Elijah [who] must come.' The fire of the Spirit dwells in him and makes him the forerunner of the coming Lord. In John, the precursor, the Holy Spirit completes the work of '[making] ready a people prepared for the Lord.'" (CCC 718)

John the Baptist is Jesus' cousin. We first learn about him when he leaps in his mother Elizabeth's womb when the Blessed Virgin Mary visits. (Luke 1:39-56)

As the final prophet, John the Baptist calls us to turn away from fear, sin, and discouragement to actively pursue with a sense of personal responsibility the virtues of faith, hope, and love. The Catechism uses the word "precursor" to describe John the Baptist's role. That word is from the word "cursor," which is derived from the Latin word cursor, meaning runner.

As many of our F3 students learned in their session this week under the STEM (science, technology, engineering, and math) activity, "cursor" was chosen for the mouse icon that today we use on a computer. A cursor was originally used to describe a part on a slide rule.

"Precursor" is another word for "forerunner," which perfectly describes John's role in inviting the faithful to get ready for Jesus' coming.

Through the journey of Exodus, God opened a pathway – just as He does today. As we gather for prayer and worship, together as the Body of Christ, we, too, are making the journey toward Christ revealed in the Nativity. It is time to examine our conscience and rearrange our hearts to remove any obstacles to freedom and compassion. We need to clear away any distractions from making our way to the manger.

As we begin the second week of Advent – lighting the second candle on our Advent wreath, which signifies Peace – let us continue to pray for peace to reign in our hearts and throughout the world, especially in places undergoing political distress, war, and famine.

Penance Service: As is our custom, we will celebrate an Advent penance service at St. Boniface Parish on Wednesday, December 13, at 6:30 p.m. F3 students in grades 2 through 9 and their families are required to be present. This is one of the F3 student sessions. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to make use of the Sacrament of Reconciliation during this season of preparation.

We welcome confessors from Dubois, Spencer, and Perry counties. Stations will be located throughout the church; all are set up

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

"Prepare the way of the Lord..." - Mark 1:3

We are all called to live a holy life. We are all called to invite others to live holy lives. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful, and generous with our gifts puts us on the path to holiness and is an example for others to be holy too. We are responsible not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. How are you helping others get to Heaven?

THE MISSION OF OUR PARISH FAMILY

St. Boniface Parish and St. Meinrad Parish exist to nurture an intentional faith-filled Catholic Community which inspires and empowers all people to follow Jesus Christ. We will continue to "Keep our eyes fixed on Jesus" (Hebrews 12:2) by living the Word of God, celebrating the sacraments with meaningful worship, and calling one another to prayer, Christian Service, and fellowship rooted in the living tradition of a rich German-Catholic heritage.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT (GAUDETE SUNDAY)

"Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus."

- Thessalonians 5:16

This scripture reading sums up Stewardship. "Rejoice always" means place your trust in God; He will provide all that you need. "Pray constantly" means prayer should be a running conversation with God throughout the whole day, every day. "Give thanks in all circumstances" means even in bad situations, thank God. Suffering a little bit helps build empathy for others in similar situations and shows our dependence on God.

THE MISSION OF OUR PARISH FAMILY

Family Corner

About the Gospel

John the Baptist baptized with water as a symbol that the people were leaving their old, sinful ways behind. He was preparing them for when Jesus would baptize them with the Holy Spirit and change them forever by his sacrifice on the Cross.

Visit www.usccb.org/bible/readings to read this Sunday's Scripture.

In Church

If you are tempted to talk during Mass, remain silent and focus on preparing your heart for God.

Question of the Week

How does your family prepare for Christmas?

Family Prayer

Lord, please help us to prepare not only for Christmas celebrations, but also for your arrival in our hearts. Amen.

Rincón de la Familia

Acerca del Evangelio

Juan Bautista bautizó con agua como símbolo de que la gente estaba dejando atrás sus viejos caminos del pecado. Los estaba preparando para cuando Jesús los bautizara con el Espíritu Santo y los cambiara para siempre por medio de su sacrificio en la Cruz.

Visita www.usccb.org/bible/lecturas para leer las lecturas de este domingo.

En la iglesia

Si te tienta hablar durante la Misa, permanece en silencio y enfócate en preparar tu corazón para Dios.

Pregunta de la semana

¿Cómo se prepara tu familia para la Navidad?

Oración en familia

Señor, ayúdanos a prepararnos no solo para las celebraciones de Navidad, sino también para tu llegada a nuestro corazón. Amén.

2024 Catholic Extension Calendars Now Available in Parishes

Copies of the 2024 Catholic Extension calendar are now available at several locations: Monte Cassino Shrine, Saint Meinrad Archabbey Guest House and Retreat Center and in pews at St. Meinrad Catholic Church in St. Meinrad and Historic St. Boniface Catholic Church in Fulda.

Parishioners who are caregivers of homebound parishioners are encouraged to pick up a calendar for them.

The calendar, called "Feasts and Saints," is a spectacular visual journey through our liturgical year, using art and images to celebrate the major feasts and beloved saints (new and old) of Roman Catholicism.

Catholic Extension connects poor and remote Catholic communities with essential financial support, educational partnerships, and infrastructure. It is the only producer of Catholic calendars that gives 100% of the proceeds to help fund grants that benefit poor mission dioceses where faith is thriving, but the resources are scarce.

Two ad spots are available if you or your business would be interested in sponsoring next year's calendar. Each business-card-size ad is $750. Deadline is March 1, 2024. For more information, contact Ms. Tina Boehm, Finance and Resource Coordinator, from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Wednesday at finance@myparishfamily.church or 812-357-6050.

There will be no formal closing to the service, and younger students can be picked up at the usual entrance at the regular time. For a complete list of local Advent penance services, see the item on Page 9.

Calendars and Blue Books: We have ordered more copies of The Little Blue Book for Advent and Christmas Seasons, as well as the Advent book for kids. The 2024 calendar, "Faith and Saints" is also available to pick up in the usual places in the churches. I encourage you to take one home and perhaps bring one to a homebound parishioner or neighbor.

We are seeking two sponsors ($750 each) for next year's calendar.

If you or your business is interested, please contact Tina Boehm in the Parish Office at 812-357-6050.

I continue to be grateful to those who are contacting me to help build back the many ministries we have in our parishes. I have been gradually inviting people to consider becoming involved in a ministry, so that we have, to use a sports term, a "strong bench" to fill in as people travel or take care of other commitments.

Looking Ahead: I would like to encourage each of you, as you consider New Year's resolutions, to make a spiritual resolution for next year. Perhaps there is a gift or talent you can share with your parish as you move into the coming year.

Be assured of my continued prayers as we celebrate the season of Advent. As we ask God's blessing upon our families, let us continue to be mindful and generous to those in need. May our hearts be open to the gift and mystery God has revealed, bringing salvation as promised through Emmanuel.

PAX - Father Anthony, O.S.B.

New Assistive Hearing Devices Available at Parishes

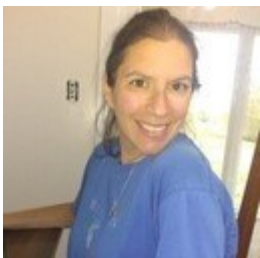

Do you have a problem hearing at Mass? Is it difficult to make out the words of the homily? For those who need hearing assistance at Mass, St. Boniface and St. Meinrad parishes provide Listen audio devices.

The newest version is rechargeable and features a smaller receiver. An assistive listening system transmits audio directly from the source to the listener's ear without amplifying ambient noise.

If you have an older assistive listening device and wish to trade it in for the newer version, please contact Dione Jarboe, Administrative Coordinator, at the Parish Office at 812-357-6051. # MAKE YOUR END-OF-YEAR GIVING PLANS

Still Time for #GivingTuesday

#GivingTuesday is a worldwide day dedicated to giving back and celebrating generosity.

Built on the gratitude felt during the Thanksgiving holiday and following the consumer-centered events of Black Friday and Cyber Monday, #GivingTuesday takes place on the Tuesday after Thanksgiving – this year the date is Tuesday, November 28, 2023.

To learn more, visit <https://sbcatholic.church/giving-Tuesday/> or <https://smcatholic.church/giving-Tuesday/>.

Year-End Gift Planning for Individuals Age 73 and Above

As you make plans to purchase gifts for your loved one this Christmas, please remember your parish in your planning. Check with your financial advisor to see how this might affect you even without a Required Minimum Distribution (RMD).

A qualified certified distribution (QCD) remains a great way to make a tax-free gift to your parish or other qualified 501(c)(3) organizations, including the established local funds (managed by the Catholic Community Foundation and the Community Foundation Alliance of Perry and Spencer Counties).

Beginning in 2023, the age for taking a Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) begins at 73.

In recent years, some parishioners have adopted this practice to meet their annual stewardship obligations – a yearly tax-free gift to support parish ministries, programs and activities. Some, too, have taken their QCD to designate it as a perpetual gift to one or more parish endowments – to support the ongoing and future pastoral ministries, long-term care of the church building or cemetery.

For more information or a confidential conversation about QCD, contact Tina Boehm, Finance Coordinator, St. Boniface Parish and St. Meinrad Parish, at 812-357-6050.

Information to share with your financial advisor for Qualified Certified Distribution (QCD).

COMMISSION SPOTLIGHT

Heritage, Fundraising and Marketing Commissions

History literally lines the walls in St. Boniface and St. Meinrad parishes. Within these liturgical spaces, our families have worshipped for generations. We have welcomed newcomers of various backgrounds and handed on our faith, even as it was handed down to us from our ancestors in the faith. Our story is part of who we are, and we must not forget it, but must share it with the Church universal.

Our Heritage, Fundraising and Marketing Commissions serve as the keepers of our story; they are in charge of continuing to build the narrative of our story, drawing attention to it through a variety of new and old media, and discerning and discovering resources and relationships that better enable us to keep our heritage strong and our facilities sturdy, so we can transmit our story to our children and our children's children.

The men and women of this commission animate the annual celebrations of our parishes, patronal saints and their feast days: St. Boniface and St. Meinrad.

Commission chairpersons are selected from among its commission members and serve on the pastoral council for one three-year term. They are eligible to be renominated for an additional one-year term. Commission terms begin in July and end in June.

Dear Padre,

Do Catholics have to marry in the Church? If a couple decides to marry outside of the Church, are they still allowed to receive Communion and other sacraments?

Catholics are obligated to follow the laws of the Church, including those laws regarding marriage. If a Catholic marries outside the Church, meaning that they did not follow Church law, then they may not receive the other sacraments until their marriage has been witnessed by the Church.

A wedding is a sacred ceremony for the couple, but it is also a ceremony for the Church. The Christian community is called upon to witness the ceremony, with the bishop, priest, or deacon called upon to bless the union in the name of the Church. The Church can dispense from the form, that is, the place of the wedding, for good cause, and does so when necessary. When a dispensation from the law is granted, then the person has followed the marriage laws of the Church and is free to receive the sacraments.

A wedding is a sacred ceremony in which a sacrament is conferred. While the park may be pretty or the church down the street may be bigger, neither is a sufficient reason to ignore marriage law and marry outside the Church. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

In the Bible [conversion] means, first and foremost, to change direction and orientation; and thus also to change one's way of thinking. In the moral and spiritual life, to convert means to turn oneself from evil to good, from sin to love of God. And this is what the Baptist was teaching.
