Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Isaiah 49:3, 5–6 / 1 Corinthians 1:1–3 / John 1:29–34

Behold the Lamb of God!

ANN M. GARRIDO

Of the many names Scripture provides to help us ponder the mystery of Jesus, one of the most intriguing is the name that John the Baptist offers at the opening of today's gospel: "Behold the Lamb of God!" (John 1:29).

Scripture scholars debate what John means here. Is he alluding to the Passover lamb—that unblemished lamb whose blood the enslaved Israelites were to post over their doorways? The angel of death knew to "pass over" these homes. Perhaps John was saying that by Jesus' blood, the people would be freed from death.

Or was John thinking about the guilt offerings mentioned in the Hebrew Scriptures when priests offered animal sacrifices to God as a way of seeking the removal of their sins? Leviticus mentions use of a scapegoat who would carry the sins of the people away into the desert. (See Leviticus 20–28.) Could John have understood that Jesus would bear the sins of the world?

Or did John have in mind the great constellation Aries, the ram, considered the prince of the stars of the sky, the center from whom all the other constellations were mapped in ancient times? Perhaps John was pointing out that Jesus was the center around whom heaven and earth revolve, like the ruling lamb mentioned in the Book of Revelation.

Today at Mass, when the host is elevated and you hear John's words again—"Behold the Lamb of God!"—take a moment to savor these words anew. ●

Pope Leo XIV's Prayer Intention

January: For prayer with the Word of God

O Lord Jesus Christ, open the eyes of my heart that I may hear your Word, and understand and do your will, for I am a sojourner upon the Earth.

Hide not your commandments from me, but open my eyes, that I may perceive the wonders of your Law. Speak unto me the hidden and secret things of your wisdom.

On you do I set my hope, O my God, that you shall enlighten my mind and understanding with the light of your knowledge; not only to cherish those things which are written, but to do them; For you are the enlightenment of those who lie in darkness, and from you comes every good deed and every gift. Amen.

Those wishing to participate in this sacramental celebration can get in line as if receiving Communion. The infirm and individuals needing assistance seated in the first two rows will receive the blessing first. The Feast of the Presentation of Our Lord, also called Candlemas, will be celebrated on Monday, February 2, so candles used for liturgical celebrations during the coming year will be blessed at the 4:15 p.m. Mass at St. Boniface.

A Lenten retreat, led by Fr. Kolbe Wolniakowski, OSB, invites participants to journey deeper into the heart of the Gospel through the transforming wisdom of the Beatitudes. The series is designed to guide participants in reflecting on Jesus' Sermon on the Mount as a roadmap for authentic discipleship.

Each session will explore one or two Beatitudes in depth, connecting their spiritual richness to daily life. ## PASTOR'S LETTER

Sunday Scripture Commentary by Father Paul Nord, OSB

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

First Reading: Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

Response: Psalm 40: 2, 4, 7-10

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:1-3

Gospel: John 1:29-34

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, This Sunday, we celebrate the Feast Day of St. Meinrad. Directly after the 8:30 a.m. Mass at St. Meinrad Parish, we will host a breakfast at the St. Meinrad Community Center. All are welcome. My thanks to all who are helping organize, set up, serve, and clean up for this celebratory parish breakfast.

We ask for the intercession of our parish's patron, St. Meinrad, that he may intercede for both of our parishes. Through our faith in Jesus Christ, may we receive grace to love as Christ loves. May we imitate St. Meinrad in providing loving hospitality for stranger and guest.

The exact feast day of Saint Meinrad is January 21 (Wednesday). You are welcome to join my brother monks for Mass (9:30 a.m.) or Vespers (5 p.m.) in the Archabbey Church on that day – or also 5 p.m. Vespers on January 20 (Tuesday) eve of the feast.

Within this bulletin (page 6) is information on a job opening for an Administrative Assistant for our two parishes. Please share this information with any family or friends that you think may be interested in the position. The position is open both to candidates who belong to our parishes, and those who do not.

As the bulletin item says, "This position serves as a key point of contact for parish staff, parishioners, and visitors." Our two parishes will greatly benefit from finding good candidates for this position. My abundant thanks to parish volunteers who have been keeping everything functioning as I've been getting "settled in" as pastor these past few months.

Isiah 49:1-6 is known as the second (of four) "Suffering Servant Songs" found in Isaiah.

"The LORD said to me: 'You are my servant, Israel, through whom I show my glory.'" We might think that this phrase identifies the "servant" as the people of Israel, but this is contradicted by the following line: "It is too little, the LORD says, for you to be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and restore the survivors of Israel."

Although it is a "lesser" part of the servant's mission, God commissions the "servant" to "restore the survivors of Israel." Thus the "servant" is apparently the prophet (author of this text), not Israel. But the role of Israel in God's plan is closely integrated with the mission of God's "servant" – the prophet.

For example, God promises to "show my glory" through his "servant" the prophet, but God also shows his glory through the people of Israel as a whole. Indeed, God gives the prophet a mission to "raise up" and "restore" the people of Israel for this purpose: that God might show his glory through his people. If Israel returns to faithful obedience in their covenant with God, then God's glory will shine through them.

Isaiah 49:1-6 also emphasizes that the Lord has prepared the servant for his mission since before his birth. Verse 49:1 says this twice in parallel phrases: "Before birth the LORD called me, from my mother's womb he gave me my name." Verse 49:5 says this a third time: "Now the LORD has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb."

God promises his servant: "I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth." The text describes this as the "greater" part of the servant's mission. In its original context, it is the prophet whom God will make "a light to the nations." But the early Church recognized that followers of Jesus

Chapter 16

The Kingdom of God

Jesus invites us to be part of the Kingdom of God.

Chapter Summary

In the parable of the mustard seed, we learn that the Kingdom of God grew like a mustard seed. The Church is the seed of the Kingdom of God on earth (see CCC 541). All of those in Heaven who have come before us are also part of the Kingdom of God. The Church grew all over the world just from Twelve Apostles. Every time someone is baptized, that person is filled with God's life and the Church continues to grow. As baptized Catholics, we are part of the Kingdom of God. The Kingdom of God also grows in our hearts as we learn to love God and one another more and more.

More for Parents

We hear a lot about the Kingdom of God in the prayers of the Church and in the Gospels, but many do not know how to bring that into everyday family life. The truth is, there is no better place than the home to teach about and form the Kingdom of God. The home is a school of Christian love where we can daily practice the fundamental ways of living the kingdom: forgiveness, honesty, self-sacrifice, humility, and small, steady growth in virtue. Through daily prayers, regular reading of the Bible—especially the Gospels—and participation in the life of the Church, we can follow the teachings of Christ our King. These may not seem out of the ordinary or heroic, but they are the necessary, daily work that nourishes the seed of faith in our lives and our children's lives. What steps can you take to build the Kingdom of God in your family?

Our Family Prays Together

Dear God, You have come to tell us Your kingdom is here! You are Christ our King! Help us let the kingdom grow in our hearts. Amen.

Let's Talk about It as a Family

- Jesus told us that the Kingdom of God grows like a _____. (Mustard seed.)
- What is the Kingdom of God on earth? (The Church.)
- Does the Church grow when people are baptized? (Yes.)
- What are some ways that we can help God's kingdom grow? (Telling people about Jesus's love, acting like Jesus did, helping those in need, etc.)
- Who are some of the leaders of the Catholic Church? (Priests, bishops, the pope.)
- What grows in our hearts like a mustard seed? (God's love.)

Let's Live Our Faith

If we are part of the Kingdom of God on earth, we should take care of all God's people, including the poor, the lonely, and the elderly. When we help the poor, the lonely, and the elderly, we are helping the Kingdom of God grow.

- Discuss with your family the ways that you can show love to the poor, the lonely, and the elderly.

Family Faith Activities

Choose one or more of the following to do as a family:

- Nurture the virtue of love in your family through example. Choose any of the above ideas you came up with in the discussion to do as a Sunday family activity.
- Include the poor, the lonely, and the elderly in your family prayers.
- Read and discuss the Small Wonders story as a family by going to the parent portal.

Christ had become "a light to the nations."

For example, Isaiah 49:6 is quoted by Paul and Barnabas in Acts 13 to justify their proclamation of Christ's Gospel to the Gentiles – all peoples – not just to their own Jewish people. Acts 13:46-47 says: "Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, 'It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you [fellow Jews] first, but since you reject it and condemn yourselves as unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, 'I have made you a light to the Gentiles, so that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.'"

By following Jesus Christ, Paul and Barnabas have become "a light to the nations." In Matthew 5:14, Jesus similarly says to his disciples: "You are the light of the world."

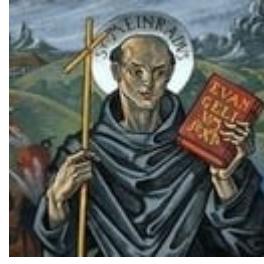

Also, St. Paul quotes Isaiah 49:8 in 2 Corinthians 6:2: "Working together, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. For he says: 'In an acceptable time I heard you, and on the day of salvation I helped you.' Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation." Here Paul describes his own ministry, in which Paul announces that Jesus Christ has brought "the day of salvation" through his death and resurrection. Paul teaches the Corinthians that the prophecy of Isaiah 49:1-13 is fulfilled by Jesus Christ.

Our second reading is the beginning of Paul's first letter to the Corinthians. Paul describes himself as "an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God." Here Paul defends his authority as an apostle sent by God to proclaim the Gospel. Paul continues this theme in 1 Cor 9:1-6 and in 1 Cor 15:8-9: "Last of all... [Christ] appeared to me. For I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God."

Paul names "Sosthenes" as his co-sender of this letter. Calling Sosthenes "our brother" indicates that he is a disciple of Christ. This could be the same Sosthenes mentioned in Acts 18:17: "They all seized Sosthenes, the synagogue official, and beat him in full view of the tribunal." This event is placed in Corinth.

Paul addresses his letter to "the church of God that is in Corinth," which he describes as "called to be holy." Later (1 Cor 3:3), Paul tells the Corinthians: "you are still of the flesh. While there is jealousy and rivalry among you, are you not of the flesh?"

Paul is calling upon the Corinthians to grow in holiness. Paul completes his greeting: "Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." This is similar to Paul's opening greeting in his other letters.

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist points to Jesus, saying: "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." Many commentators connect this to the unblemished lamb slaughtered for the Passover feast.

But John's words might have additional significances. First, Isaiah 53:7 says: "Though harshly treated, he submitted and did not open his mouth; Like a lamb led to slaughter or a sheep silent before shearers, he did not open his mouth." This comes from the fourth "Suffering Servant Song."

Early Christians understood this prophecy to be fulfilled by Jesus Christ. For example, in Acts 8:32-33, Philip demonstrates to an Ethiopian eunuch that this exact Isaiah passage refers to Jesus Christ. Second, certain apocalyptic texts (Testament of Joseph 19.8; 1 Enoch 90.38) describe a messianic figure (who appears at the end of this age) as an "apocalyptic lamb."

John identifies Jesus as "the Lamb of God" because John had witnessed "the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon [Jesus]." John had received a revelation from God that this sign would identify "the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit." God is acting in a new way in Christ – abundantly pouring his Spirit upon men and women.

In Christ Jesus,
Father Paul, OSB

Dear Padre,

I thought only priests and bishops should distribute Holy Communion at Mass. In my parish, the priest allows laypeople to help him, and I thought laypeople couldn't because our hands are not consecrated.

You're not the only person with this concern, so thank you for taking the time to write. The distribution of holy Communion has nothing to do with "consecrated hands." Ordinary ministers of Communion include bishops and priests, as you rightly identify, but also deacons and installed acolytes. Of the four ordinary ministers, only the hands of bishops and priests are consecrated. Laypeople are extraordinary ministers and are installed to help the priest so that everyone can receive holy Communion without long lines or wearying the (sometimes elderly) priest. Most extraordinary ministers of Communion approach this ministry very prayerfully.

Your question brings up the subject of the full participation of the laity in the Mass, which is part of a highly contentious theological discussion on social media. There is an unfortunate conflict between so-called "traditional Catholics" and "Vatican II Catholics" or, as they are often misrepresented, "Novus Ordo" Catholics. Some Catholics are led to believe that the "new Mass" is not authentic, even though it has been the ordinary form of the Mass for well over fifty years—that is, since the authoritative Second Vatican Council. Many good and faithful people suffer with doubt and anxiety as a result of this confusion. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Ours is a time marked by a growing search for spirituality, particularly evident in young people, who are longing for authentic relationships and guides in life. Hence, it is important that the Christian community be farsighted in discerning the challenges of today's world and in nurturing the desire for faith present in the heart of every man and woman.
