Judged or Invited?

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSSR

Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matthew 3:2) is the message preached by Jesus after the arrest of John the Baptist. It is important to place this message in context. Jesus is not repeating the preaching of the Baptist. His message is unique and compelling.

Look closely at what Jesus is saying. Do not automatically fill in the blanks with the memories of every sermon you have heard. Try to hear Jesus' words again, for the first time. Is the emphasis on "repent," or is the emphasis on the announcement, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand"? Does it make any difference?

Repeat these words and change the emphasis each time. Play with the words. Let the words play with you. Notice how you respond. Notice what makes a difference. Notice how you react, and, most of all, notice whether you feel invited or you feel judged.

The Baptist made no bones about it. You are being judged: "Even now the ax lies at the root of the trees" (Matthew 3:10). Jesus, on the other hand, seems not to judge but to invite: "for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matthew 4:17).

In the invitation, we are challenged to see in a different way. Use different skills. Refrain from automatic judgments. Seek to understand but, most of all, to accept and to love. ●

A threat or an invitation?

Pope Leo XIV's Prayer Intention

January: For prayer with the Word of God

O Lord Jesus Christ, open the eyes of my heart that I may hear your Word, and understand and do your will, for I am a sojourner upon the Earth.

Hide not your commandments from me, but open my eyes, that I may perceive the wonders of your Law. Speak unto me the hidden and secret things of your wisdom.

On you do I set my hope, O my God, that you shall enlighten my mind and understanding with the light of your knowledge; not only to cherish those things which are written, but to do them; For you are the enlightenment of those who lie in darkness, and from you comes every good deed and every gift. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The parishes of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis will take up the annual Collection for the Church in Latin America, on January 24-25, 2026. For more than 50 years, this collection has given Catholics in the United States an opportunity to share faith in unity with our brothers and sisters in Christ throughout Latin America and the Caribbean Islands.

The year 2025 marked the 60th anniversary of the promulgation of Dei Verbum, the document on Divine Revelation issued during the Second Vatican Council. In that document the Council Fathers call for all Christian faithful to have “easy access to Sacred Scripture” so that they might more deeply know and love God through understanding and meditating on the Scriptures (no. 22).

To commemorate this important anniversary and help the bishops fulfill their mission to proclaim the Word of God to all people, the Catholic Biblical Federation used funds received through the Collection for the Church in Latin America to gather 130 participants for a Bible conference in Mexico City. This gathering of pastoral ministry leaders from countries throughout Latin America came together to discuss the teachings of Dei Verbum and for the opportunity to collaborate with and encourage one another in the critical ministry of making the Word of God available to everyone.

Your support of the Collection for the Church in Latin America helps church leaders throughout Central and South America and the Caribbean to fulfill their mission to preach the Word of God and to awaken a love for Scripture. Please be as generous as you are able.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

+ Charles C. Thompson

Sunday Scripture Commentary by Father Paul Nord, OSB

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

First Reading: Isaiah 8:23 - 9:3

Response: Psalm 27: 1, 4, 13-14

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:10-13

Gospel: Matthew 4:12-23

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, Starting the weekend of 31 January – February 1, the Sacrament of Confession will be offered at St. Meinrad Church from 7:45 to 8:15 a.m. Sundays (preceding the 8:30 a.m. Sunday Mass). Confessions will no longer be offered at 12:15 to 1 p.m. on Saturdays. But Confession will continue to be offered at two other times: Saturdays 3:15 to 3:45 p.m. at St. Boniface (before the 4 p.m. Saturday Vigil Mass). Also on Wednesdays from 3:30 to 4:00 p.m. at St. Meinrad during Eucharistic Adoration. See the bulletin calendar for more information.

During Wednesday Faith Formation, we have been offering Eucharistic Adoration at St. Boniface, but that will be discontinued starting January 28.

Discontinuing this will free me (Fr. Paul) to be present to the youth during faith formation. I thank those who came to pray before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. We will continue to offer Eucharistic Adoration from 3 to 4 p.m. Wednesdays at St. Meinrad Church (before the 4:15 p.m. Wednesday Mass). Bulletin page 6 has information on a job opening for an Administrative Assistant for our two parishes. Please share this information with any family or friends. Bulletin page 5 has information on the Blessing of Throats, which will be offered at the end of Mass next weekend (31 Jan – 1 Feb), asking for the intercession of St. Blaise.

The Feast of the Presentation of Our Lord, also called Candlemas, will be celebrated on Monday, February 2. This feast ends the Christmas season, and so Christmas decorations will be put away. Many thanks to all who helped with Christmas decorations

Today's Isaiah reading immediately precedes the famous verse Isaiah 9:5: "For a child is born to us, a son is given to us; upon his shoulder dominion rests. They name him Wonder-Counselor, God-Hero, Father-Forever, Prince of Peace." This prophecy announces that God is acting to save his people through a messianic figure.

The Israelites badly needed God's salvation. The prophet Isaiah lived while Kings Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah ruled in Jerusalem (cf. Isaiah 1:1). During this time, the Assyrian Empire attacked and conquered the "Northern Kingdom," which was composed of the 10 Israelite tribes that had separated themselves from Judah and its capital Jerusalem.

Our reading begins: "First the Lord degraded the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali." These were two of the northernmost Israelite tribes, which had faced the destruction of the Assyrian army. "But in the end he has glorified the seaward road, the land west of the Jordan, the District of the Gentiles." This is a bad translation. Fortunately, a better, revised Biblical translation is approved to begin use for Mass readings in 2027.

The new (NABRE) translation accurately reads: "now he has glorified the way of the Sea, the land across [east of] the Jordan, Galilee of the Nations" (Isa. 8:23). This describes three regions that were conquered by the Assyrians. Many Gentile inhabitants moved into these regions and intermixed with those Israelites who remained after the Assyrian conquest.

So, the Lord "degraded" (NRSV: "brought into contempt") the Israelites, but now He "has glorified" the Israelites. God redeems his people after the devastation of the Assyrian conquest. The theme continues: "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone."

This imagery communicates the "abundant joy" and "great rejoicing" that the Lord God has brought the Israelites. The Israelites' joy is motivated by the

FAMILY FAITH

Chapter 17: Jesus' Miracles Show Us He Is God

Jesus has risen from the dead.

Chapter Summary

Mary Magdalene went to Jesus' tomb, and an angel announced that Jesus had risen from the dead; we call this the Resurrection. Forty days later, Jesus ascended into Heaven; we call this the Ascension. Jesus will come again at the end of time; this is known as the Second Coming. Jesus is our King, who conquered sin and death. Through Jesus' Death and Resurrection, we share in a new life of grace, which is a share in the divine life of God Himself. Jesus commissioned the Apostles to baptize and teach the Good News.

More for Parents

It can be challenging to talk about the Resurrection with children. For starters, it is beyond the realm of human experience! So, how can this very pivotal truth be more tangible to our children? As parents, you can remind your children how happy you are that because of God's mercy, families can be together forever in Heaven. We'll also be with our friends, relatives, and all the saints who departed in faith. Give your kids a big hug and remind them that God loves them. He loves them so much that He gives them the grace they need to be holy so they can live forever with Him in Heaven.

Virtue in the Family

With the theological virtue of hope, we can trust that God has prepared a place for us in Heaven. This hope can help us make the right choices to follow Christ and His teachings.

Hope in the Resurrection

- Prayer activity
  - As a family, reflect on Saint Paul's words: "Since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, . . . God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep" (1 Thessalonians 4:14).

- Do you have hope to see family, friends, and saints in Heaven?
- Pray for any family members who have died.
- Pray for more hope in God's plan for your life.

- Conclude by praying together, "Lord Jesus, we believe in Your Resurrection. Strengthen the virtue of hope in us. Amen."

- Tell your children about family members who have died whom they never met. Share with them the hope you have that because of Jesus' Resurrection, you may one day see them again in Heaven.
- Take your children to church and light a devotional candle as a sign of your prayers for any family members who have passed away.
- Share with your children the saints you most look forward to meeting in Heaven.

Vocabulary Words for Your Children to Review

- Ascension
- Resurrection
- Second Coming

removal of the burden of Assyrian oppression. Isaiah describes this burden with more imagery: "the yoke that burdened them, the pole on their shoulder, and the rod of their taskmaster." The Lord God has freed them from Assyrian oppression.

The Responsorial is a "trust" psalm: "The Lord is my light and my salvation... the Lord is my life's refuge" (v. 1). The psalmist repeatedly proclaims that he has no fear. The danger to the psalmist is described in verses 2 and 3 (both omitted here). Verse 2 describes evildoers, enemies, and foes. Verse 3 has two parallel lines: "Though an army encamp against me..." and "Though war be waged against me..." The life of the psalmist is threatened by war, but he trusts in the Lord and does not fear. In verse 4 the psalmist envisions dwelling "in the Lord's house all the days of my life." This describes the temple: "the Lord's house." The following line repeats the idea: "To gaze on the LORD's beauty, to visit his temple." When the dangers of war end, the psalmist hopes to visit the temple in Jerusalem, the place of the Lord's presence. The psalm ends with an exhortation (an ABBA chiasmus): "Wait for the LORD, take courage; be stouthearted, wait for the LORD!"

In today's First Corinthians reading, Paul makes an exhortation: "I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ... that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose." Paul's life mission was to bring other people to accept the Gospel of Christ. Paul recognized that divisions within the Christian community are a stumbling block to those who might accept the Gospel. So, Paul exhorts the Corinthian Christians to maintain unity.

Paul continues: "it has been reported to me... that there are rivalries among you." Paul describes Corinthian Christians in rival groups who profess loyalty to Paul, Apollos, or Cephas. But Paul insists that our loyalty must be to Christ alone. Paul rebukes Christians who have separated into these groups because only Christ was crucified for us. We belong to Christ alone, who gives us new life through baptism.

Paul continues: "For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with the wisdom of human

Poinsettias Available After Weekend Masses January 31 and February 1

The poinsettias used to decorate the churches during the Christmas season will be available for parishioners, friends, and neighbors to take home, following next weekend's Masses, through 5 p.m. the following Wednesday. The churches are open from dawn to dusk daily.

eloquence, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its meaning." For Paul, "the cross of Christ" is the model of true human love. As an apostle, Paul does not seek "the wisdom of human eloquence," but rather he strives to live according to God's wisdom – the wisdom of Christ's cross.

In today's Gospel, after the arrest of John the Baptist, Jesus withdraws to Galilee. Then Jesus moves from Nazareth to Capernaum. The gospel narrator explains this by quoting the Septuagint translation of Isaiah 8:23 – 9:1 (first reading).

Jesus' message is eschatological. That is, He is announcing the arrival of a new age – called "the kingdom of heaven," which contrasts with the current age of sin and death. Jesus commands us: "Repent!" The new age is arriving: "the kingdom of heaven is at hand." We must repent so that we may be judged worthy to belong to the kingdom of heaven.

Next Jesus calls his first disciples. We can almost see the seaside and smell the fishing nets. We meet two pairs of brothers. First is Simon and his brother Andrew. Second is James and his brother John – the sons of Zebedee. For both sets of brothers, when Jesus calls them, they respond with earnest obedience. Simon and Andrew immediately abandon their nets and follow Jesus. James and John surpass even this. When Jesus calls them, they abandon the hired men and their stunned father Zebedee in the boat.

Jesus "went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people." Jesus shows He has the healing power of God, and He announces that God is acting for the salvation of all people. Christ proclaims the Gospel of the kingdom.

In Christ Jesus,

Dear Padre,

Why can't a Protestant receive the Eucharist at a Catholic Mass?

United by baptism, fellow Christians are our brothers and sisters in the Lord. As such, they are always welcome at Catholic Mass, but they do not ordinarily participate in holy Communion. "Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to holy Communion" (Code of Canon Law, 844 §4).

When Catholics receive Holy Communion, they firmly believe the bread and wine are transformed into the Real Presence of Christ. In the Eucharist, we become part of the body of Christ and share in holiness and unity with one another. Our "Amen" to "The Body of Christ" and "The Blood of Christ" means, "Truly, so be it!" It indicates that we affirm our belief in this mystery, which is fundamental to our Catholic identity. If non-Catholics receive the Eucharist but do not embrace this identity and same belief, it may disrespect Catholics who do, as well as disrespect their own identity in the denomination to which they belong.

However, at Mass, fellow Christians can join their prayers with Catholics in praising God. Together, we also pray that the divisions which separate us will finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (John 17:21). ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Dear brothers and sisters, all too much violence exists in the world and our societies. Amid wars, terrorism, human trafficking, and widespread aggression, our children and young people need to be able to experience the culture of life, dialogue, and mutual respect. Above all, they need the witness of...those who have suffered injustice and violence [and] resist the temptation to seek revenge.
