Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Sirach 15:15-20 / 1 Corinthians 2:6-10 /

Matthew 5:17-37 or 5:20-22a, 27-28, 33-34a, 37

“Let your ‘Yes’ mean ‘Yes,’ and your ‘No’ mean ‘No.’”

MATTHEW 5:37

Some Walk Away

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSSR

“Let your ‘Yes’ mean ‘Yes,’ and your ‘No’ mean ‘No’” (Matthew 5:37). This teaching of Jesus seems to get lost, perhaps because it comes at the end of a long listing of commandments. Regardless, it seems to get right to the point, almost making the other commandments unnecessary or perhaps clarifying them. Either you are going to be a child of your heavenly Father and live like one, or you are not. If you are a child of God, you would not contemplate any evil behaviors, let alone actually do them.

That is the clarity of the teaching of Jesus. It is authentic. It is compelling. It invites a response. Yet, there are those who were present with him who did not understand. Who missed the point. Who insisted on another way. Who could not discern the simplicity of the truth. To each of these men and women, including some with the religious title of scribe or Pharisee, he observed, “And if the light in you is darkness, how great will the darkness be” (Matthew 6:23). Even sadder is that not only did they miss the point, they also simply walked away.

Do you want to say more than a simple “Yes” or “No”? Do you want to say, “Yes, but... I can’t do it now.” Or “I can’t forgive this particular person.” Or “I can’t welcome this particular stranger.” Or “I can’t love him or her or them.”

Have you also missed the point? Do you also want to walk away? ●

PREPARING FOR SACRAMENTS/SACRAMENTAL EMERGENCY

Parishioners seeking sacraments should visit the Sacraments tab on our website to begin enrollment and required preparation. To access this information, enter "sacraments" in the search feature at sbcatholic.church or smcatholic.church.

Baptism Preparation: Families seeking baptism should contact Jessica Fischer, Evangelization and Discipleship Coordinator, to schedule preparation and formation sessions at least two months before the child's birth.

Marriage Preparation: Couples wishing to marry at St. Boniface or St. Meinrad churches must contact Jessica Fischer, Evangelization and Discipleship Coordinator, at least six months before their wedding date to arrange marriage preparation and formation sessions. At least one person in the couple must have been a parishioner for one year.

Anointing of the Sick: Contact the Parish Office to request a priest for this sacrament of healing. If you require a priest due to severe illness or danger of death, please call 812-357-6600. Be prepared to provide your name, location and contact information. The priest on call will respond as soon as possible.

Families should use this number immediately when a loved one is admitted to an area hospital, long-term care center or hospice. Hospital, long-term care and hospice chaplains do not always contact the Parish Office promptly, which can leave parishioners and families without needed parish-based pastoral care or the Last Sacraments.

Pope Leo XIV's Prayer Intention

February: For children with incurable diseases

Lord Jesus,

You came into the world to heal our infirmities and to endure our sufferings. You went about healing all and bringing comfort to those in pain and need.

We come before you now in this time of illness asking that you may be the source of our strength in body, courage in spirit and patience in pain. May we join ourselves more closely to you on the cross and in your suffering that through them we may draw our patience and hope.

Assist us and restore us to health so that united more closely to your family, the Church, we may give praise and honour to your name. Amen.

The Mission of Our Parish Family

St. Boniface Parish and St. Meinrad Parish exist to nurture an intentional faith-filled Catholic Community which inspires and empowers all people to follow Jesus Christ. We will continue to "Keep our eyes fixed on Jesus" (Hebrews 12:2) by living the Word of God, celebrating the sacraments with meaningful worship, and calling one another to prayer, Christian service, and fellowship rooted in the living tradition of a rich German-Catholic heritage.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Years of war in Ukraine have profoundly affected both Ukrainian society and the Church in Ukraine. The majority of Ukrainian Catholics belong to the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church under the spiritual leadership of the Pope. From the beginning, the laity has played a significant role in responding to the needs of displaced families, orphaned children, and other victims of the conflict. In the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church's Exarchate of Lutsk, laypeople such as catechists, parish pastoral and economic council members, and priests' wives have been called upon to provide faith formation, carefully manage parish resources, and provide emotional and spiritual support to members of the local parish communities.

These laypeople have heeded their call to holiness by bringing their talents and abilities to serve God and their neighbors. The exarchate, with crucial funds received through the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, has answered the call of Pope Leo to empower and form the laity to help bring the Gospel to the world. The exarchate is hosting formation seminars and trainings for priests' wives, parish pastoral and financial advisers, and catechists so that they might foster spiritual healing and economic recovery amid the devastation of war.

By donating to this special collection when it is taken up the weekend of February 14-15, 2026, you will be helping the Church in Ukraine and more than 25 other countries in Central and Eastern Europe to witness to Christ's mercy, even in the midst of these terrible hardships brought on by the war.

For more information about the collection and who it supports, visit www.usccb.org/ccee. Thank you for your help to restore the Church and build the future in Central and Eastern Europe.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

+ Charles C. Thompson

Lent 2026:

Making the Most of 40 Days

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 18, this year. Below are some resources provided by the parish to help you make the most of your Lenten journey.

Lenten Prayer Books

Lenten prayer books will be available in both churches on the weekend of February 7-8, 2026. Students in the F3 program will receive their Lenten booklets the previous Wednesday, February 4.

The Little Black Book for Lent offers daily reflections from February 16 through Easter Sunday, April 5, based on the Passion according to the Gospel of Mark.

Books are located in pews and on courtesy tables at all entrances. Parishioners in long-term care centers have already received copies.

For more information about the Lenten prayer books, contact Ms. Jess Fischer, Evangelization and Discipleship Coordinator.

Ash Wednesday Services

With Lent beginning on Wednesday, February 18, St. Boniface and St. Meinrad parishes have scheduled various events that are open to parishioners, friends and neighbors.

Here is the schedule for Ash Wednesday, February 18:

- Blessing and distribution of ashes only: 6:30 a.m., Historic St. Boniface Catholic Church

Three Masses, with the distribution of ashes, will be held at:

- 12:05 p.m., St. Meinrad Catholic Church
- 4:15 p.m., St. Meinrad Catholic Church
- 6:15 p.m., Historic St. Boniface Catholic Church

Stations of the Cross and Eucharistic Adoration

Each Friday during Lent, the Stations of the Cross will be prayed at 3 p.m. at St. Meinrad Catholic Church, led by Deacon Mike Fish.

Eucharistic Adoration is available each week on Wednesday from 3 to 4 p.m. at St. Meinrad Catholic Church.

Confessions and Penance Service

Confession is available at St. Meinrad Catholic Church on Wednesdays, 3:15 to 4 p.m., and Sundays, 7:45 to 8:15 a.m. At Historic St. Boniface Catholic Church, confession is available Saturdays at 3:15 to 3:45 p.m.

A communal penance service will be held Wednesday, March 4, at 6:30 p.m. at Historic St. Boniface Catholic Church.

CRS Rice Bowls

Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowls will be available in churches

the weekend of February 7-8. Students in the F3 program will receive their Rice Bowls the previous Wednesday.

Rice Bowls will be on courtesy tables after that weekend. Parishioners in long-term care centers have already received them.

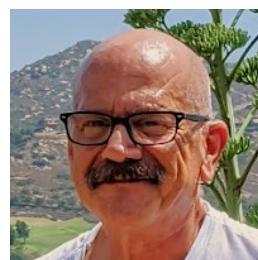

The CRS Rice Bowl program invites Catholics to live in solidarity with our poorest and most vulnerable brothers and sisters through the three Lenten pillars of praying, fasting, and almsgiving.

When you give to CRS Rice Bowl, 75% of your donation supports CRS's humanitarian relief programs in nearly 100 countries worldwide. The remaining 25% goes to hunger and poverty alleviation efforts here within the Archdiocese of Indianapolis as part of the Matthew 25: CRS Rice Bowl Grant. Electronic or recurring donations are available. Scan the QR code on the collection container.

Rice bowls and old palm branches may be returned at all church entrances beginning Palm Sunday, March 29, 2026, through Divine Mercy Sunday, April 12. Blessed palms are a sacramental, and they need to be disposed of in a proper manner. It is our custom to take those blessed palms, burn them, and use them for the ashes that, next year, are sprinkled or traced on our heads as a reminder that we "are dust and to dust we shall return."

For information about the CRS Rice Bowls, contact Sue Kloeck, chair of the Service and Outreach Commission.

Special Lenten Series for Adults

Deacon Mike Fish will offer three Lenten sessions for adults, beginning at 8:15 a.m. on Tuesday, February 24, 2026. Other dates are March 3 and March 10.

At each 45-minute session, participants will look to the Old Testament to see who has experienced God face-to-face and what can be learned from those experiences.

Each session covers different encounters. Parishioners are welcome to attend one, two or all three sessions. More details on Page 6.

Important Dates in Lent 2026

Ash Wednesday: February 18

Palm Sunday: March 29

Holy Thursday: April 2

Good Friday: April 3

Holy Saturday: April 4

Easter Sunday: April 5

Lent | What Catholics Believe

Join Fr. Scott Bailey, a priest in the Archdiocese of Denver, as he answers some of the Internet's most asked questions about Lent. What is Lent? Why is it 40 days long? Or even, what should I give up for Lent? Find out in this episode of What Catholics Believe.

Whole 40

Sit down with Dr. Ben Akers and Dr. Elizabeth Klein to discuss the purpose of the season of Lent, how to prepare for it, and why it is such a fruitful season in our life of faith.

Ash Wednesday | Drawing Closer to God

Using the cross marked on our foreheads on Ash Wednesday, Ms. Kim teaches kids about the Fall, our need for a savior, and God's plan to save us and give us life by sending his Son to die for our sins. In light of these truths, Ms. Kim discusses the phrases we hear on Ash Wednesday: "You are dust, and to dust you shall return" and "Repent and believe in the gospel," relating them to the overarching Lenten theme of turning back to God.

PASTOR'S LETTER

Sunday Scripture Commentary by Father Paul Nord, OSB

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

First Reading: Sirach 15:15-20

Response: Psalm 119:1-2, 4-5, 17-18, 33-34

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:6-10

Gospel: Matthew 5:17-37

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The season of Lent begins this week – Ash Wednesday is February 18. This bulletin's calendar (page 2) shows the schedule for Ash Wednesday. We will offer four services: 6:30 a.m. (Ashes only) (SB), 12:05 p.m. Mass (SM), 4:15 p.m. Mass (SM), and 6:15 p.m. Mass (SB). We hope these morning and evening times will fit around your work schedule. We will also have the normal Wednesday Eucharistic Adoration from 3 to 4 p.m. on Ash Wednesday.

Fish Fries are scheduled at St. Boniface for the following Fridays – February 20 and March 6. Drive-through and dine-in service will be available. Search for "Fish Fry" on the parish website for the 2026 page on "Fish Fries." Preorder on that page to receive a discount. The page is: <https://sbcatholic.church/fish-fry>. Or see the bulletin (page 8). Join me in thanking our generous volunteers whose work makes these fish fries possible.

"Little black" Lenten prayer booklets and CRS Rice Bowls are still available on the tables at the side and back entrances at both parishes. The Rice Bowls are a fundraiser for Catholic Relief Services, which does important work caring for very poor people throughout the world, in 120 countries. Let us contribute to this Gospel work.

The black Lenten Prayer booklets are an assistance in our Lenten practice. May we make Lent a time of renewal of our daily lived faith in Christ. For booklets and Rice Bowls, see tables by the church doors!

Sirach is one of the "deuterocanonical books" of the Bible, which the Catholic Church recognizes as canonical, inspired scripture, while Protestants do not. The deuterocanonical works were included in the Septuagint – an ancient translation of the Hebrew Bible (Old Testament) into the Greek language.

The various Old Testament works were likely translated between 280 and 130 B.C. The Septuagint translation was the work of the Jewish community in Alexandria (northern Egypt). In Alexandria and the eastern Mediterranean, many Jews spoke "Koine" (common) Greek. This translation enabled many to read sacred scripture.

Later, when Jesus' followers proclaimed his Gospel to Gentiles, they saw the Septuagint as a God-given way to bring the Gospel to Greek speakers. When Jesus' disciples explained that He had fulfilled the prophecies of Isaiah, they used the Septuagint to show Isaiah's prophetic text to Gentiles who knew Greek, but not Hebrew.

Because the early Church used the Septuagint so widely, the inclusion of the "deuterocanonical" biblical books within the Septuagint influenced the Church to recognize these writings as inspired scripture.

The prologue of Sirach indicates that Sirach was translated from Hebrew into Greek by the original author's grandson, who composed the prologue. Christians preserved the Greek version of Sirach. But the original Hebrew version was lost until 1896 when large portions were discovered in the Cairo Geniza – the storage room for old, damaged manuscripts in an ancient Cairo synagogue.

Today's Sirach reading is typical of the whole book, which emphasizes the importance of keeping God's commandments as recorded in the Law and the Prophets. The commandments "will save you." Keep them so that "you too shall live."

God gives each person a choice – between "life and death" – between "good and evil." God's commandments express God's wisdom – He wants men and women to act justly. God sees all our deeds. We

Chapter 19: Our Life in Christ

We are truly happy and fulfilled when we choose to live in God's love and goodness.

Chapter Summary

The Beatitudes show us how to imitate Jesus and live like Him (see Matthew 5:3–12). They show us the rewards promised to those who live virtuously and according to the Beatitudes. By living the Beatitudes, we can live truly happy and fulfilled lives in union with God on earth. Additionally, through grace, we can receive perfect happiness and complete beatitude with God in Heaven. God created us with free will. The choice is ours to love God or to turn away from Him. When we make choices for the good, we grow in holiness by imitating Christ and we become truly free.

More for Parents

The Beatitudes Jesus gave us are countercultural yet lead us to true happiness. Today, our children are constantly told that wealth, pleasure, and comfort will lead to true happiness. Additionally, the constant stimulation of screens lulls us and our children into a dull comfort that distracts us from God and the needs of those suffering around us. But in the Beatitudes, Christ boldly claims that the things of this world will not offer true happiness. If we look at Christ, we see a Person who did not pacify Himself with passing comforts and security. His Heavenly Father was His comfort and strength. We are called to live like Christ and according to the grace and virtues we have received in order to live for God and His beatitude.

Virtue in the Family

If we want to know what makes for true happiness and right living, we need to look to Jesus Himself. We can be more like Him by focusing on Him and the Beatitudes.

Living the Beatitudes like Christ

- Family prayer activity
 - Read and reflect on the following Scripture passage: “Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ” (1 Corinthians 11:1).
 - Saint Paul was asking us to see him as a role model because he was living like Christ.
 - Do you show others how to be like Jesus through your example?
 - Quietly reflect on ways you fail to be like Jesus or succeed in being like Jesus.
 - Conclude by praying, “Jesus, form us to be more like You in all we do. Amen.”
- Choose one of the eight Beatitudes to focus on during the week. Make the Beatitude a theme of prayer together.
- Discuss the different things that are trending or popular right now, like styles or games. Compare them to what was popular when you were your children’s age. What makes people temporarily happy changes all the time, whereas God will always make us happy.

should strive to obey God's will, eager to serve Him with reverence.

Writing to the Corinthians, St. Paul contrasts the "wisdom of this age" versus God's wisdom. "The rulers of this age" are passing away, Paul says. He is contrasting temporary earthly power with God's eternal power.

Paul describes God's wisdom as "mysterious" and "hidden." Above all, God's wisdom is expressed through Christ crucified. "The wisdom of this age" is actually foolishness in the eyes of God. Paul gives a powerful example of this age's foolishness: "the rulers of this age... crucified the Lord of glory." In their foolishness, earthly rulers unwittingly became instruments of God's plan of salvation.

In 2:9, Paul quotes Isaiah 64:3: "What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard... God has prepared for those who love him." With this quote, Paul beautifully expresses how God's wisdom is mysterious and hidden, as Paul stated directly in 2:7. Paul emphasizes that God's plan of salvation is true wisdom, and that it expresses God's love for humanity.

Paul says, "God predetermined [this plan] before the ages for our glory" (2:7). Forming a covenant with Israel, God revealed his glory. But in the Incarnation of Christ, God has revealed his glory in a far greater way, sanctifying men and women through Christ. This causes human holiness to become a reflection of God's glory – such that Paul says God's plan results in "our glory."

Finally, Paul notes that God's plan of salvation has been "revealed to us through the Spirit." Paul explains how the Spirit has revealed to us "even the depths of God." This shows how the Spirit continues the work of Jesus Christ. That is, Jesus has revealed God the Father to humanity, such that mere men and women can enter into relationship with God as his adopted sons and daughters.

In the Gospel of John, Jesus says to Philip: "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father?' Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me?" (John 14:8-9).

The Holy Spirit continues the work of Christ by guiding men and women to recognize God's action in the world. In John 16, Jesus is preparing his disciples for his departure, but He promises to send them an "Advocate" – the Holy Spirit. Jesus says: "when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth" (16:13).

Today's section of Matthew's Gospel continues Jesus' "Sermon on the Mount." This material is central to Jesus' teaching. He says that he has not come "to abolish the law or the prophets... but to fulfill" them. Jesus insists that obeying and teaching God's commandments are essential to greatness in the kingdom of heaven. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus is continually telling parables that reveal the nature of the kingdom of heaven. Indeed, Jesus' mission is to bring God's kingdom in its fullness. Thus, Jesus instructs his disciples to pray to God "thy kingdom come" in the "Our Father" prayer.

Jesus proceeds to quote God's commandment: "You shall not kill" (Exod 20:13; Deut 5:17). Jesus then "fulfills" this commandment by calling us to an even higher standard – avoiding anger toward a brother and not calling him a "fool." Instead, Jesus commands us to reconcile with others. Killing becomes unthinkable if we resolve anger and conflict at earliest opportunity.

Jesus quotes another commandment of God: "You shall not commit adultery" (Exod 20:14; Deut 5:18). Again, Jesus "fulfills" this commandment by calling his followers to a higher standard. "I say to you, everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart."

Jesus then summarizes Deuteronomy 24:1: "Whoever divorces his wife must give her a bill of divorce." Jesus fulfills this commandment by suggesting that divorce is illegitimate because it often results in the divorced spouse committing adultery after the divorce. Finally, Jesus summarizes Numbers 30:3: "Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow." Jesus perfects (fulfills) this commandment by forbidding oath-taking. If we are always truthful in all we say, then others will believe us without an oath.

In Christ Jesus,
Father Paul, OSB

ONLINE GIVING: How To GET STARTED

If you would like to switch to online giving, here are some tips:

- St. Boniface Parish and St. Meinrad Parish both use Realm for online giving. It is easy to use and secure.
- With online giving in Realm®, you can make one-time or recurring gifts using debit cards, credit cards, or eChecks (ACH).
- All gifts made online immediately show up in your giving history, along with any other online, text, or offline contributions.

- Whether a new or lifetime parishioner, a friend or neighbor, or an area business that supports the mission and ministry of St. Boniface Parish and St. Meinrad Parish in Spencer County, Indiana, Realm Online Giving 24/7 and Realm Mobile Giving will work for all your giving needs.
- With Realm Mobile Giving, giving is never out of reach. Parishioners can give online with their mobile phones by signing into Realm from their mobile browser. Realm also takes advantage of mobile phone cameras. iPhone users can save time by scanning a credit card to quickly enter their payment method.

Dear Padre,

My grandkids' parents don't want them to be baptized. Can I do it myself secretly so as not to cause problems?

Your concern is understandable, but secret baptisms are prohibited in the Catholic Church. The decision to baptize a child is determined by his or her parents. To secretly usurp their decision may cause problems of its own. For an infant to be baptized, "The parents or at least one of them or the person who legitimately takes their place must consent," and "There must be a founded hope that the infant will be brought up in the Catholic religion" (Code of Canon Law, 868 §1). An exception is permitted when the child's life is in immediate danger: "An infant of Catholic parents or even of non-Catholic parents is baptized licitly in danger of death, even against the will of the parents" (CCL 868 §2). Here, the Church's pastoral concern is for the child to receive the immediate graces from the sacrament; the question of raising the child in the faith becomes moot in a life-or-death situation.

"Since the earliest times, baptism has been administered to children, for it is a grace and a gift of God that does not presuppose any human merit.... Entry into Christian life gives access to true freedom" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1282). Continue to pray that your family may see baptism as a sign of God's love, which offers true freedom for humanity. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

FABRIZIO MAFFEI / SHUTTERSTOCK

The Spirit opens borders, first of all, in our hearts. He is the Gift that opens our lives to love. His presence breaks down our hardness of heart, our narrowness of mind, our selfishness, the fears that enchain us and the narcissism that makes us think only of ourselves.... Sadly, oddly enough, in a world of burgeoning "social" media, we risk being ever more alone.
