From the Pastor

To the parish family of St. Martha,

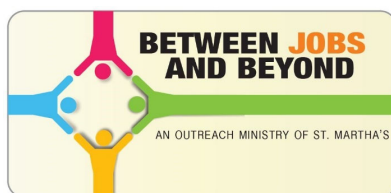

The message in the Scripture readings for the 5th Sunday of Easter is about the gift of God's grace and our new life in Christ. The Gospel account from St. John speaks of the fruitful growth of the branches that are connected to the vine. This is really a description of those who are baptized into Christ Jesus and who accept the challenge to build the Kingdom by remaining open and accepting of the presence of the Risen Christ in their lives. "Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches." The second reading reminds us that attachment to Christ demands that we put our faith into practice: "Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth" (1 John 3:18). This teaching is John the Evangelist's beautiful explanation of the core meaning of our faith centered in Christ and how this faith leads to action and involvement in the community. (If you wish to pursue a more developed reflection on this teaching, please check with our Faith Formation Office and ask about a CD I recorded several years ago entitled "Learning to Live in Christ Jesus.")

Belief and love; word and deed; faith and good works. In the Catholic tradition these dual elements are bound together as one reality: a committed life of faith. For a Catholic, faith (or being attached to the vine who is Christ) is not just about having a relationship with God. Faith is also a virtue that helps determine our relationship and behavior towards other people and how we view ourselves. Faith gives us an insight into who we are in Christ Jesus: we are children of God! Faith gives us a new understanding of the people around us who make up the world. Every human being who ever walked this earth was created in the image and likeness of God and every person deserves our acceptance, respect, and loving service. In addition every person is invited to share in the life of Christ. When we come to see ourselves in the Church as grafted into the vine (Christ), we come to realize that we are to spend our lives assisting others to embrace this reality of new life as well. We have been given a mission and that mission is to evangelize the world by the way we live out the grace we have received from Christ. The first reading from the Acts of the Apostles describes this in terms of the growth of the Church. That mission is still ours today. Let us pray for one another that we might live our faith "in deed and in truth."

If you or someone you know is unemployed, or unhappy with their current job and would just love to start a new career, we can HELP. LOW-GLUTEN HOSTS: We have had a number of requests from those suffering from Celiac disease and/or diagnosed with gluten intolerance to be able to receive low-gluten hosts. To be in compliance with Canon Law and guidelines from the Vatican there must be some gluten in the host that is consecrated at Mass. The Benedictine Sisters have developed a host that is low-gluten (.01 percent). The U. S. Bishops and the Vatican have stated the Sisters' bread is "the only true, low-gluten altar bread, approved for use at Mass in the United States". We will begin offering this low-gluten host at all Masses the weekend of May 16/17. This host is strictly for those who are at risk for serious harm from consuming gluten. In order to receive the low-gluten consecrated host at Mass, please check in with the Team Leader for the Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion in the Ushers Room at least 15 minutes before Mass begins to let them know you need to receive the low-gluten host and to receive instructions where the minister will be to distribute it to you. If you have any questions or concerns about the low-gluten hosts and its reception, please call Mariel Parra at 281-358-6637 or e-mail her at marielp@stmartha.com.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

That we may show our love for God by the way we use our time, talent and treasure.

"Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth."

- 1 John 3:18

Do you "walk the talk?" Does your action reflect what you say? If not, spend time every day in prayer, give some of your talent to help one of your parish's ministries and give some of your money to support the work of the Church.

St. Vincent de Paul Society – St. Martha Conference
Black Bag Collection - May 16 and 17
First Quarter Report – 2015

The St. Vincent de Paul Society's Black Bag Collection for the poor and needy in our area will be held at all Masses on the weekend of May 16th and 17th. The collection will allow the conference to continue to provide rental, utility, medical, and food assistance throughout the upcoming months. During the first three months of this year, through your gifts, St. Martha Conference brought the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting 710 families/individuals with rental assistance in the amount of $9,993.57; utility payments in the amount of $13,637.90; emergency food, automobile repair assistance, and medical assistance totaled $3,301.96. In addition, furniture, clothing, and other non-financial services were provided for 41 people during this quarter. In the Gospel today, Jesus says "Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing." Indeed, by helping the poor we can "bear much fruit" and we find that with Jesus we can do everything. Your gift to St. Martha Conference, Society of St. Vincent de Paul will show that you are indeed the disciple of Jesus as it will bring your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread. Thank you.

Para la familia de la parroquia de Santa Marta,

El mensaje de las lecturas bíblicas para el quinto domingo de Pascua son sobre el don de la gracia de Dios y nuestra nueva vida en Cristo. El relato del Evangelio de San Juan habla del fructífero crecimiento de las ramas que están conectadas a la vid. Esto es realmente una descripción de los bautizados en Cristo Jesús, y que aceptan el reto de construir el Reino permaneciendo abiertos y aceptando la presencia de Cristo resucitado en sus vidas. "Permaneced en mí, como yo permanezco en ustedes. Como el sarmiento no puede dar fruto por sí mismo si no permanece en la vid, así tampoco vosotros, si no permanecéis en mí. Yo soy la vid, vosotros los sarmientos". La segunda lectura nos recuerda que el apego a Cristo exige que pongamos en práctica nuestra fe: "Niños, no nos amemos solo de palabra ni de boca, sino con obras y de verdad" (I Juan 3: 18). Esta enseñanza es una hermosa explicación de Juan el Evangelista del significado central de nuestra fe, centrada en Cristo y cómo esta fe conduce a la acción y la participación en la comunidad. (Si desea seguir una reflexión más desarrollada en esta enseñanza, por favor consulte con nuestra Oficina de Formación de Fe y pregunte acerca de un CD que grabé hace varios años, titulado "Learning to Live in Christ Jesus" ("Aprender a vivir en Cristo Jesús.")

La creencia y el amor; palabra y obra; la fe y las buenas obras. En la tradición católica estos elementos duales están unidos como una sola realidad: una vida comprometida de fe. Para un católico, la fe (o estando unido a la vid que es Cristo) no es sólo acerca de tener una relación con Dios. La fe es también una virtud que ayuda a determinar nuestra relación y comportamiento hacia los demás y cómo nos vemos a nosotros mismos. La fe nos da una idea de lo que somos en Cristo Jesús: somos hijos de Dios! La fe nos da una nueva comprensión de la gente a nuestro alrededor que conforman el mundo. Todo ser humano que ha pisado esta tierra fue creado a imagen y semejanza de Dios y cada persona merece nuestra aceptación, respeto y servicio amoroso. Además se invita a todas las personas a participar en la vida de Cristo. Cuando llegamos a vernos a nosotros mismos en la Iglesia como injertados en la vid (Cristo), nos damos cuenta de que tenemos que pasar nuestras vidas ayudando a otros a abrazar esta nueva realidad de la vida también. Se nos ha dado una misión y esa misión es evangelizar el mundo por la forma en que vivimos por la gracia que hemos recibido de Cristo. La primera lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles describe esto en términos del crecimiento de la Iglesia. Esa misión sigue siendo la nuestra hoy. Oremos unos por otros para que vivamos nuestra fe "de hecho y en verdad."

5º Domingo de Pascua

Reflexión sobre las lecturas:

San Juan nos recuerda en su carta que nuestro amor tiene que ser de verdad y con obras y no de palabra. El amor verdadero se demuestra con acciones tanto para con Dios, por ejemplo, orando con Él, ofreciéndole nuestras obras y dolores, asistiendo a Misa y confesándonos; como para con nuestros hermanos, ayudando al enfermo, al pobre, a todo el que necesita de nuestra ayuda económica, física, emocional o espiritual. En la lectura del Evangelio, San Juan nos relata las palabras de Jesús en las que nos dice que Él es la vid y nosotros los sarmientos. La vid es el tronco y los sarmientos son las ramas de donde crecen las uvas. Sin la alimentación que proviene de la vid, los sarmientos no dan uvas. Cada año se cortan los sarmientos para que al siguiente puedan dar más uvas. De igual forma con nosotros, Jesús es nuestra fuente de alimento para el alma y sin Él no podemos dar frutos.

Compromiso de la semana: Ofreceré a Jesús todas mis obras del día y le pediré que alimente mi alma para dar frutos.

Ministerio Sagrada Familia

Iglesia Sta. Marta, Kingwood, Texas

Con inmensa alegría queremos presentar un ministerio que nace inspirado en la sagrada familia de Nazaret. Dirigido a las familias de nuestra parroquia que desean encontrar una iglesia que les dé soluciones, que les oriente con sus necesidades y les proporcione un lugar que les permita acobijarse, les eduque y les proteja.

Eso es en esencia lo que buscamos edificar en este nuevo ministerio. Estamos hablando de participar en una Iglesia que dé una respuesta viva y clara a las comunidades, que ayude a compensar sus necesidades, a sanar sus enfermedades, brindando no solo apoyo espiritual y emocional, sino un seguimiento constante a su situación.

En el MSF, queremos ofrecerles soluciones concretas, es decir, generar las respuestas a las problemáticas implementando actividades, programas, seminarios, talleres y retiros que serán impartidos de manera conjunta con otros ministerios de la parroquia y se llevarían a cabo durante todo el año.

El programa incluye:

- Preparación prematrimonial. Enriquecimiento y fortalecimiento a parejas constituidas. Planificación familiar natural para parejas católicas. Disciplina positiva para padres e hijos.
- Formación en nuestra fe católica. Crecimiento y desarrollo espiritual. Incentivo y formación de nuevos liderazgos en la comunidad.
- Ayuda psicológica y emocional. Oportunidades de integración entre padres e hijos. Reducción de brechas generacionales.
- Acérquense, pregunten o participen y sean testigos de cómo juntos construiremos ese camino, sea Ud. también puente entre la Iglesia y las familias, irradiando de esa manera la alegría de ser católicos comprometidos.

Las reuniones tendrán lugar todos los lunes, a las 7 pm, en la pequeña Capilla del Colegio Sta. Marta.

A Stewardship Prayer for May: Heavenly Father, Your Son ascended in great triumph to sit at your right hand. You sent your Spirit to watch over us, guide us and teach us to be better stewards of your abundant gifts. May this Spirit of wisdom make us better stewards of our planet. May your Spirit increase our awareness of the dignity of every human life, and show us the way to be better stewards of our neighbor. And through your Spirit, may we be inspired every day to live in accordance with the Gospel, and to give witness to our risen Lord. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.					¹ 9:15 am Unemployment Ministry, Rm 2	² 8:30am Pro-Life Mass
