JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, the Lectionary's Year of Luke presents a Gospel in which Jesus, who has welcomed, taught, healed, and shown God's mercy to the multitude, refuses the Twelve's demand to dismiss the crowd before him. Instead, he says, "Give them some food yourselves" (Luke 9:13). In Jesus' hands, what little the Twelve has feeds five thousand ("men," and probably as many women and children), leaving twelve baskets so the Twelve can continue Jesus' ministry of mercy. Pope Francis has asked how we celebrate and live the Eucharist. Do we keep it to ourselves? Or do we "commune" not only with Jesus but with the multitude whom Jesus has given us to cherish? Entrusted to Jesus and shared with others, our limited resources can go a long way. Recognizing Jesus in the Eucharist demands that we recognize Jesus also in the hungry crowd. Adoring Jesus present in the Eucharist requires that we serve Jesus present in our neighbor.

From the Pastor

To the parish family of St. Martha,

This weekend we celebrate the great feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ, and we are reminded as Catholics of the tremendous gift we have in the Eucharist. It is important to note that the Eucharist is one of the few sacraments in the Church that was unmistakably celebrated by Jesus himself in almost the same way as we do today. The story of the institution of the Eucharist that we see in our second reading from I Corinthians 11:23-26 is the earliest written account that we know of and Scripture scholars tell us that St. Paul got it from a ritual that had already been in existence only a few years after the death of Jesus. That fact in itself should make us hold dearly to this great treasure of our faith! The story of the multiplication of the loaves and fish in the Gospel reading was used by the early Christians as a symbol of the Eucharist. In fact it is the only miracle story in the New Testament that is recorded by all four of the Gospel writers. All the Scriptural accounts communicate a consistent message about the meaning of this great sacrament: the Eucharist makes the Church and fashions us into the Body of Christ. St. Paul used the harshest language in challenging those who trivialized the Eucharist by petty quarrels and disagreements and who created factions and divisions among the faithful. For him Eucharistic worship must be a bond of unity that transcends every barrier that human beings tend to erect between themselves and others: barriers such as culture, race, language, politics, economics, etc. St. Paul emphasized that authentic Eucharistic worship must be demonstrated by an authentic Eucharistic morality lived out in the world. Many came to believe in Jesus primarily through the witness and example of his followers. The 'secular media' of the day would state: "See how the Christians love one another."

There are two other items that I want to highlight for all of us to consider. The first is that the entire offertory collection taken up at the Masses on this weekend will be sent to the archdiocese to support the education and formation of future priests. I want to encourage you to be generous in your offertory gifts. We know how blessed we are at St. Martha to have three priests to celebrate the Eucharist for us and how grateful we are to experience such positive energy from the many seminarians who have served over the years in our parish community. The bulk of our offertory will go to support St. Mary's Seminary here in our archdiocese which is home for those seminarians. The second item I want to emphasize is that it is everyone's responsibility to pray for and encourage vocations to the priesthood, religious life, and to the diaconate. We have been blessed in recent years to have several of our native sons to follow God's call to ordained ministry. That is really great!! However, let us double our efforts and work tirelessly to have several young (and not so young) people to enter seminary or religious formation each year. Let us make this a priority in our prayers and in our devotion to the Eucharistic Lord.

Fr. Chester Borski

We are pleased to announce that St. Martha will offer the Light Weigh One King program starting Monday, June 6th. Light Weigh One King is a twelve-week Bible Study-DVD series, designed for small group use. Class time will be Monday nights from 6:30-8:00. We will focus on how to unite with Christ in order to overcome temptation.

Spiritual health and physical health are connected! Jesus has the answer to every problem we face and nothing is too hard for us when we turn to Him! Light Weigh One King techniques have been by the grace of God, used by tens of thousands of people to overcome struggles with food, alcohol, Internet addiction, shopping, blood sugar problems, nail biting, depression, anxiety, anorexia, bulimia and other addictions.

Light Weigh One King teaches peace with food. Peace with food is not a diet, peace with food is when you get to the place where you enjoy food, but food no longer has control over you. Peace with food is possible through uniting to Jesus Christ. There will be NO WEIGH-INS at these meetings! That is not what this program is about!

Please view the 30 minute Orientation video that is found at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fS6YLpYD22Y> We hope that you will join us for the Light Weigh One King twelve-week bible study. Vocations Corner

WHAT IS A PRIEST?

By Father Thomas E. Langer

Priests are mystery men. They come in assorted sizes, ages, weights and collars. They are found everywhere – speeding along, perspiring over, walking by, kneeling on, praying over, laughing with, preaching to, teaching about, pardoning for, and playing baseball with. Little children run to them; teenagers marvel at them, aged folk turn to them; lay people treasure them; non-Catholics stare at them; and Mary watches over them.

COLLECTION— FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

On the Feast of Corpus Christi (Sunday, May 29) the total offertory in every parish of the archdiocese is dedicated to the support of those studying for the priesthood. For 2016-2017 over a million dollars is needed from this collection to support our seminarians studying for the priesthood. To achieve this goal, Archbishop DiNardo requests that you double the amount of your regular church support for the weekend of May 28 & 29. If each contributor will do this, the needed subsidy will be met by this collection. In gratitude for the incomparable gift of the Holy Eucharist which is inseparably joined to the priesthood, please do your part to help the archdiocese provide priests for the sake of your future by praying daily for vocations and supporting this collection.

Unemployed or underemployed?

Are you or do you know an individual who is unemployed or underemployed and looking for direction? Losing your job or being underemployed can cause anxiousness and stress, which can make it even more challenging to find a better job.

St. Martha's Between Jobs and Beyond ministry helps those who are looking for a new and more satisfying job.

- ◆ We can help with résumé writing, interview preparation and networking.
- ◆ We also can help you get your head in the right place, spiritually and emotionally, which is critical for effective job seeking. It is very difficult to be at your best when you feel at your worst – we can help.
- ◆ We encourage a spirit of service to others. When we help others, we feel better.

We meet every Friday at 9:15 am in Room 2 of the Faith Formation Campus (Woodland Hills campus). Please come and see us, or tell others about us. We are here to help!

Para la familia de la parroquia de Santa Marta,

Este fin de semana se celebra la gran fiesta del Corpus Christi, el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, y nos recuerda a los católicos del tremendo regalo que tenemos en la Eucaristía. Es importante tener en cuenta que la Eucaristía es uno de los pocos sacramentos en la Iglesia que fue sin lugar a dudas celebrado por Jesús mismo, en casi la misma forma que lo hacemos hoy. La historia de la institución de la Eucaristía que vemos en nuestra segunda lectura de 1 Corintios 11: 23-26; es la escrita más antigua que conocemos y estudiosos de las Escrituras nos dicen que St. Paul lo obtuvo de un ritual que ya existía sólo unos pocos años después de la muerte de Jesús. ¡Este hecho en sí mismo debe mantenernos en un alto precio por este gran tesoro de nuestra fe! La historia de la multiplicación de los panes y los peces en la lectura del Evangelio fue utilizada por los primeros cristianos como símbolo de la Eucaristía. De hecho, es la única historia del milagro en el Nuevo Testamento que se registra por los cuatro escritores del Evangelio. Todos los relatos bíblicos comunican un mensaje coherente sobre el significado de este gran sacramento: La Eucaristía hace la Iglesia y nos quía hacia el Cuerpo de Cristo. St. Paul utiliza el lenguaje más duro para desafiar a los que trivializan la Eucaristía por pequeñas disputas y desacuerdos y quienes crearon facciones y divisiones entre los fieles. Para él el culto eucarístico debe ser un vínculo de unidad que trasciende todas las barreras que los seres humanos que tienden a erigir entre ellos y los demás: barreras, tales como la cultura, la raza, la lengua, la política, la economía, etc. St. Paul hicieron hincapié en que el culto eucarístico debe ser auténtica demostrada por una moral auténtica eucarística vivida en el mundo. Muchos llegaron a creer en Jesús principalmente a través del testimonio y el ejemplo de sus seguidores. Los 'medios de comunicación seculares' del día afirmarían: "Vean cómo los cristianos se aman unos a otros".

Hay otros dos elementos que quiero destacar para que los tengamos en cuenta. El primero es que todas las colectas en las misas de este fin de semana serán enviadas al arquidiócesis para apoyar la educación y la formación de los futuros sacerdotes. Quiero animarlos a que sean generosos en sus ofrendas. Sabemos lo bendecidos que somos en Santa Marta por tener tres sacerdotes para celebrar la Eucaristía y lo agradecidos que hemos estamos de experimentar una energía tan positiva por parte de los muchos seminaristas que han servido a lo largo de los años en nuestra comunidad parroquial. La mayor parte de nuestro ofertorio se destinará a apoyar Seminario de Santa María aquí en nuestra Arquidiócesis que es el hogar de los seminaristas. El segundo punto que quiero destacar es que es responsabilidad de todos orar por y fomentar las vocaciones al sacerdocio, a la vida religiosa, y al diaconado. Hemos sido bendecidos en los últimos años por tener varios de nuestros hijos de seguir el llamado de Dios al ministerio ordenado. Esto es realmente grande! Sin embargo, vamos a redoblar nuestros esfuerzos y trabajar sin descanso para tener varias personas jóvenes (y no tan jóvenes) para que entren en la formación de seminarista y religiosos cada año. Hagamos de esto una prioridad en nuestras oraciones y en nuestra devoción al Señor Eucarístico.

Solemnidad del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo Reflexión sobre el Jubileo de la Misericordia:

El primer objetivo que el Papa Francisco quiere para este año de la Misericordia es que experimentemos la Misericordia de Dios a través del Sacramento de la Reconciliación. Para hacer una buena Reconciliación tenemos que, primero hacer un buen y completo examen de conciencia. Revisar nuestras acciones, palabras, pensamientos a la luz de los Diez Mandamientos de Dios, los Cinco Mandamientos de la Iglesia y los Siete Pecados Capitales. También tenemos que reconocer todo el bien que no hemos hecho y que pudimos haber hecho, los pecados de omisión. Después es muy importante tener un corazón verdaderamente arrepentido del dolor que hemos causado con nuestro pecado y tener una intención firme de no volver a pecar. Antes de poder ir a confesarnos, tenemos que perdonar a todas aquellas personas que nos han ofendido. Jesús fue muy claro cuando nos enseñó la Oración del Padre Nuestro en el Evangelio de San Mateo, que si no perdonamos a los que nos ofenden, nuestro Padre no nos perdonará nuestros pecados. Es por eso que es vital el perdonar antes de ser perdonados. Ya después de estos pasos, podemos ir a confesar nuestros pecados con un Sacerdote y cumplir la penitencia para obtener el perdón de nuestros pecados.

Compromiso de la semana: Haré un buen examen de conciencia y cumpliré con los pasos para hacer una buena Reconciliación esta semana.

RITO DE INICIACIÓN CRISTIANA PARA ADULTOS

Los Sacramentos son ayudas, medios, herramientas, gracias que Jesús nos dejó para poder seguirlo por el camino de nuestra vida diaria, que no siempre es fácil, por eso nos invita a tomar nuestra cruz y seguirle hacia la vida eterna. Estas ayudas-sacramentos están aquí en la Iglesia y son para todos a nadie se le pueden negar si está dispuesto a seguir a Jesús. Pero muchos de nosotros solo nos bautizaron y no tenemos todos nuestros Sacramentos de iniciación que son: El Bautismo, La Confirmación y La Eucaristía; por tal razón no participamos de estas ayudas que nuestro Señor Jesús le dejó a su iglesia por medio de su sacrificio en la cruz.

Si este es tu caso (y eres mayor de 18 años) o conoces a alguien que quiere unirse a nuestra Iglesia Católica? Ayudalo y pasale este anuncio, invítalo a participar en el proceso del RICA.

Este proceso es para Católicos y No Católicos que tienen muchas preguntas o dudas y quieren entender nuestra fe o completar sus sacramentos

Ven y participa con nosotros. Las reuniones son los Jueves de 6.30-9.00 p.m. comenzamos con una cena antes de nuestra plática.

Comunícate con Jaime Gómez (281-973-1857) y participa en el RICA en Español.
