Look at the birds in the sky;

they do not sow or reap,

they gather nothing into barns,
yet your heavenly Father feeds them.

STEWARSHIP THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

That through our generosity we keep God first and money second.

"No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (material wealth)."

Matthew 6:24

For many people, God and money run "neck and neck" as their first priority. Making money and spending money becomes the center of their life and they actually become a slave to money. The solution – become more generous. Giving money to Church and charity frees us from slavery to money and from making money a "god" before God.

From the Pastor

To the parish family of St. Martha,

The Scripture readings for the 8th Sunday in Ordinary Time present us with a powerful message:

God cares deeply for us and intervenes on our behalf. In fact this message is central to the whole Bible and the sacred authors express this conviction through many images. God is creator and redeemer. God is our rock and our fortress. God is our good shepherd and guide. In our first reading the prophet Isaiah even gives us a maternal image in that of a nursing mother: "Can a mother forget her infant, be without tenderness for the child of her womb? Even should she forget, I will never forget you." What an incredible image of God! The prophet reminds us that such indeed is the loving concern of God for each one of us. In the Gospel account from Matthew, Jesus uses similar images to describe the heavenly Father's love for us. We are encouraged not to worry about food, clothing, and other necessities of life but to trust that God will see to our needs. Jesus points to the lilies of the field and the birds of the air and insists that God will take even greater care of us human beings. This biblical teaching reiterates the fact that we have been uniquely created by God and fashioned in His image and likeness.

At times this truth about God's providential love seems to stand in stark contrast to our own experiences of the world in which we live. The widespread existence of violence and hate around the world, the economic issues of unemployment and under-employment, the deterioration of the social fabric of family and community values in our own neighborhoods, etc. make it difficult to sense that we are in the hands of a loving God. However, the Gospel text suggests that we pay close attention to the attitude of Jesus himself. He was totally focused on doing the will of his "heavenly Father." This phrase is used twice in our account today. It reveals the abiding trust and love that was at the heart of Jesus' relationship with God. Elsewhere Jesus called God "Abba," the intimate name one would give to a loving parent. In our culture we would use the word "Daddy" to express such a loving relationship. It is this attitude that Jesus models for us throughout the four Gospels, even as He hangs upon the cross. It is this attitude that we must seek in our everyday relationship with God. Out of such complete trust in "our Abba" we can surrender our lives and "seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness."

Think there isn't anyone pulling for your marriage? Think again.

Teams of Our Lady USA-A movement of conjugal spirituality

Marriage is a challenge. Whether a couple is newly-wed, raising a family, or "empty nesting", the call to grow together in love is ever present. Often couples find they are living in a social climate where forces and stresses are at work that can undermine both their marriage and their faith. All over the world, couples have found a way to meet their desire for growth in love and faith through the Teams of Our Lady (TOOL) movement.

A team is a group of five to seven couples that have decided to join together to find support in their efforts to lead Gospel lives. The team meets once a month, in each other's homes, for a simple meal and in a spirit of friendship share their experiences of the previous month. After dinner, the mood shifts to the more obviously spiritual as the team reflects on scripture and prays. Finally, they discuss study material on married life and faith. The team meeting is truly a unique gathering – lively and enjoyable, yet structured and meaningful. If you would like to join such a group, plan on attending a 45 minute Information Meeting on Sunday, March 5, at 3:30 PM in Room 2 at the Woodland Hills Campus. Contact Donna at 281-360-9644 or e-mail dwokelley@gmail.com for more information and to reserve a spot.

ONE OF THE BEST KEPT SECRETS AT ST. MARTHA

Did you know that you have a "Second Family" just waiting for the opportunity to share an hour or two visiting in your home, to help with simple errands, deliver a meal or to offer a ride to an appointment? If you didn't, that's no surprise to us! For eleven years the Second Family Ministry has been one of the best kept secrets in our parish. And now we are spreading the word about what a great ministry this is! You might consider discovering the joy of letting someone into your life by offering to help out just a little bit. Or, you might like to join the Second Family Care Team and reach out to another member of the congregation who would benefit from your "bite sized commitment". As always, the blessings flow both ways, and we learn that through simple tasks relationships are built and lives are changed. Please help spread the word. We are asking that you be the eyes and ears and perhaps even the hands and feet of this wonderful ministry. Tell your friends, be alert to special needs and phone if you know someone that would benefit from having a Second Family, or if you would like to have a Care Team. And, finally, prayerfully consider joining this ministry and see what a difference a few hours a month can mean to someone who is home alone, can no longer drive, is caring for a loved one or is isolated and a bit lonely. Ministerio Hispano

Para la familia de la parroquia de Santa Marta,

Las lecturas bíblicas del 8º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario nos presentan un poderoso mensaje:

Dios se preocupa profundamente por nosotros e interviene en nuestro favor. De hecho, este mensaje es el centro para toda la Biblia y los autores sagrados expresan esta convicción a través de muchas imágenes. Dios es creador y redentor. Dios es nuestra roca y nuestra fortaleza. Dios es nuestro buen pastor y guía. En nuestra primera lectura, el profeta Isaías nos da una imagen maternal, la de una madre lactante: "¿Puede una madre olvidarse de su bebé, sin ternura por el hijo de su vientre? Incluso si ella olvidara, yo nunca te olvidaré". ¡Qué increíble imagen de Dios! El profeta nos recuerda que esta es la preocupación amorosa de Dios por cada uno de nosotros. En el relato evangélico de Mateo, Jesús usa imágenes similares para describir el amor del Padre celestial por nosotros. Nos anima a no preocuparnos por la comida, el vestido y otras necesidades de la vida, sino a confiar en que Dios cuidará de nuestras necesidades. Jesús señala los lirios del campo y las aves del aire e insiste en que Dios nos cuidará aún más a nosotros, los seres humanos. Esta enseñanza bíblica reitera el hecho de que hemos sido creados exclusivamente por Dios y hechos a Su imagen y semejanza.

A veces esta verdad acerca de los amores providenciales de Dios, parece estar en marcado contraste con nuestras propias experiencias del mundo en el que vivimos. La existencia generalizada de la violencia y el odio en todo el mundo, las cuestiones económicas del desempleo y el subempleo, el deterioro de la esencia social de los valores familiares y comunitarios en nuestros propios barrios, etc. hacen difícil sentir que estamos en las manos de un Dios amoroso. Sin embargo, el texto del Evangelio sugiere que prestemos mucha atención a la actitud de Jesús mismo. Estaba totalmente enfocado en hacer la voluntad de su "Padre celestial". Esta frase se usa dos veces en nuestros relatos de hoy. Revela la confianza y amor permanente que estaba en el corazón de la relación de Jesús con Dios. En otra parte Jesús llamó a Dios "Abba", el nombre íntimo que uno daría a un padre amoroso. En nuestra cultura usaríamos la palabra "papá" para expresar una relación amorosa. Es esta actitud que Jesús modela para nosotros a través de los cuatro Evangelios, así como Él cuelga sobre la cruz. Es esta actitud que debemos buscar en nuestra relación cotidiana con Dios. De esa total confianza en "nuestro Abba" podemos entregar nuestra vida y "buscar primero el Reino de Dios y Su justicia".
