From the Pastor

To the parish family of St. Martha,

This weekend we are able to celebrate the patron saint of our parish. Thus, the prayers for the feast of St. Martha and the Scripture readings assigned to July 29th will replace the prayers and the readings listed for the 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time. The story told in the Gospel of Luke 10: 38-42 has such a genuinely human quality that it appeals to each of us. We have all had the experience of playing the role of Martha and perhaps we find ourselves in that role most of the time. We can easily picture Martha rushing about, getting things in order, probably muttering under her breath, and all the while becoming quite upset with Mary who seemed content being of no help at all! Finally Martha reaches her breaking point and protests to Jesus, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me!" We have all felt at one time or another pretty much the same way. We experience being put upon and even victimized in a way. We have the feeling that we have been burdened with so much work and nobody seems to notice. This happens at work, in volunteer organizations, in parish ministry and outreach, and especially at home with our family.

Martha is an easy person with whom to sympathize. She must have been someone who took her responsibilities very seriously. She was so caught up with what she was doing that she lost sight of for whom she was doing it. Jesus reminds her that "only one thing" is necessary and that is the special sensitivity to what love demands of us at this moment and under what circumstances we find ourselves. All of us need to hear this reminder from time to time but especially when we offer our time, talent, and treasure as faithful disciples in the Church. We can become so busy about many things that we forget we are really about serving God and participating in building up the kingdom of God. On some days and under some circumstances to love and to serve may mean that we learn simply to receive and accept graciously what another person has to offer. This Gospel message is intended for all of us. It is especially important for us who serve at Mass --- priests, deacons, altar servers, ushers, greeters, lectors, Communion ministers, music ministers, etc. --- because we can get so wrapped up in doing things (and doing them quite well) that we forget that we are all gathered together to worship our God. The feast of St. Martha is an annual reminder to ask ourselves what is the "one thing" that Jesus wants from us. Let us take time today to share hospitality and gratitude with one another after each Mass and thus celebrate our desire to become authentic friends of Jesus.

Fr. Chester Borski

Please note: The Parish Office will be closed on Wednesday, Aug. 2, and will reopen on Thursday, Aug. 3, at 9:00 AM.

2017 Stewardship Renewal

Stewardship is based on our need to give back to God out of gratitude, not on the Church's need to receive. It is based on the premise that all that we have and all that we are comes from God and, as a way of thanking Him for all our blessings, we return a portion of the time, talent and treasure He has allotted to us.

Next month we will have our annual Stewardship Renewal. Every registered family of St. Martha will receive a Stewardship Guidebook in the mail. Enclosed in the Guidebook is a Stewardship Covenant. Our covenant goes beyond the doors of the church. It is a way of life that can be lived out each day in many ways. Please take some time to prayerfully reflect about the ways you have been blessed and complete your Stewardship Covenant with God. Please keep this covenant close by over the next year to help you remember the commitment made between you and God. Additional copies will be available in the parish office, on the parish website and in the Narthex.

This year's Renewal also consists of two different weekends designed to learn more about parish ministries. You will have an opportunity to meet with ministry representatives to ask questions and sign up. Please join us in the Narthex after each Mass on the following weekends:

Aug. 19-20: Faith Formation, Liturgy, School, & Administrative Ministries
Aug. 26-27: Community Life & Outreach Ministries

(For a complete listing of St. Martha ministries please see last page of the bulletin under Stewardship—Time, Talent and Treasure)

All work done by stewards is important. No job is too menial or too insignificant to be part of God's plan. Stewards use their work for the greater glory of God, in partnership with God. All that we do is part of our conscious effort to collaborate with God in the fulfillment of creation.

A la familia parroquial de Santa Marta,

Este fin de semana podremos celebrar el santo patrón de nuestra parroquia. Así, las oraciones para la fiesta de San Marta y las lecturas bíblicas asignadas al 29 de julio reemplazarán las oraciones y las lecturas listadas para el XVII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. La historia contada en el Evangelio de Lucas 10: 38-42 tiene una cualidad tan genuinamente humana que nos atrae a cada uno. Todos hemos tenido la experiencia de interpretar el papel de Martha y tal vez nos encontremos en ese papel la mayor parte del tiempo. ¡Podemos imaginar a Martha corriendo, poniendo las cosas en orden, murmurando y todo el tiempo y se molesta con María, que parecía estar contenta de no ser de ninguna ayuda en absoluto! Finalmente, Martha llega a su punto de ruptura y le protesta a Jesús: "Señor, ¿no te importa que mi hermana me haya dejado haciendo toda la preparación? ¡Dile que me ayude!" Todos nos hemos sentido en un momento u otro casi del mismo modo. Experimentamos ser puestos sobre e incluso victimizados de alguna manera. Tenemos la sensación de que nos han cargado con tanto trabajo y nadie parece darse cuenta. Esto ocurre en el trabajo, en las organizaciones de voluntarios, en los ministerios parroquiales, y especialmente en casa con nuestra familia.

Martha es una persona fácil con quien simpatizar. Debe haber sido alguien que tomó sus responsabilidades muy en serio. Estaba tan atrapada con lo que estaba haciendo que perdió de vista por quién lo que estaba haciendo. Jesús le recuerda que "sólo una cosa" es necesaria y esa es la especial sensibilidad a lo que el amor nos exige en este momento y bajo qué circunstancias nos encontramos. Todos necesitamos escuchar este recordatorio de vez en cuando, pero especialmente cuando ofrecemos nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro como discípulos fieles en la Iglesia. Podemos llegar a estar tan ocupados con muchas cosas que olvidamos que realmente estamos sirviendo a Dios y participando en la edificación del reino de Dios. En algunos días y en algunas circunstancias, el amor y el servicio pueden significar que aprendemos simplemente a recibir y aceptar graciosamente lo que otra persona tiene que ofrecer. Este mensaje del Evangelio está dirigido a todos nosotros. Es especialmente importante para nosotros que servimos en la Misa --- sacerdotes, diáconos, servidores de altar, ujieres, servidores, lectores, ministros de la Comunión, ministros de música, etc. --- porque podemos estar tan envueltos en hacer las cosas (y ellas bastante bien) que nos olvidamos de que todos estamos reunidos para adorar a nuestro Dios. La fiesta de Santa Marta es un recordatorio anual para preguntarnos cuál es la "única cosa" que Jesús quiere de nosotros. Tomemos tiempo hoy para compartir la hospitalidad y gratitud unos con otros después de cada Misa y así celebrar nuestro deseo de ser auténticos amigos de Jesús.
