STEWARSHIP THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

Elijah recognized the voice of God not in the strong and heavy wind, not in the earthquake, and not in the fire, but in a tiny whispering sound. May we find enough quiet in our clamorous world to hear His voice and discern what He is calling us to do and be.

THANK YOU

Thank you to all those who donated to the HAAM FOOD DRIVE!!!
St Martha's food drive will be able to assist 638 families.

The total pounds donated: 6800

Once again, we are very blessed! The HAAM Food Drive collection went very well thanks to our wonderful community! We collected all kinds of non-perishables, baby food, diapers, detergent, water, etc., and we were able to fill the big van that was parked in front of the church plus a couple of pickup trucks in the back. In addition, we collected $ 1,428 in cash/checks. All this was accomplished at the same time that we were collecting backpacks and school supplies for the Dogwood elementary school. Thank you for your generosity and for helping those less fortunate than us!

From the Pastor

To the parish family of St. Martha,

There is a story told about a person who once approached St. Teresa of Avila and asked, "When I pray, what image of God should I have? How should I picture God that would make Him very real to me?" The wise saint replied, "Simply picture God as looking into your eyes." It is not known whether the saint's advice was satisfying to this inquirer or not, but it is certainly true that the Lord embraces each of us with his providential care. The Scriptures remind us that God calls each of us by name and that his care for us is personal and engaging. The Gospel reading from Mathew for this 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time is an eloquent testimony to the loving concern of Jesus for the Apostle Peter --- and likewise for each of us. In the Scriptures the stormy sea is a symbol of the world and life without God. Peter and the other apostles had been separated from Jesus and were alone in the boat upon the stormy sea. Without Jesus they were about to be overwhelmed and lost at sea. The Gospel account pictures Jesus as mastering the storm by literally walking over it. Peter saw Jesus looking at him through the storm and became confident that with the Lord's help he too could overcome the chaos that seemed to surround him. Peter called out, "Lord, command me to come to you on the water." Jesus held out his hand to Peter and the apostle was able to do so until his faith began to weaken.

Matthew's symbolism in this account is quite instructive. Before any of us can walk on water, i.e. walk by faith, we must get out of our boat and learn to trust in God's grace. Before Peter could benefit from the divine power coming from Jesus, he had to step out of whatever had been holding him up. Peter had to take a risk of stepping away from what seemed to be safe and secure for him. And for each of us, this is the most difficult part in learning to trust in God: putting aside the false dependencies, the apparent securities, and the ways we think we can shield ourselves from the sufferings of life. Desire for pleasure and the good life, materialism, drugs and alcohol, social status, etc. can all float us along for a while but they can also prevent us from hearing God's personal call in our lives. Jesus is always very near to us. In fact, that is the revealed name of Jesus: Emmanuel, God-with-us. Jesus is standing at the edge of our personal storms, calling out to us. In order to respond to his call, we must ignore the storm, climb out of our boat, gaze into the eyes of Jesus looking at us, and entrust ourselves into his care.

Fr. Chester Borski

FRUITS OF OUR LABOR

GABRIEL PROJECT: The Gabriel Project helps mothers through crisis pregnancies. We are currently working with four mothers and are grateful that God has brought them to us. We continue to help them emotionally, and spiritually through some often challenging times. We make sure that the mothers have what is needed when they bring their precious babies home. We are anxiously awaiting the birth of one of our babies next month. Without the support of our parishioners and their generosity during the Baby Bottle Boomerang this would not be possible. If you, or someone you know, would like to volunteer as a Gabriel Project Angel we would welcome you and appreciate the extra help. For more information please contact Lynn Davis: mldavis905@aol.com or call 832-527-1658.

DIVORCE SUPPORT GROUP: This is a nine week program of support, encouragement and recovery for those who find themselves separated or divorced and are looking for a way to navigate through the myriad of feelings and emotions in the aftermath. Led by a team of divorced Catholics. Please join us knowing that the Church supports and wants you – you belong! Yes, we can be divorced and practicing Catholics and find peace and healing with God's love and a peer group who have been where you are. For information, please contact: Vicki Rück at vickiruck@suddenlink.net, 713-927-8815.

2017 Stewardship Renewal

Stewardship is based on our need to give back to God out of gratitude, not on the Church's need to receive. It is based on the premise that all that we have and all that we are comes from God and, as a way of thanking Him for all our blessings, we return a portion of the time, talent and treasure He has allotted to us.

This month we will have our annual Stewardship Renewal. Every registered family of St. Martha will receive a Stewardship Guidebook in the mail. Enclosed in the Guidebook is a Stewardship Covenant. Our covenant goes beyond the doors of the church. It is a way of life that can be lived out each day in many ways. Please take some time to prayerfully reflect about the ways you have been blessed and complete your Stewardship Covenant with God. Please keep this covenant close by over the next year to help you remember the commitment made between you and God. Additional copies will be available in the parish office, on the parish website and in the Narthex.

This year's Renewal also consists of two different weekends designed to learn more about parish ministries. You will have an opportunity to meet with ministry representatives to ask questions and sign up. Please join us in the Narthex after each Mass on the following weekends:

Aug. 19-20: School, Parish Festival, Faith Formation, & Liturgy Ministries

Aug. 26-27: Community Life & Outreach Ministries

Second Family

Did you know that you have a "Second Family" just waiting for the opportunity to share an hour or two visiting in your home, to help with simple errands, deliver a meal or to offer a ride to an appointment? If you didn't, that's no surprise to us! For eleven years the Second Family Ministry has been one of the best kept secrets in our parish. And now we are spreading the word about what a great ministry this is! You might consider discovering the joy of letting someone into your life by offering to help out just a little bit. Or, you might like to join the Second Family Care Team and reach out to another member of the congregation who would benefit from your "bite sized commitment". As always, the blessings flow both ways, and we learn that through simple tasks relationships are built and lives are changed.

Please help spread the word. We are asking that you be the eyes and ears and perhaps even the hands and feet of this wonderful ministry. Tell your friends, be alert to special needs and phone if you know someone that would benefit from having a Second Family, or if you would like to have a Care Team. And, finally, prayerfully consider joining this ministry and see what a difference a few hours a month can mean to someone who is home alone, can no longer drive, is caring for a loved one or is isolated and a bit lonely. To learn more about the vision and the work of your Second Family Care Team at St. Martha phone Martha Busch 281-728-7159 or email stmartha2ndfamily@gmail.com .

Divine Mercy Chaplet

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is prayed in the chapel at the Faith Formation Campus every Sunday at 3 PM for the conversion of sinners, the sick and the dying. Everyone welcome!

A la familia parroquial de Santa Marta,

Hay una historia contada sobre una persona que una vez se acercó a Santa Teresa de Ávila y le preguntó: "Cuando oro, ¿qué imagen de Dios debería tener? ¿Cómo imaginar a Dios que lo haría muy real para mí? La santa sabia respondió: "Simplemente imagínate a Dios como mirando a tus ojos". No se sabe si el consejo del santo fue satisfactorio para este investigador o no, pero es Ciertamente cierto que el Señor abraza a cada uno de nosotros con su providencial cuidado. Las Escrituras nos recuerdan que Dios llama a cada uno de nosotros por nuestro nombre y que su cuidado por nosotros es personal y atractivo. La lectura del Evangelio de Mateo para este 19º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario es un testimonio elocuente de la amorosa preocupación de Jesús por el Apóstol Pedro y también por cada uno de nosotros. En las Escrituras el mar tormentoso es un símbolo del mundo y la vida sin Dios. Pedro y los otros apóstoles habían sido separados de Jesús y estaban solos en la barca sobre el tormentoso mar. Sin Jesús estaban a punto de ser abrumados y perdidos en el mar. El relato del Evangelio muestra a Jesús como el dominio de la tormenta literalmente caminando sobre ella. Pedro vio a Jesús mirándolo a través de la tormenta y confió en que con la ayuda del Señor él también podría superar el caos que parecía rodearlo. Pedro dijo: "Señor, ordéname que venga a ti en el agua". Jesús le tendió la mano a Pedro y el apóstol pudo hacerlo hasta que su fe empezó a debilitarse.

El simbolismo de Mateo en este relato es bastante instructivo. Antes de que cualquiera de nosotros pueda caminar sobre el agua, es decir, caminar por la fe, debemos salir de nuestro barco y aprender a confiar en la gracia de Dios. Antes de que Pedro pudiera beneficiarse del poder divino proveniente de Jesús, tuvo que salir de lo que le había estado sosteniendo. Peter tuvo que arriesgarse a alejarse de lo que parecía seguro y seguro para él. Y para cada uno de nosotros, esta es la parte más difícil de aprender a confiar en Dios: dejando de lado las falsas dependencias, las aparentes garantías y las maneras en que creemos poder protegernos de los sufrimientos de la vida. El deseo por el placer y la buena vida, el materialismo, las drogas y el alcohol, el estatus social, etc., pueden todos flotar por un tiempo, pero también pueden impedirnos escuchar la llamada personal de Dios en nuestras vidas. Jesús siempre está muy cerca de nosotros. De hecho, ese es el nombre revelado de Jesús: Emmanuel, Dios-con-nosotros. Jesús está parado al borde de nuestras tormentas personales, llámandonos. Para responder a su llamada, debemos ignorar la tormenta, salir de nuestro bote, mirar a los ojos de Jesús mirándonos y confiarnos a su cuidado.

Fr. Chester Borski

¡Gracias!

¡ Gracias a todos aquellos que hicieron posible que la colecta de Comida para HAAM fuera todo un Éxito !!!
Nuestra pasada colecta de Comida para HAAM será capaz de ayudar a 638 familias ya que recibimos un total de 6,800 libras en comida.

Una vez más, somos muy bendecidos ya que la colecta de comida para HAAM este año fue muy gratificante, y todo gracias a nuestra maravillosa comunidad! Recibimos todo tipo de no alimentos perecederos, alimentos para bebés, pañales, detergente, agua, etc., Nuestro camión estacionado al frente de la iglesia fue llenado casi en su totalidad; además de un par de camionetas adicionales. También se recibió un total de $ 1.428 en efectivo y cheques.

Todo esto se ha logrado al mismo tiempo que estábamos recogiendo las mochilas y los útiles escolares para la escuela Primaria de Dogwood.

¡Gracias por su generosidad y por ayudar a los menos afortunados! ¡Agradecemos enormemente también a nuestros voluntarios !

¡Que Dios los bendiga aún más!
