From the Pastor

To the parish family of St. Martha,

The Gospel text from Matthew 18:15-20 is used for the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time and presents us with policy guidelines on how to handle delicate and difficult situations within the community of faith. These procedures apply not only to early Christianity but also to the Church today because they deal with issues that arise when people who live and work together encounter the effects of sin in their lives. Jesus addresses a case where one of the disciples has seriously harmed another believer and has threatened the life of the community. The first concern is that every effort should be made to win back the sinner by reaching out to him or her and offering the gift of reconciliation. If this fails, other steps are to be taken until finally, if necessary, the guilty one is to be cut off or excommunicated from the community. Notice that the rules are quite applicable even in our own day and these procedures are imminently practical. First we are to speak directly with the erring member but in private. If this fails, then we are to have two or three members of the community to speak with the individual. Only if the person refuses to listen to them, is it appropriate to bring it before the whole community. Underlying such an approach is the need to turn to God in prayer, asking the Lord to renew and heal the life of the church community and that of the individual.

The Gospel passage concludes with a remarkable promise from Jesus: "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." The implications of this teaching are that the Christian life flows directly from the life of Christ himself. Through our baptismal faith and the gift of the Holy Spirit, we all share in the very life of grace won for us by Jesus Christ. When we gather for worship, when we work together for reconciliation and when we share our gifts, we are not alone in our efforts. We are blessed with the abiding presence of God in the Body of Christ, the Church. As brothers and sisters in the Lord, we have a responsibility for one another. St. Paul reminds us in the letter to the Romans that love of neighbor is the fulfillment of the Law. "Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another." In the context of the Gospel, such love that reaches out to heal and reconcile should be characteristic of every Christian community, whether it be family, school, or parish. During this week let us reflect on how we can become a healing presence to others.

Teams of Our Lady USA-A movement of conjugal spirituality

Marriage is a challenge. Whether a couple is newlywed, raising a family, or “empty nesting”, the call to grow together in love is ever present. Often couples find they are living in a social climate where forces and stresses are at work that can undermine both their marriage and their faith. All over the world, couples have found a way to meet their desire for growth in love and faith through the Teams of Our Lady (TOOL) movement.

A team is a group of five to seven couples that have decided to join together to find support in their efforts to lead Gospel lives. The team meets once a month, in each other's homes, for a simple meal and in a spirit of friendship share their experiences of the previous month. After dinner, the mood shifts to the more obviously spiritual as the team reflects on scripture and prays. Finally, they discuss study material on married life and faith. The team meeting is truly a unique gathering – lively and enjoyable, yet structured and meaningful. If you would like to join such a group, plan on attending a 45 minute Information Meeting on Sunday, Sept. 24, at 3:30 PM in Room 2 at the Woodland Hills Campus. Contact Tammy Spijkerman, 713-823-0908, tammyspijkerman@gmail.com for more information and to reserve a spot.

Did you know that you have a “Second Family” just waiting for the opportunity to share an hour or two visiting in your home, to help with simple errands, deliver a meal or to offer a ride to an appointment? If you didn’t, that’s no surprise to us! For eleven years the Second Family Ministry has been one of the best kept secrets in our parish. And now we are spreading the word about what a great ministry this is! You might consider discovering the joy of letting someone into your life by offering to help out just a little bit. Or, you might like to join the Second Family Care Team and reach out to another member of the congregation who would benefit from your “bite sized commitment”. As always, the blessings flow both ways, and we learn that through simple tasks relationships are built and lives are changed.

Please help spread the word. We are asking that you be the eyes and ears and perhaps even the hands and feet of this wonderful ministry. Tell your friends, be alert to special needs and phone if you know someone that would benefit from having a Second Family, or if you would like to have a Care Team. And, finally, prayerfully consider joining this ministry and see what a difference a few hours a month can mean to someone who is home alone, can no longer drive, is caring for a loved one or is isolated and a bit lonely. To learn more about the vision and the work of your Second Family Care Team at St. Martha phone Martha Busch 281-728-7159 or e-mail stmartha2ndfamily@gmail.com.
