Catholic
Communication
Campaign

CONNECT WITH CHRIST

Next weekend we take up a collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign. This campaign connects people with Christ, here and around the world in developing countries, through the internet, television, radio, and print media. And fifty percent of funds collected remain in our diocese to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the gospel message! To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/ccc.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR THE HOMEBOUND ERRAND COMMITTEE

The purpose of this ministry is to provide transportation to our homebound parishioners who need to visit a local doctor, run short errands, or need a ride to Mass. Currently we are in need of several more drivers. We are also looking for someone to be the new Ministry Leader. The Ministry Leader is responsible for taking requests and then communicating those needs to the drivers. If you would like more information about volunteering for this rewarding ministry or have questions about the leadership position, please contact Gretta Verhalen, 281-358-5523, ext. 313, verhaleng@stmarthacs.org

MOTHER'S DAY CARNATION SALE

The Catholic Daughters will be selling carnations for $2/each after the 9 AM and 11 AM Masses on Mother's Day, May 13. Each carnation will be decorated with a ribbon and poem. Proceeds from the sale will help fund the annual scholarship for graduating seniors of the parish.

St. Vincent de Paul Society – St. Martha Conference Black Bag Collection - May 19 and 20

The St. Vincent de Paul Society's Black Bag Collection for the poor and needy in our area will be held at all Masses on the weekend of May 19 and 20. The collection will allow the Conference to continue to provide rental, utility, medical, transportation and food assistance throughout the upcoming months to people in need in our area. In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us, "This is my commandment: love one another as I have loved you...You are my friends if you do what I command you."

In the First Quarter this Year, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting 255 families, providing $19,195 for utility bills, $16,738 for rent bills, and $2,257 in food and other assistance. God Bless You!

"The mystery of the poor is this: That they are Jesus, and what you do for them you do for him."

.....Servant of God Dorothy Day

From the Pastor

To the parish family of St. Martha,

The Gospel text chosen for the 6th Sunday of Easter (John 15:9-17) describes the experience of Easter faith not in terms of some mighty external power that forces itself upon people, but rather in terms of something that happens quietly within the hearts of believers. The words that are used most frequently by the Evangelist are love and joy. In fact John the Evangelist, in one of his later writings, goes on to tell us what love for a Christian really is: "In this is love --- not that we have loved God, but he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins" (I John 4:10). Thus, in the most basic of terms, love is what Christ has done for us. The first thing that Christ did for us was to give himself freely and totally, fully aware that we were free to accept or reject the offer. Love is gift --- the gift of salvation made present in our souls. Elsewhere love is described as God's peace dwelling within our hearts. At the same time love requires a response: what has been done for us, we must do for one another. Just as Christ has done for us, we must come to understand that love means accepting a certain responsibility for the good of our brothers and sisters. Like Christ, we must respect the freedom of others as well. Our attempt to express love may not always be understood or accepted at the moment or in the way it was offered. Love invites us into the very mystery of God's being and God's way of relating to us. For when we are vulnerable and we surrender control over hoped for results, then love can happen and blossom into an experience beyond our imagining. This type of love can transform us.

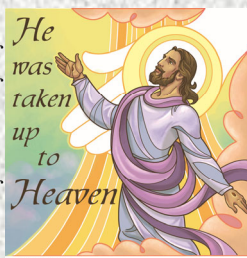

One of the surest signs that can be used in judging whether or not we are actually engaged in this Christ-like love is the experience of joy: "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you." Joy is much more than a fleeting sense of happiness about some personal accomplishment or the pleasure of helping another person. While these experiences may result from our acts of love, joy means the basic sense of rightness a believer experiences because he or she follows the prompting of the Holy Spirit to love as Jesus did. Even when we grapple with our attempts to love others or when we are unsure if others understand or accept our love, God's grace can so fill us and the recipients of our efforts that God's holy presence seems to abound and endure. It is this type of joy that we should frequently ask for in our prayers of petition. And when we give witness to this Christian joy in our lives, others will have the opportunity of experiencing similar effects of Easter faith in their lives as well.

Fr. Chester Borski

Children's Adoration Hour Every Tuesday—

10 AM in the Chapel

Bring your children and grandchildren to a special hour with Christ. They will learn to offer prayer intentions, grow in their love for Christ, his mother Mary, and our Church and the Pope. We have time for silent prayer, a decade of the rosary, we talk about saints and reflect on gospel passages and sing songs. Parents and kids receive many graces from spending an hour a week with Christ. We hope you will come and see what it's all about. Contact Kristen Johnson at Kristen_alley@yahoo.com or 281-713-2518 if you have any questions.

Ministerio Hispano

A la familia parroquial de Santa Marta,

El texto evangélico escogido para el sexto domingo de Pascua (Juan 15: 9-17) describe la experiencia de la fe Pascual no en términos de algún poder externo poderoso que obliga a la gente, sino más bien en términos de algo que sucede en silencio dentro de los corazones de los creyentes. Las palabras que utilizan con mayor frecuencia los evangelistas son el amor y la alegría. De hecho Juan Evangelista, en uno de sus últimos escritos, va a decirnos realmente qué es el amor para un cristiano: "En esto consiste el amor --- no en que nosotros hayamos amado a Dios, sino en que él nos amó y envió a su Hijo como propiciación por nuestros pecados" (I Juan 4:10). Así, en el más básico de los términos, el amor es lo que Cristo ha hecho por nosotros. La primera cosa que Cristo hizo por nosotros fue a entregarse libremente y totalmente, plenamente conscientes de que estábamos en la libertad de aceptar o rechazar la oferta. El amor es un regalo --- el don de la salvación se hace presente en nuestras almas. En otros lugares el amor se describe como la paz de Dios que mora en nuestros corazones. Al mismo tiempo el amor requiere una respuesta: lo que se ha hecho por nosotros, debemos hacerlo por los demás. Del mismo modo que Cristo ha hecho por nosotros, debemos llegar a entender que el amor significa la aceptación de una cierta responsabilidad por el bien de nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Como Cristo, debemos respetar la libertad de los demás también. Nuestro intento de expresar el amor no siempre puede ser entendido o aceptado en el momento o en la forma en que se nos ofreció. El amor nos invita a entrar en el misterio mismo del ser de Dios y la manera de relacionarse con nosotros. Porque cuando somos vulnerables y entregamos control sobre los resultados esperados, entonces el amor puede suceder y florecer en una experiencia más allá de nuestra imaginación. Este tipo de amor nos puede transformar.

Una de las señales más seguras que se pueden utilizar para juzgar si estamos o no realmente comprometidos en este amor como Cristo es la experiencia de la alegría: "Os he dicho esto para que mi alegría esté en vosotros, y vuestro gozo sea completo. Este es mi mandamiento: Ámense unos a otros como yo les amo". La alegría es mucho más que una sensación fugaz de felicidad sobre algún logro personal o el placer de ayudar a otra persona. Mientras que estas experiencias pueden ser resultado de nuestros actos de amor, alegría significa el sentido básico de lo que el creyente experimenta porque él o ella siguen el impulso del Espíritu Santo para amar como lo hizo Jesús. Incluso cuando lidiamos con los intentos fuera de amar a los demás o cuando no estamos seguros si los demás entienden o aceptan nuestro amor, la gracia de Dios nos puede llenar y los destinatarios de nuestros esfuerzos que es la presencia santa de Dios parecen abundar y llenar. Es este tipo de alegría que con frecuencia debemos pedir en nuestras oraciones de petición. Y cuando damos testimonio de esta alegría cristiana en nuestras vidas, otros tendrán la oportunidad de experimentar efectos similares de la fe Pascual en sus vidas también.

¿Cómo animar la vocación religiosa de sus hijos?

Cuando los jóvenes revelan una atracción a la vida religiosa a sus familias, a menudo los padres pueden ser sorprendidos por la manifestación repentina de su hijo de la fe, preguntándose si se pudiera confundir con un entusiasmo momentáneo, juvenil. A continuación explicaremos algunos de los miedos que algunos padres han expresado durante muchos años sobre el llamado de sus hijos a la vida religiosa.

1. Alégrate, llena de gracia! Aunque al principio puede causar asombro, la vocación de un hijo es algo maravilloso.
2. No temas! Esta frase se repite cientos de veces en las Sagradas Escrituras. ¿Por qué deben de temer?
3. Preguntar (sin ser curioso). Una gran cantidad de perseverancia sobre el futuro de su hijo dependerá, por tanto, la debida orientación y apoyo (y la oración!) de su familia.
4. No sea el juez de la vocación de su hijo. Usted no se ha llamado a desafiar la vocación de su hijo. No pertenece a usted, Dios se le dio a usted.
5. No trate de forzar nada. Si es la voluntad de Dios, es la voluntad de Dios, pero si no es así, no hay nada que pueda hacer para obligar a su hijo a continuar en una vocación que no es de él, de lo contrario podría causarle algún daño.
6. No obstante, pida a Dios en la oración que despierte la vocación de sus hijos. ¿Cómo Dios va a despertar las vocaciones si no le preguntamos y oramos por ella?
7. Prepárese para ver feliz a su hijo. Muy feliz. La alegría es siempre la confirmación de que su vocación es genuina!
8. Y, usted también! Prepárese a ser muy, muy feliz! Dios es abundante en generosidad!
