

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Jesus said,
“This is my blood
of the covenant,
which will be shed for many.
Amen, I say to you,
I shall not drink again
the fruit of the vine
until the day
when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.”

Vision Statement: Baptized into Christ Jesus, we worship as one and reach out to all.

Message from our Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

This weekend, we celebrate "Corpus Christi" Sunday! It is a chance for us to say thanks to God for the incredible gift of the Eucharist. As Catholics, we get to celebrate the mystery of the Lord's Last Supper every day and our Lord's gift to all of us of his Body and Blood! This is the source and summit of our faith and we are blessed to receive this wonderful treasure every time we come to Mass. The feast of Corpus Christi Sunday gives us a chance to reflect on this amazing gift of God's love and help us renew our devotion to the Blessed Sacrament. The Eucharist gives us strength for our journey and we are blessed to have this gift to strengthen us on life's journey. Also, this weekend, the Archdiocese takes the collection for St. Mary's Seminary to help form men to be able to provide the Eucharist for future generations of Catholics. We appreciate everyone's generosity and we continue to pray for an increase in vocations to priesthood. We need more young men to enter the seminary to become priests so more men can help provide us the gift of the Lord's Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Eucharistic mystery!

May God bless you,

Fr. T.J.

Sunday Readings and Reflection

Today's Readings

First Reading — This is the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you (Exodus 24:3-8).

Psalms — I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord (Psalm 116).

Second Reading — Christ is the mediator of a new covenant (Hebrews 9:11-15).

Gospel — This is my body. This is my blood (Mark 14:12-16, 22-26).

The English translation of the Psalm Responses from the Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

Sacrifice

Today the Church focuses on the Eucharist. Today's readings remind us how connected to ancient blood sacrifices we are when offering our unbloody sacrifice. The reading from Exodus describes a solemn ritual designed so the Israelites would never forget their covenant with God.

The reading from the Letter to the Hebrews turns us from those ancient animal sacrifices, the first efforts to worship the living God. Our sacrifice is the body and blood of the Son of God. Because of Christ we have a new covenant.

The Gospel from Mark retells the establishment of that covenant, the familiar story of the Last Supper. Juxtaposed with the story of animal sacrifice as it is here, we are challenged to listen with new attention, to remember the great price paid for our salvation. Jesus gave his body and every drop of his blood for us.

Stewardship

Stewardship Prayer for June

Dear Lord, Your presence at the Eucharistic Table is truly the source and summit of our faith. And in the breaking of the bread your presence is meant to impel us to reach beyond our immediate gathering and unify us with the larger gathering of our sisters and brothers around the globe. If we can recognize you in the Sacrament of the Eucharist, we must also be able to recognize you among those who hunger and suffer in the world. But if our faith in your presence under the appearance of bread and wine does not translate into action, we are still unbelievers. Deepen our faith, make us good stewards of your Eucharistic presence and help us to bear fruit in the lives of those we encounter, especially those most in need of your love and compassion. Amen.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Today's Gospel gives St. Mark's account of Jesus gathering his disciples for a last supper, revealing to them a new covenant established through his own blood that would be poured out as a sacrifice from them. Every time we participate in the Eucharist, we make a pledge to renew and deepen our participation in Christ's covenant in practical ways. For those who exercise stewardship of Christ's covenant, that means making daily, personal sacrifices to strengthen this covenant relationship such as deepening our relationship with the Lord in prayer, supporting our parish, and giving comfort to the poor and those who suffer. As we begin to see our way out of the COVID pandemic, it is a good time to reflect on how we might renew and strengthen our covenant with the Lord and our community in practical ways.

Vocations Corner

Vocation Prayer

Dear Lord,

Please call more of your people so they can live out the life of Christ as priests and religious leaders. Please send them to come and spread the word of God. We need more leaders and ambassadors to come and live out the religious life. Priests, nuns, whatever the world needs. Because we know that you know whatever is good for us. We need your help. St. Alphonsus Ligouri, please pray for us and, God, send the Holy Spirit down so that we may have the grace and power of God to hear the call to be priests and leaders of religious life. Give us the courage to hear your call. Amen
