Message from our Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

Happy Mother's Day! This second Sunday of May is a chance for us to say thanks to our moms for all they have done for us and thank God for the gift of motherhood. We remember our moms that are with us and those who have gone before us as we celebrate moms everywhere.

We also thank God this weekend for the gift of Shepherds in our life who have grown in faith. The Church celebrates "Good Shepherd" Sunday remembering that Jesus is our Shepherd who leads and guides us. I am thankful that I get to lead this flock and Fr. Wayne, Fr. Ralph, and I all appreciate your prayers!

Happy Mother's Day and Happy Good Shepherd Sunday!

May God bless you,

Fr. T.J. Dolce

Pastor

Sunday Readings and Reflection

Sunday Readings

First Reading — The Jews angrily reject Paul and Barnabas' preaching. They then turn their energies to the Gentiles (Acts 13:14, 43-52).

Psalms — We are his people, the sheep of his flock (Psalm 100).

Second Reading — John envisions a great white-robed multitude standing before the throne and before the Lamb. (Revelation 7:9, 14b-17).

Gospel — My sheep hear my voice; they follow me. I give them eternal life (John 10:27-30).

A Foretaste of Paradise

Throughout Easter time, the Church rejoices with Jesus, risen from the dead. Our readings on this Fourth Sunday of Easter celebrate our instinct to come together in joy, worshiping in church. While private prayer nourishes our individual relationship with the Lord, community prayer is a foretaste of paradise. The book of Revelation depicts a "great multitude" worshiping God "day and night in his temple." Our churches on Easter Sunday often reflect this happy multitude, filling the pews to bursting. Four Sundays into the festive season, we are encouraged to keep praising God together. In the Acts of the Apostles, Paul and Barnabas demonstrate their instinct to worship with their faith community each Sabbath, dutifully taking their seats in the synagogue. In the Gospel, Jesus calls us his sheep and reminds us why coming together as a flock is so important: uniting in community, we imitate the unity of God.
