Message from our Pastor

Dear Parish Family,
This week, we celebrate two important days in the life of the Church. Tuesday, November 1st, we will celebrate All Saints' Day and remember all the Saints that have gone before us as examples to us to grow in holiness. Hopefully, we have our favorite saints that have been inspirations to us or our patron saints who are always there to intercede for us. We hope you and your family can join us to celebrate All Saints' Day at one of the Mass times available next week. We follow up All Saints' Day with All Souls' Day as we remember all who have died. It is a chance for us to remember our family and friends who have gone before us and, hopefully, the loved ones we will one day see again in the Heavenly Banquet. These two days remind us of our own mortality and that our lives on Earth will one day end. We thank God for the gift of All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day, and we ask God to help us learn from the examples of those who have gone before us, so we can grow in holiness.
May God bless you,
Fr. T.J. Dolce

Sunday Readings and Reflection

Sunday Readings

First Reading — LORD, you love all things that exist (Wisdom 11:22 — 12:2).
Psalm — I will praise your name forever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).
Second Reading — May the name of Christ be glorified in you and you in him (2 Thessalonians 1:11 — 2:2).
Gospel — Zacchaeus, a tax collector, considered to be a sinner, is converted to the Lord (Luke 19:1-10).

The English translation of the Psalm Responses from the Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

A Compassionate God

Today's reading from the book of Wisdom presents an image of a patient God who "rebukes offenders little by little" (Wisdom 12:2), an image endorsed by the psalmist, singing of how the LORD is "slow to anger and of great kindness, and compassionate toward all his works" (Psalm 145:8, 9). The crowd with Jesus, however, grumbles when they see Jesus's kindness and compassion extended to Zacchaeus, who was not just a tax collector, but the "chief tax collector"—a title that surely emphasizes his standing as a sinner to be scorned. In the second reading, Saint Paul urges the Thessalonians to be "worthy" of God's calling, so that "the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you" (2 Thessalonians 1:12); such people, unlike the crowd in the Gospel, would rejoice at Zacchaeus's determination to change his life after encountering Jesus.

Stewardship

The Gospel story of Jesus' encounter with Zacchaeus makes for an ideal stewardship reflection. So does today's first reading from the Book of Wisdom. Good stewards have faith in, and give thanks for, an almighty and powerful God who transcends the universe, but who gives personal attention to every human being.

God loves his creation, his people. He lives in them, and through his Holy Spirit, instills a fundamental goodness in them. Good stewards recognize this movement of the Spirit as a gift, and make efforts to cultivate this gift and grow in their faith. Take time this week to stop and look around you, be aware of God's awe-inspiring creation, and give thanks for God's loving care and concern for each of us.

St. Martha's Men's Retreat at Holy Name Retreat Center, Jan. 6-8, 2023
Start off the New Year with a relaxing and prayerful weekend!
Retreat Theme:
Rise Up in Christ's Love: Generations in Actions.
In this unsettled world today, where do we find peace and allow it to inspire our society across generational lines? We hear in Deuteronomy 6:5-7, the book Christ most often quotes, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. And these words, which I instruct to you this day, shall be in your heart. And you shall explain them to your children. And you shall meditate upon them sitting in your house, and walking on a journey, when lying down and when rising up." Join us as we explore unique ways to share Christ's love though our faith and action. Together we can inspire future generations to rise, and be on our way.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY NEEDS YOU!

Throughout the school year, only at the 9:00am Mass, children ages 4 through 3rd grade are invited to listen to the Sunday Scriptures on a level they can understand.

They are encouraged to participate in discussions and activities that help share how they are called to live the message in their lives.

The children love their time and return to join their families during the Presentation of the Gifts.

This ministry needs people who are willing to dedicate time, one (1) Sunday a month, to lead a group of children. You are given all the materials needed, you prepare on your own, and you have about 20 minutes with the kids. It is a small amount of time, with a BIG IMPACT!

We would like to separate the children into 2 groups:

The Littlest Angels: 4yr olds thru Kindergarten

Gabriel's Corner: 1st thru 3rd grade

You must be trained in the Save Environment Program

(which can be done online)

We Need Your Help!!

Those of us attending the 11 a.m. Mass on Sept. 17 were treated to an excellent homily by Deacon Carlin Walters. Notable was that his reference to Sunday's Gospel focused largely on each of us sharing our Talents as part of our strategy to get to Heaven. He suggested that we consider St. Martha's ministries as a good place to share our Talents. He further elaborated that – if we checked that box in the past and stopped – it may be a good idea to not rely on that (and going to Mass each Sunday) as our ticket to Heaven. The good deacon told us that we might want to put the odds more in our favor.

While I'll leave strategies for getting to heaven to our priests and deacons, I'd like to follow up on participating in our ministries. St. Martha is a beacon of hope in our archdiocese. We are well known for our generosity – for example, on Sharing Sunday – towards people we don't know or ever expect to meet. We have many ministries and many active members. We number our active parishioners not in the dozens but in the hundreds. And yet we still need more. Quite a few more.

As an Usher for the last 20 years, I've seen our ranks grow and dwindle, much like tie widths in fashion at various times. Currently we're getting "thin" on many teams … and most of us are not as young as we used to be. We can use your help, so I'm asking for it. Each team needs at least six Ushers to cover a Mass and some teams now have less than five. Of course, illness, out-of-town trips, and other conflicts do arise, so having eight or nine is far better. We've had and still have husband-wife and parent-child Ushers, as well as siblings, i.e., it allows families to serve together. Teams serve at a given Mass time (e.g., 11 a.m.), typically once a month but twice for some. No special skills are needed and it's a great way to meet more of our awesome parishioners. All are welcome!

Please give it some thought and let me know if you have any questions or are interested. Thank you for your consideration.

Barry Robichaux, Usher Coordinator (barry.robichaux@us.ibm.com)

Outreach / Support Ministries

One of our parishioners requested assistance towards her rent. She and her husband, who is partially paralyzed, had fallen behind when she lost her job. They were trying to move to a smaller, lower cost apartment, but were unable to at that time because of the expenses involved in moving (i.e., first month's rent, movers, etc.). Due to the generosity of our parishioners, we were able to provide rent assistance, enabling them to remain in their apartment until she started a new job and they were able to afford to move.

God is so good!!! He works through you to uplift and enable those most in need. We would not be able to do the work we do at St. Vincent de Paul as volunteers without the financial and prayer support of our St. Martha community. God bless you today and always.

MARTHA'S KITCHEN

Day of the Dead (Día de los Muertos), is a celebration from Oct.31 through Nov. 2 that unites the living and the dead. Families create ofrendas (offerings) to honor their departed family members and friends. These altars are decorated with bright yellow marigold flowers, photos of the dead, and the favorite foods and drinks of the one being honored. It is unlike any other day where mourning is exchanged for celebration.

In celebration of All Souls Day, Martha's Kitchen sets up an altar of Offerings in remembrance of our deceased volunteers. May eternal rest be granted to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

"Father, those we love and who have died, live now in Your presence. We plead in hope for our families, relatives, and friends, and for all the dead known only to You. In the company of Christ, Who died and now lives, may they find joy in Your kingdom, where all our tears are wiped away. Unite us again today as one family, to celebrate Your gift of Life. We praise You forever and ever. Amen."

God's Blessings to all.

MONICA'S HOPE

Monica's Hope is a prayerful support group for parents of seriously troubled children of all ages. Troubles might include mental illness, addiction, criminality, etc. When our children suffer, we suffer. Come join parents who understand because they have experienced troubles with their child. We share, pray and gain strength for our journeys.

Our next meeting is Monday, Nov. 7, 7:30-9 p.m. in Room 3 on the Woodland Hills Campus. If you have any questions call Paul Aegerter 832-331-4472; Marcia Aegerter 281-467-4043; or Kathy Czubik 713-213-7173.

Knights of Columbus

Ceremonia de Oración y Rosario de la Rosa de Plata
Honrando a Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe y Pro-Vida
Patrocinado por los Caballeros de Colón

Una rosa plateada en una peregrinación de nueve meses será la pieza central de un servicio de oración especial en St. Martha el martes 8 de noviembre después de la Misa de las 7 p. m.
¡Por favor únete a nosotros!

El Servicio de Oración de la Rosa de Plata es para honrar a Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe y expresar tanto la unidad internacional como la dedicación a la santidad de la vida humana. El viaje de la rosa de plata comienza cada año en marzo y finaliza el 12 de diciembre, festividad de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Durante ese tiempo, Silver Roses viaja de pueblo en pueblo a lo largo de ocho rutas a lo largo de América del Norte, comenzando en Canadá y terminando en México.
